Course Description:

MUAG 1117 Percussion Class is designed to provide music education majors with a comprehensive understanding of teaching methods and performance techniques for a wide range of percussion instruments commonly used in academic-based ensembles. Through active participation, course participants will gain knowledge of percussion instruments' acoustical properties, methods of sound production, techniques, and notation. The course will also address important topics such as equipment purchases, literature selection, ensemble setups, percussion auditions, and equipment maintenance through class discussions and projects.

Course Goals:

Through full participation in this course, students will be prepared to:

1. Demonstrate the beginning instrument selection process for percussionists.
2. Model appropriate sequencing for teaching percussion basics to a beginning student.
3. Identify, diagnose, and prescribe solutions for common performance problems encountered by percussion students.
4. Choose materials and literature to promote the percussionists' musical and technical development.
5. Demonstrate basic knowledge of grips/hand positions, acoustic characteristics of presented instruments, and practical applications for various sticks and mallets.
6. Advise students, caregivers, and administration in selecting percussion equipment that will fit their needs and budget.
7. Identify practical setup arrangements for percussion instruments in an ensemble setting.
8. Encounter performance challenges and solutions through participation in a percussion ensemble

Required Materials:

- One pair of "general" drumsticks: Innovative Percussion IP-1 or Vic Firth SD1 are recommended
 - www.steveweissmusic.com; www.percussionsource.com; www.sweetwater.com
- One snare drum practice pad for use at home/practice/playing assignments; recommendations below
 - REMO RT-0010; Vic Firth PAD12; Innovative Percussion RP-1R; Evans HQ 12" EVA-RF12G

Attendance Policy:

Regular attendance and participation are essential to learning in this course. The instructor will take attendance each class period. Students are allowed to be absent for a total of (3) class periods without penalty (not counting university excused absences). A fourth unexcused absence will lower the student's final grade by one letter. If more than (4) total classes are missed, the student will earn an 'F' for the final semester grade. If you are late, please know that you are welcome to join the class; however, (2) instances of significant tardiness will be considered (1) absence from class. Please plan to attend every class unless you have a university excused absence, such as active military service or an official university function, as stated in the Student Attendance and Authorized Absences Policy. No matter the absence, students are responsible for making up any work missed from class.

Assignment Descriptions:

Online Exams: (30%) (3 total; 10% each)	There will be three equally weighted CANVAS exams over the semester. Each exam will cover specifics of percussion pedagogy, techniques, instrument construction, and acoustic concepts. Expect short answers, multiple-choice, and matching questions that pertain to class discussions and handouts. All exams will be online and completed outside of class. Exam #1: beginners, snare drum, and rudiments Exam #2: keyboard percussion, timpani, and accessories Exam #3: drum set, world percussion, and marching percussion
In-class Playing Tests: (20%) (4 total; 5% each)	The course instructor will administer four playing tests during class throughout the semester. Playing Tests will be on snare drum, marimba, timpani, and rudimental drumming (snare). The requirements for each Test will be discussed in class and posted on CANVAS. Students may access specific Playing Test dates in the course schedule below.
Digital Portfolio: (20%)	Your portfolio should represent everything you have accumulated from this course (e.g., notes, handouts, relevant articles, concert review, playing tests, projects, and other pertinent documents). This Portfolio is for your reference and use when you become a full-time teacher. The specific requirements for this (digital) notebook will be posted on CANVAS. The due date can be found in the course schedule below.
Participation: (10%)	See the attendance policy above.
Budget Proposal Project: (10%)	The goal of this project is for you to become familiar with the process of finding and purchasing percussion equipment. The requirements and rubric for this project will be posted on CANVAS.
Performance Review: (10%)	Each student will be required to attend (1) outside of class percussion concert performance (e.g., percussion ensemble, recital, concerto, etc.). Following this event, students will submit a formal review of the concert. Specific guidelines for this review will be posted on CANVAS. Observed events may be at UNT, other surrounding universities, or local public schools. UNT percussion concerts and recitals can be found at https://music.unt.edu/events.
 Instructors will not accept late assignments unless previously arranged/approved ***

ODA STATEMENT

The University of North Texas makes reasonable academic accommodation for students with disabilities. Students seeking accommodation must first register with the Office of Disability Access (ODA) to verify their eligibility. If a disability is verified, the ODA will provide you with an accommodation letter. You can now request your Letters of Accommodation ONLINE and ODA will mail your Letters of Accommodation to your instructors. You may wish to begin a private discussion with your professors regarding your specific needs in a course. Note that students must obtain a new letter of accommodation for every semester. For additional information, see the Office of Disability Access.

Financial Aid and Satisfactory Academic Progress

A student must maintain Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) to continue to receive financial aid. Students must maintain a minimum 2.0 cumulative GPA in addition to successfully completing a required number of credit hours based on total hours registered. Students cannot exceed attempted credit hours above 150% of their required degree plan. If a student does not maintain the required standards, the student may lose their financial aid eligibility.

Students holding music scholarships must maintain a minimum 2.5 overall cumulative GPA and 3.0 cumulative GPA in music courses.

If at any point you consider dropping this or any other course, please be advised that the decision to do so may have the potential to affect your current and future financial aid eligibility. It is recommended that you to schedule a meeting with an academic advisor in your college or visit the Student Financial Aid and Scholarships office to discuss dropping a course before doing so.
