INSTRUCTOR’S POLICIES:

1. ATTENDANCE - Students are expected to attend class, arriving in a punctual manner. Roll will be taken at the beginning of the class. If the student misses roll, it will be the student’s responsibility to see the instructor after class to gain credit for attendance. The student is responsible for all material covered during any class missed, and should take the initiative to meet with a classmate to acquire missed information.
   Every 3rd tardy will convert to an unexcused absence.
The 3rd unexcused absence will cause a final grade reduction of one letter grade. For each additional 3 absences, the grade will be lowered another letter grade.
(For example, if a student has earned an "A" in the course, but has accumulated 6 unexcused absences, the student will receive a "C" in the class)
A written excuse for an absence must be presented upon the first day returning from the absence(s) in order to be considered.

2. PROJECTS - Projects MUST be turned in to the instructor at the beginning of the class and ready for the in-class critique. No late work will be accepted for grade. Excused attendance late work must be accompanied by a written excuse upon the first day the student returns to class and the late work will ONLY BE ACCEPTED ON THAT DAY AND WITH ONE LETTER GRADE REDUCTION.

3. E-MAILING THE INSTRUCTOR - Students are expected to attend class, take notes, keep all handouts and course information, utilize class time for questions and discussion, and refer to the textbook for further clarification of information. If a student is still having difficulties then an appointment should be made during the instructor’s office hours to discuss the matter. E-mailing the instructor for missed class assignments, course or assignment grades, or to answer and individual question is prohibited. Your questions will benefit others and should be saved for class. Instructor email is NOT to be utilized as your private tutoring tool.

4. RESPONSIBILITY CHECKING E-MAILS & FASHION DESIGN BLOG – Students should check e-mails and blog postings periodically, http://untfasdes.blogspot.com, for internships, competitions, scholarships, school important information, and so forth.

5. Students should bring their own pattern making and sewing tools to the class when working on the projects.
6. MAINTENANCE - Students should maintain the sewing machines, dress forms, as well as the working area. Students are required to clean their working areas 5 minutes before end of class.

7. If you are in need of a letter of recommendation from the instructor, below is a list of requirements to be eligible for a letter.
   a. You must have completed at least 2 studio classes with me and earned a “B” or better with excellent attendance.
   b. The instructor needs a two-week notice when you give the request.
   c. Request must be given in written form with the information of who/or what this letter is to be written to.

8. ACADEMIC INTEGRITY - UNT’s policy on academic integrity can be found here: http://policy.unt.edu/sites/default/files/untpolicy/pdf/7-Student_Affairs-Academic_Integrity.pdf. The definitions of cheating and the consequences for cheating are enforced in this course.

9. FIBERS CLASSROOMS AND EQUIPMENT - The Fibers classrooms and equipment are not part of the Fashion Design Department and are off limits to students not currently enrolled in Fibers classes.

10. The instructor of record determines all grades for each project, in class work, and attendance.

AMERICAN DISABILITIES ACT: “The University of North Texas makes reasonable academic accommodation for students with disabilities. Students seeking accommodation must first register with the Office of Disability Accommodation (ODA) to verify their eligibility. If a disability is verified, the ODA will provide you with an accommodation letter to be delivered to faculty to begin a private discussion regarding your specific needs in a course. You may request accommodations at any time, however, ODA notices of accommodation should be provided as early as possible in the semester to avoid any delay in implementation. Note that students must obtain a new letter of accommodation for every semester and must meet with each faculty member prior to implementation in each class. Students are strongly encouraged to deliver letters of accommodation during faculty office hours or by appointment. Faculty members have the authority to ask students to discuss such letters during their designated office hours to protect the privacy of the student. For additional information see the Office of Disability Accommodation website at http://www.unt.edu/oda. You may also contact them by phone at 940.565.4323.

DISABILITIES ACCOMMODATION: Please notify the instructor if you have a disability that requires accommodation. It is also required that you register with the UNT Office of Disability Accommodation, Student Union, Room 318. The College of Visual Arts and Design policy on accommodation is available upon request in the CVAD Dean’s offices, Room 107. Further questions and problems on accommodation may be addressed to the School Accommodation Liaison, Art Building, Student Advising, Room 111.

COURSE RISK FACTOR:
This course has a level 2 rating for risk. Students are exposed to some significant hazards (Xacto knife, scissors, etc.) but are not likely to suffer serious bodily harm.
BUILDING EMERGENCY PROCEDURES: For Art building, in case of emergency (alarm will sound), please follow the building evacuation plans posted on each floor of your building and proceed to the nearest parking lot. In case of tornado (campus sirens will sound) or other weather related threat, please go to the nearest hallway or room on your floor without exterior windows and remain there until an all clear signal is sounded. Follow the instructions of your teachers and act accordingly. For Welch Street Complex #1, the Texas Fashion Collection is the designated shelter.

CENTER FOR STUDENT RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITES: The following statement reminds students of their rights and responsibilities within the academic community – “Each University of North Texas student is entitled to certain rights associated with higher education institutions. See www.unt.edu/csrr for further information.”

STUDENT ACADEMIC PROGRESS:
Financial Aid Satisfactory Academic Progress - Undergraduates
A student must maintain Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) to continue to receive financial aid. Students must maintain a minimum 2.0 cumulative GPA in addition to successfully completing a required number of credit hours based on total registered hours per term. Students cannot exceed attempted credit hours above 150% of their required degree plan. If a student does not maintain the required standards, the student may lose their financial aid eligibility.

If at any point you consider dropping this or any other course, please be advised that the decision to do so may have the potential to affect your current and future financial aid eligibility. Please visit http://financialaid.unt.edu/satisfactory-academic-progress-requirements for more information about financial aid Satisfactory Academic Progress. It may be wise for you to schedule a meeting with an academic advisor in your college or visit the Student Financial Aid and Scholarships office to discuss dropping a course being doing so.
