

Accelerated Course French 2040/2050 University of North Texas, Spring 2010 Course Information and Policies

Welcome to French Accelerated 2040/2050. The following pages outline the general information and policies for this course. Read them carefully and keep them for your reference throughout the semester. You will be notified immediately of any changes made to the course information and policies.

Course description and objectives:

This course covers two semesters of the second year intermediate-level French. This course, oriented toward students who have completed French 1010/1020 at UNT (or the equivalent), is designed to reinforce the material learned in previous French courses. You will expand proficiency through coursework, homework, and practice using the language. You will also develop a deeper understanding of the diverse aspects of societies and cultures in francophone areas of the world. Since regular oral practice is essential for improving proficiency in a foreign language, daily attendance and active participation are necessary for your success in this course.

Eligibility:

This course is designed for students who have passed French 1020 at UNT or who have tested into this level on the placement exam. Each student is required to show proof of eligibility to the instructor at the beginning of the semester. If you took French 1020 at UNT, documentation showing that you successfully completed 1020 will suffice (transcripts, grade report, etc.). If you did not take FREN 1020 at UNT, you will need to provide your instructor with the course approval form from the Department of Foreign Languages and Literatures showing placement into FREN 2040. If you do not have proof, you must unenroll yourself from the course to receive a refund before the appropriate deadline. It is each student's responsibility to know the deadlines for refunds and other actions.

Required Texts:

Quant à moi... 4th edition. 2009. J. Bragger & D. Rice.

The textbook (Manuel de classe), audio CDs (packaged inside new copies of the Manuel de Classe), and paper workbook (Manuel de Préparation) are required.

Use of E-Mail:

Instructors of 1st & 2nd year French (1010 through 2050) require students to use official UNT Eagle Mail for all communication. This means that your instructor will only respond to e-mail sent by their students from a UNT Eagle Mail address. Likewise, your instructor will only send e-mail to your UNT Eagle Mail address. Information about Eagle Mail can be found at the following Web address: <https://eaglemail.unt.edu/>.

Grading scale: Your grade will be calculated according to the following scale. Please note that grades are not curved. There is no extra credit awarded in this course.

Percentage	Letter Grade
90 – 100 %	A
80 – 89.9 %	B
70 – 79.9 %	C
60 – 69.9 %	D

0 – 59.9 %	F
------------	---

Grade distribution:

Accelerated course part	2040	2050
Attendance	5%	5%
Participation & Oral Class work	15%	15%
Homework, Quizzes & Other Graded Tasks	20%	20%
Chapter Tests	30% (2 X 15% each)	30% (3 X 10% each)
Final Exam (2050)	20%	15%
Compositions	10%	5%
Oral Interview	n/a	10%

A note on Incompletes: A grade of (I), Incomplete, is a non-punitive grade given only during the last one-fourth of a semester and only if a student (1) is passing the course; (2) has justifiable reason why the work cannot be completed on schedule; and (3) arranges with the instructor to finish the course at a later date by completing specific requirements that the instructor must list on the grade sheet. All work in the course must be completed within the specified time (not to exceed one year after taking the course). This process must be initiated by the student. The official request form must be signed by the student, the instructor, and the dept./division chair. If all conditions are not met and all parties do not approve, no grade of Incomplete will be given. Please consult the appropriate UNT Catalog and an academic advisor for additional information.

Absences and attendance policy:

Regular and punctual class attendance is required in this course. Any unauthorized absence will result in loss of points when you are graded for attendance. You will get one grade for attendance which will count for 5% of your final grade in the class. Specifically, you are allowed 2 unexcused absences out of the total meeting days during each part of the semester (FREN 2040 and FREN 2050). For every additional unexcused absence during each part of the semester, the instructor will—using his or her discretion—reduce the score you would have received by 1% each time.

The following 3 cases explained below are considered authorized absences.

Absence due to participation in a sponsored activity. Absences due to participation in sponsored activities must be approved in advance by the chair of the Department of Foreign Languages and Literatures and by your academic dean. Within 3 days after the absence, you must obtain authorized absence cards from the Dean of Students for presentation to your instructor.

Absence for religious holidays. Absences due to the observance of a religious holiday are authorized only if the religion is officially recognized by the University and you have notified your instructor of the date of the absence within the first 15 days of the semester. Notification must be in writing, with receipt of the notification acknowledged and dated by your instructor.

Absence due to illness, family emergency, etc. Absences due to illness, death in the family, or other emergencies will be authorized only if you contact your instructor immediately and if you provide proof that the absence was unavoidable (a physician's statement, accident report, obituary, service bulletin, etc.) within 3 days after the absence.

All other absences will be considered unauthorized and missed work will not be accepted.

Participation & oral classwork:

Since regular oral practice is essential for improving proficiency in a foreign language, daily attendance and active participation are necessary for your success in this course. (Be sure to see attendance policy below.) Your instructor will evaluate your in-class oral coursework every week during the semester, based on the quality of your regular participation throughout the semester. Thus, for the purposes of grading your attendance, participation, preparedness, and oral class work, the semester will be divided into four (4) grading periods: Period 1 & Period 2 will count toward the 2040 Final grade; Period 3 & Period 4 will count toward the 2050 Final grade.

Your grade will be based on the following: 1) Use of French; 2) Interaction in group work and whole-class activities; and 3) Preparation for in-class exercises and tasks.

Each time your participation and oral class work are evaluated (i.e., at the end of Period 1, at the end of Period 2 -4), the rubric below will be used to establish a grade based on a scale of 25 possible points:

Level of participation and preparation	Grade
Uses only French when possible; exhibits excellent, cooperative behavior; always comes to class prepared; never arrives late or leaves early (5 minutes or more)	25 pts.
Uses French often; exhibits good, cooperative behavior; usually prepared for class; occasionally arrives late or leaves early (5 minutes or more)	20 pts.
Uses French and exhibits good, cooperative behavior sometimes; adequate preparation; often arrives late or leaves early (5 minutes or more)	15 pts.
Frequent use of English, average participation, adequate preparation; very often arrives late or leaves early (5 minutes or more)	10 pts.
Present in class, more English than French, minimal participation, unprepared; regularly arrives late or leaves early (5 minutes or more)	5 pts.
Present in class, yet does not participate; unprepared; always arrives late or leaves early (5 minutes or more).	0 pts.

Oral Interviews For 2050—Scheduled by your instructor during the semester (to be done during regular class meetings). Information and instructions will be given by your instructor during the first few weeks of the semester.

Compositions—Information regarding topics and due date will be provided by your instructor.

Make-up policy:

Chapter exams– If you must miss a chapter exam, you must contact your instructor immediately and provide the appropriate documentation (as outlined above) within 3 days after the absence. Only those individuals whose absences are authorized and approved by the Coordinator of Elementary and Intermediate French will be eligible to take a make-up exam over the material missed.

Final exam – An alternate final exam is given only to students who have an exam conflict.

Appeals to reschedule a final exam must be made to your academic dean before the deadline.

Daily work – Other work (homework, quizzes, etc.) may be made up at the discretion of your instructor.

Keeping records

Students must keep all returned graded materials until the end of the semester. In case of grade disagreement, it will be the student’s responsibility to show the graded materials.

Students with learning disabilities:

The University of North Texas is on record as being committed to both the spirit and letter of federal equal opportunity legislation; reference Public Law 92-112, The Rehabilitation Act of 1973 as amended. With the passage of new federal legislation entitled Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), pursuant to section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act, there is renewed focus on providing this population with the same opportunities enjoyed by all citizens.

Students must follow the Procedure for Requesting Special Accommodation, as indicated in the UNT Policy Manual, Volume 3, 18.1.14, part II. According to these guidelines, "[w]ithin the first week of class, qualified students must notify the instructor or academic unit liaison for disability accommodation that options to standard methods of educational access will be needed" (part II, section B).

Policy on food and beverages in FREN 1010, 1020, 2040, and 2050 classrooms:

Students in FREN 1010, 1020, 2040, and 2050 are not allowed to consume food in the classroom during the class period. Students in these courses are allowed to consume appropriate/legal beverages only if the instructor gives his or her approval for doing so in the classroom during the class period.

This policy on the consumption of food and beverages for students of FREN 1010, 1020, 2040, and 2050 has been created in accordance with the University of North Texas Policy Manual, volume II, part/classification number 9.8 (Policy on smoking, food and beverages on campus and in leased facilities), section 4, sub-section 4.2. Please note that "students . . . who violate the provisions of this policy are subject to disciplinary action" (volume II, part 9.8, section 6).

Academic and personal misconduct:

The Department of Foreign Languages and Literatures fully supports and enforces all University policies regarding academic misconduct (cheating, plagiarism, fabrication, etc.) and personal misconduct (disruptive behavior, incivility, etc.) as outlined in the Code of Student Conduct and Discipline, available in the Undergraduate Catalog and online at <http://www.unt.edu/csrr/>. Please be certain that all the work you submit in this course is your own. If you have questions about what constitutes academic misconduct in the context of this course, please contact your instructor or the Coordinator of Elementary and Intermediate French (whose contact information is provided below).

Student Evaluation of Teaching Effectiveness (SETE):

The Student Evaluation of Teaching Effectiveness (SETE) is a requirement for all organized classes at UNT. This short survey will be made available to you at the end of the semester, providing you a chance to comment on how this class is taught. I am very interested in the feedback I get from students, as I work to continually improve my teaching. I consider the SETE to be an important part of your participation in this class.

Important Dates and Links for Spring 2010

A Web site for students of FREN 1010, 1020, 2040, & 2050 is maintained by the Coordinator of Elementary and Intermediate French. Information is added and updated on a regular basis.

<http://www.forl.unt.edu/languages/french/courses/>

You must consult the official Academic Calendar for other important deadlines and dates concerning registration, tuition payment, etc. It is your responsibility to know these dates. A link to the Academic Calendar can be found on the Web page at the address listed below:

<http://www.unt.edu/attendingclasses.htm>. As a student, you are also responsible to know the rules, policies, procedures, etc. that are found in the appropriate student catalog (undergraduate or graduate). These can be accessed on line at the following address: <http://www.unt.edu/catalog/>.

Please know that you are responsible for the material in the chapters covered during the semester (chapters 0-6). Your instructor will decide which homework and what type to give, collect, and grade, as well as when to give quizzes (which may be announced or unannounced). This means that you should do all the exercises in your workbook and listen to your audio CDs in order to keep up with what is being covered in class.
