Course Description

This course is specifically designed for students in French, German, and Spanish who anticipate teaching in the future. Classroom meetings and Canvas work will include reading assignments and practical tasks such as planning sample lessons and evaluating/preparing different types of assessment tools. Students will be introduced to professional journals and resources as well as professional organizations, many of which offer a range of opportunities for professional development.

Course Objectives

This course serves as an introduction to theoretical foundations of language learning and best practices for language teaching with a specific focus on the following dimensions of foreign language education: 1) curriculum/program design; 2) teaching/learning; and 3) assessment.

Absences

Students with more than 2 unexcused absences will not be eligible to receive an A in this course.

Course Grade

Number	Letter
90-100%	A
80-89.9%	B
70-79.9%	C
60-69.9%	D
0-59.9%	F

Grade Categories

Article Summaries & Critiques (2)	20% (2 X 10% each)
Professional Development Task	10%
Exam	20%
Presentations (3)	30% (3 X 10% each)
Sample Lesson Plan	20%

Instructions and an evaluation rubric for each Article Summary & Critique will be provided in Canvas, including an evaluation rubric. On the due date for each ASC, the assignment must be submitted by 8:00 p.m. local time.

Instructions and an evaluation rubric for the Sample Lesson Plan will be provided in Canvas.

The exam will be based on assignments, required readings, and classroom discussions. Although a study guide will be provided in Canvas, it will not necessarily give you a detailed list of every item that will be included on the exam.

Presentations 1 and 2 will be prepared and given in small groups, which is why regularly scheduled meeting times have been set aside for each group to meet. You may meet outside of class as long as every member of your group is able and willing to do so, but please do not put pressure on someone to meet outside of class since time is set aside for this. Instructions and an evaluation rubric will be provided in Canvas.

Presentation 3 is an individual presentation, which means that you will have less time for this presentation (only 15 minutes maximum). Instructions and an evaluation rubric will be provided in Canvas.

Additional information

The University of North Texas, the College of Liberal Arts & Social Sciences, and/or the Department of World Languages, Literatures & Cultures has asked faculty to include the information below on every syllabus.

Disability Accommodation

The University of North Texas makes reasonable academic accommodation for students with disabilities. Students seeking reasonable accommodation must first register with the Office of Disability Accommodation (ODA) to verify their eligibility. If a disability is verified, the ODA will provide you with a reasonable accommodation letter to be delivered to faculty to begin a private discussion regarding your specific needs in a course. You may request reasonable accommodations at any time, however, ODA notices of reasonable accommodation should be provided as early as possible in the semester to avoid any delay in implementation. Note that students must obtain a new letter of reasonable accommodation for every semester and must meet with each faculty member prior to implementation in each class. Students are strongly encouraged to deliver letters of reasonable accommodation during faculty office hours or by appointment. Faculty members have the authority to ask students to discuss such letters during their designated office hours to protect the privacy of the student. For additional information see the Office of Disability Accommodation website at <http://www.unt.edu/oda>. You may also contact them by phone at 940.565.4323.

Acceptable Student Behavior:

Student behavior that interferes with an instructor's ability to conduct a class or other students' opportunity to learn is unacceptable and disruptive and will not be tolerated in any instructional forum at UNT. Students engaging in unacceptable behavior will be directed to leave the classroom and the instructor may refer the student to the Dean of Students to consider whether the student's conduct violated the Code of Student Conduct. The university's expectations for student conduct apply to all instructional forums, including university and electronic classroom, labs, discussion groups, field trips, etc. The Code of Student Conduct can be found at www.deanofstudents.unt.edu

SEXUAL DISCRIMINATION, HARRASSMENT, & ASSAULT

UNT is committed to providing an environment free of all forms of discrimination and sexual harassment, including sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking. If you (or someone you know) has experienced or experiences any of these acts of aggression, please know that you are not alone. The federal Title IX law makes it clear that violence and harassment based on sex and gender are Civil Rights offenses. UNT has staff members trained to support you in navigating campus life, accessing health and counseling services, providing academic and housing accommodations, helping with legal protective orders, and more.

UNT's Dean of Students' website offers a range of on-campus and off-campus resources to help support survivors, depending on their unique needs: http://deanofstudents.unt.edu/resources_0. Renee LeClaire McNamara is UNT's Student Advocate and she can be reached through e-mail at SurvivorAdvocate@unt.edu or by calling the Dean of Students' office at 940-565-2648. You are not alone. We are here to help.
