This is a course about a people known today as Hispanics, Chicanos, Tejanos, Latinxs, Mexican Americans, among many other names. The course provides a foundation in:

- Identity and resistance theories that allow the exploration of the various constructions of Latinx ethnicity and race from an anthropological perspective.
- A review of the historical constructions of race and ethnicity and how these two categories of difference are synonymous at some times and analogous at other times.
- An insight into the historical and social constructions of Mexican, Mexican American, Latinx identities.
- A critical analysis of the social and political implications of being Mexican or Latinx today.

The growth of the U.S. Latinx population prompted the recognition of the importance of understanding the various issues related to this multifaceted community. Scholars, activists, artists, and policy makers are currently asking many questions about the present realities and future opportunities of Latinxs in this country. One of the central themes among the myriad of issues related to this community is the continuing categorization of this population as other, different, and in some cases not American. Indeed, regardless of population size, place of birth, economic status, linguistic abilities, labor, and educational attainment, Latinxs are ultimately seen as strangers in a nation that has been home or has become home, sometimes for generations. In this class we will explore the ways in which Latinxs have been excluded from the national imagination while maintaining and transforming their own cultural identity. We will see how this process of marginalization a lo Americano—"American style"—has deeply changed the racial and cultural landscape for Latinxs and non-Latinxs. Using the tools of anthropology and other relevant disciplines we will approach the complexities of identity formation in the Latinx community by focusing on two important themes: 1) the historical formation of Latinx identity and identities in the U.S., and 2) the sociocultural issues faced by the Latinx community as we go about maintaining, challenging, and transforming our marginalized status.

OBJECTIVES

This class draws from anthropological and interdisciplinary perspectives in Latino/a Studies. Some of these perspectives may be more or less familiar to you. We will utilize these interdisciplinary perspectives so that by the end of the class you can:

- 1) Understand how and why Latinxs constitute a marginalized population.
- 2) Know the themes that contribute to categorize Latinxs as a single ethno-racial group and as distinct national groupings.
- 3) Be familiar with prominent figures in Latinx history and scholarship and their contributions.
- 4) Appreciate the importance of Latinx studies.
- 5) Be familiar with some of the methods utilized in Latinx studies and anthropology.

REQUIRED READINGS

- 1) Delgado, Richard; Stefancic, Jean, eds. 2010 The Latino/a Condition: A Critical Reader. Second Edition. New York: New York University Press. (Available through the UNT Bookstore. Referred to as TLC in the course outline)

Please make sure that you get the 2010 edition. If you do not get this edition, you may be reading the wrong chapters because the chapter numbers are not the same in previous editions. In this case, you are responsible for figuring out how the chapters in the 2010 edition match with the chapters in the edition that you have. If you cannot afford to buy this book please make sure that you contact the IA so that we can connect you to resources that may be available to you.

- 2) Duncan, Whitney; Lauren Heidbrink and Kristin Yarris. 2018 "Imm/migration in the Trump Era." Hot Spots, Cultural Anthropology, January 31.(Available in Canvas)
- 3) Burns, April. 2022 "Analyzing Ethnographic Data." In Ethnography Made Easy, edited by Alya R. Tyner-Mullings, Ethnography Made Easy, Mary Gatta, Ryan Coughlan. Ethnography Made Easy website.
- 4) López Pulido, Alberto. 2002 "The Living Color of Student's Lives: Bringing Cajitas into the Classroom." Religion & Education, 29 (2): 69-77. (Available in Canvas)
- 5) Nuñez-Janes, Mariela and Daniel Heiman. 2021 "Critical Pedagogy in Action." Anthropology News website April 13, 2021.

COURSE ELEMENTS

1) Class project: You will participate in a semester class project and you will have a choice between two projects:

a. The Chicanx Latinx Oral History Project (CLAHP)

- Our focus this year will be on Latinxs during times of crisis. We want to document and understand their experiences as Latinxs during an unprecedented time in our history resulting from the pandemic and uprisings.
- The project includes a series of assignments described in detail in this syllabus. These assignments are built on each other, so it is important that you complete them on time. The assignments will be discussed as part of the training I will provide during class lectures. You will learn about oral history as a methodology and have an opportunity to use it.

b. The Bilingual Homework Hotline (BHH)

At Texas Woman's University (TWU) and the University of North Texas (UNT) we are committed to social justice and equity pedagogies and have partnered with the Bilingual/ESL Department in Denton ISD (DISD) on a project to address the inequities exacerbated by the pandemic through a culturally relevant service learning and community engagement opportunity: the Bilingual Homework Hotline. The purpose of this hotline is to partner pre-service teachers (PSTs) and other students from TWU and UNT with K-12 students and their families in DISD and provide support with homework and other school-related questions over the phone and/or in a virtual setting. The goals of the Homework/Mentoring Hotline are the following:

- critically listen to families and students and offer academic and social support in and around remote learning
- develop a trusting and consistent relationship with families and students
- offer mentoring about the path to college while also positioning themselves as co-learners with families and students
- document their experiences with families and students in online journals (Canvas); experiences are shared with DISD Bilingual/ESL Department and integrated into PSTs (pre-service teacher) and other students coursework/evaluation The journals will be developed based on a listening guide. Students will document the time: date and time spent, family/DISD student preferred language, types of questions asked, answers/solutions provided, ideas for further thought/reflections.
- make connections to key theoretical perspectives in the course
- gain experience in working/learning with families and students through virtual learning spaces
- offer valuable community service to a university school district collaboration in response to a global pandemic

The bilingual homework hotline began Fall 2020 and we had about 100 students from UNT and TWU volunteer. Most of the students were enrolled in my Anthropology of Education class. Faculty from UNT and TWU, including myself, began meeting in April of 2020 with Denton ISD officials to brainstorm how we can help. The idea for the hotline began to take specific shape in the summer of 2020.

For our action research project, you will volunteer weekly with the bilingual homework hotline for at least 2 hours per week.

If you choose to do the CLAHP project you will turn in the following assignments:

a) Selecting a project (10 points)

- You will complete a brief survey in Canvas to let me know which project you are selecting.

b) Transcript of mock interview (25 points):

- You will interview someone for practice using the interview script or protocol in the class project module.
- You will transcribe 5 minutes of the mock interview and turn in the written transcript using the transcription guidelines in the class project module.

c) Scheduling and conducting the interview (15 points):

- You will contact, schedule, and conduct a virtual interview that you will audio/video record with a Latinx not enrolled in the class (this is your “informant”). The informant must be someone that you know.
- You will turn in a written notice with the date, place, and time of the interview.

d) Interview transcript (50 points):

- You will produce a typewritten transcript of the interview with your informant. The transcript must follow the guidelines provided in the class project module.
- Turn in the code book.

d) Final Paper Blog (100 points):

- You will turn in a final paper in the form of a blog that analyzes the interview following the guidelines provided in the class project module.

If you choose the BHH project you will turn in the following assignments:

a) Selecting a project (10 points)

- You will complete a brief survey in Canvas to let me know which project you are selecting.

b) Background check and completion of volunteer survey (15 points)

- You will complete and submit the background check required for DISD volunteers.
- You will also complete and submit a volunteer survey that will help determine when you are available to volunteer

c) Weekly volunteering and reflections in the form of fieldnotes for each day that you volunteer (compiled in one document, 25)

- Once your background check is approved you will volunteer a minimum of 2 hours per week as a homework helper
- You will produce and submit notes (fieldnotes) based on your observations and reflections about your volunteer activities with the BHH

d) Analysis (50)

- You will produce and submit a code book based on your analysis of your fieldnotes.
- You will submit a 1 page summary of the major themes identified in your code book.

e) Final Paper Blog

- You will turn in a final paper in the form of a blog that provides a final summary and analysis of all your fieldnotes following the guidelines provided in the class project module in Canvas

2) Weekly Lectures (100 points):

- You will attend and participate in weekly class lectures.

3) Complete discussion preparation guide and lead in class discussion (50 points):

- You will sign-up to lead one discussion during the semester and complete a discussion preparation guide to help you. The discussion dates along with the available chapters are listed on the syllabus. A discussant sign-up sheet will be available on Canvas for you to select the day you want to lead discussion. You are responsible for leading discussion on the date you selected. If you miss the discussion and do not have a valid excuse, you will not receive credit. Please make sure you email me or the class IA if you have an emergency and are unable to lead a discussion.
- To complete the discussion preparation guide, select one chapter from the ones listed for your selected date and turn in your completed discussion preparation guide (25 points) before you lead discussion.
- Use the guide to lead a small group discussion. We will meet on Zoom and go into breakout rooms on discussion days. (25 points) once during the semester

3) Quizzes (100 points total)

- There will be 4 quizzes worth 25 points each.
- The quizzes will consist of short answers and will cover the class readings and lectures. If you are attending lectures, keeping up with the readings, and attending live zoom sessions there is no reason for you not to do well in the quizzes. I am interested in your understanding of the main concepts of the readings and your critical approach to class topics. You can use the book and your notes during the quizzes, but you will need to answer the questions using your own words. If you are having a tough time with the quizzes, please seek help. You can contact me or the class IA, talk to other students in the class, or seek some of the resources in the syllabus.
- Make-up quizzes will not be allowed unless you have a documented excuse for your absence.

Grading:

- All grades will be assigned based on the following grading scheme:

100-89% = A

88-79% = B

78-69% = C

68-59% = D

58%- = F

Please let me or the IA know if you are having any trouble with the assignments or quizzes or if you have questions about your grades. Come to virtual office hours and/or make an appointment so that we can talk about your questions and identify strategies to help you succeed in the class.

I will return your graded assignments to you within about a week of their due date.

Contacting me by email

You should expect responses to emails, phone calls, or other inquiries directed to me within 2 business days. Contact me again if you do not hear from me. I would appreciate a gentle reminder. I care about your success and the success of each student in the class, yet due to its size I cannot meet with all of you individually. When you have questions about assignments, the course materials or anything else related to the course content please start by contacting our class IA. The IA cares about your success and as a graduate student also has expertise to share. If the IA is unable to help you then come to my virtual office hours or email me to make an appointment if you are unable to make it during the scheduled office hours.

Canvas Announcements

I will periodically share announcements on Canvas about reminders and updates relevant to the class.

Diversity and Global Issues CLASS requirement

This course fulfills the CLASS requirement for Diversity and Global Issues. At the end of this course, students should be able to do at least three of the following: 1. Identify the origins, influences, and limits of one's own cultural heritage. 2. Demonstrate the ability to learn from and empathize with perspectives and experiences different from one's own. 3. Show an understanding of the interrelationships of the self, local society, and global environments. 4. Describe the impacts of complex, worldwide systems. 5. Explain the reasoning for one's ethical responsibilities within worldwide systems.

A NOTE ABOUT LEARNING DURING UNPRECEDENTED TIMES

(adapted from Dr. Jason Tham)

The COVID-19 pandemic continues and so do the challenges and suffering of people in our own country and around the world. As we try to navigate, manage, and survive during these times of injustice, persecution, joblessness, homelessness, sickness and death we have the opportunity to come together in this class. We are a learning community and as part of this community our engagement as individuals who are part of this collective space should be guided by the following principles:

People are the priority. Educational institutions claim that students and teachers are their top priority, yet the holistic wellbeing of students and educators is demonstrated by actions and practices that clearly and uncompromisingly prioritize the people most impacted by them. As participants in the process of teaching and learning we should remember to put people first by practicing the ideas we will learn about in this class with empathy and compassion. We must remember to engage each other with our minds as well as our hearts as sentipensantes, human beings whose humanity is deeply connected to our ability to think and feel.

Stay informed. We will seek reliable sources of information to stay informed about developments related to the pandemic and to local and global social injustices. We will use this to make informed personal and professional decisions.

Communicate and connect. We will communicate with each other often and will remain connected. This may mean experimenting with communication platforms that may be new to some of us. It may also mean changing platforms as needed. Please reach out when you have questions and when you need support.

Celebrate accomplishments. We will take time to celebrate and mark our collective class accomplishments and the individual accomplishments that are significant to you. Any kind of achievement during an uncertain time is a testament to your ability to persevere and our collective ability to do it together.

Take time to thrive. It is important that individually and collectively we take time to take care of our minds, bodies, and spirits. If you are not feeling well and are struggling to do the work for this class let me know so that we can produce alternatives. Do not push yourself beyond your limits; invest in self-care and self-preservation. Take time to do things that nurture your body, mind, and soul.

ANTI-RACIST SYLLABUS STATEMENT

Education is transformative, and open intellectual inquiry is the foundation of a university education and a democratic society. In the spirit of shared humanity and concern for our community and world, the Department of Anthropology faculty celebrate diversity as central to our mission and affirm our solidarity with those individuals and groups most at risk. In line with our departmental goals, we disavow all racism, xenophobia, homophobia, sexism, Islamophobia, anti-Semitism, classism, ableism, and hate speech or actions that attempt to silence, threaten, and degrade others. In our classrooms, all students are welcome regardless of race/ethnicity, gender identities, gender expressions, sexual orientation, socio-economic status, age, disabilities, religion, regional background, Veteran status, citizenship status, nationality, and other diverse identities that we each bring to class. As educators, we affirm that language and texts, films, and stories help us understand the experiences of others whose lives are different from ours. We value critical reasoning, evidence-based arguments, self-reflection, and imagination. Building on these capacities, we hope to inspire empathy, social and environmental justice, and an ethical framework for our actions. We advocate for a diverse campus, community, and nation inclusive of racial minorities, women, immigrants, the LGBTQ+ community, and people of all religious faiths. The Department of Anthropology is committed to supporting our students and fostering an environment free of bias, discrimination, and harassment, in the classroom and the broader university community. Any member of our community can report an issue to the department chair anonymously.

COVID-19 Impact on Attendance

Students are expected to attend class meetings regularly and to abide by the attendance policy established for the course. It is important that you communicate with the professor and the instructional team prior to being absent, so you, the professor, and the instructional team can discuss and mitigate the impact of the absence on your attainment of course learning goals. Please inform the professor and instructional team if you are unable to attend class meetings because you are ill, in mindfulness of the health and safety of everyone in our community.

If you are experiencing any symptoms of COVID-19 please seek medical attention from the Student Health and Wellness Center (940-565-2333 or askSHWC@unt.edu) or your health care provider PRIOR to coming to campus. UNT also requires you to contact the UNT COVID Team at COVID@unt.edu for guidance on actions to take due to symptoms, pending or positive test results, or potential exposure.

Face Coverings

UNT encourages everyone to wear a face covering when indoors, regardless of vaccination status, to protect yourself and others from COVID infection, as recommended by current CDC guidelines.

OTHER IMPORTANT INFORMATION

Withdrawal: Withdrawing from a course is a formal procedure which YOU must initiate (for a "W" or "WF," as determined by the instructor, with instructor approval). If you simply stop attending and do not withdraw, you will receive a performance grade, usually an "F."

Statement on Plagiarism and Cheating: The department of anthropology considers students to be new members of the community of anthropologists, who are thus held to the high ethical standards of practicing professionals. They are expected to follow the American Anthropological Association's code of ethics: "Anthropological researchers bear responsibility for the integrity and reputation of their discipline, of scholarship, and of science. Thus, anthropological researchers are subject to the general moral rules of scientific and scholarly conduct: they should not deceive or knowingly misrepresent (i.e., fabricate evidence, falsify, plagiarize), or attempt to prevent reporting of misconduct, or obstruct the scientific/scholarly research of others" (<http://www.aaanet.org/committees/ethics/ethcode.htm>). Any work not meeting this standard will be evaluated in a hearing before the student; infractions will merit dismissal.

Go to the Department of Anthropology website for more information about paper writing, including how to avoid plagiarism, and how to use citations. Visit UNT's Center for Student Rights and Responsibilities for information on the University's policies regarding academic integrity and dishonesty.

UNT POLICIES

Academic Integrity Policy

Academic Integrity Standards and Consequences. According to UNT Policy 06.003, Student Academic Integrity, academic dishonesty occurs when students engage in behaviors including, but not limited to cheating, fabrication, facilitating academic dishonesty, forgery, plagiarism, and sabotage. A finding of academic dishonesty may result in a range of academic penalties or sanctions ranging from admonition to expulsion from the University.

ADA Policy

UNT makes reasonable academic accommodation for students with disabilities. Students seeking accommodation must first register with the Office of Disability Accommodation (ODA) to verify their eligibility. If a disability is verified, the ODA will provide a student with an accommodation letter to be delivered to faculty to begin a private discussion regarding one's specific course needs. Students may request accommodations at any time, however, ODA notices of accommodation should be provided as early as possible in the semester to avoid any delay in implementation. Note that students must obtain a new letter of accommodation for every semester and must meet with each faculty member prior to implementation in each class. For additional information see the ODA website.

Prohibition of Discrimination, Harassment, and Retaliation (Policy 16.004)

The University of North Texas (UNT) prohibits discrimination and harassment because of race, color, national origin, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, age, disability, genetic information, veteran status, or any other characteristic protected under applicable federal or state law in its application and admission processes; educational programs and activities; employment policies, procedures, and processes; and university facilities. The University takes active measures to prevent such conduct and investigates and takes remedial action when appropriate.

Emergency Notification & Procedures

UNT uses a system called Eagle Alert to quickly notify students with critical information in the event of an emergency (i.e., severe weather, campus closing, and health and public safety emergencies like chemical spills, fires, or violence). In the event of a university closure, please refer to Canvas for contingency plans for covering course materials.

Retention of Student Records

Student records pertaining to this course are maintained in a secure location by the instructor of record. All records such as exams, answer sheets (with keys), and written papers submitted during the duration of the course are kept for at least one calendar year after course completion. Course work completed via the Canvas online system, including grading information and comments, is also stored in a safe electronic environment for one year. Students have the right to view their individual record; however, information about student's records will not be divulged to other individuals without proper written consent. Students are encouraged to review the Public Information Policy and the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) laws and the University's policy. See UNT Policy 10.10, Records Management and Retention for additional information.

Acceptable Student Behavior

Student behavior that interferes with an instructor's ability to conduct a class or other students' opportunity to learn is unacceptable and disruptive and will not be tolerated in any instructional forum at UNT. Students engaging in unacceptable behavior will be directed to leave the classroom and the instructor may refer the student to the Dean of Students to consider whether the student's conduct violated the Code of Student Conduct. The University's expectations for student conduct apply to all instructional forums, including University and electronic classroom, labs, discussion groups, field trips, etc. Visit UNT's Code of Student Conduct to learn more.

Access to Information - Eagle Connect

Students' access point for business and academic services at UNT is located at: my.unt.edu. All official communication from the University will be delivered to a student's Eagle Connect account. For more information, please visit the website that explains Eagle Connect and how to forward e-mail Eagle Connect.

Student Evaluation Administration Dates

Student feedback is important and an essential part of participation in this course. The student evaluation of instruction is a requirement for all organized classes at UNT. The survey will be made available during weeks 13, 14 and 15 (April 10th to April 28th) of the long semesters to provide students with an opportunity to evaluate how this course is taught. Students will receive an email from "UNT SPOT Course Evaluations via IASystem Notification" (no-reply@iasystem.org) with the survey link. Students should look for the email in their UNT email inbox. Simply click on the link and complete the survey. Once students complete the survey they will receive a confirmation email that the survey has been submitted. For additional information, please visit the SPOT website or email spot@unt.edu.

Sexual Assault Prevention

UNT is committed to providing a safe learning environment free of all forms of sexual misconduct, including sexual harassment, sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking. Federal laws (Title IX and the Violence Against Women Act) and UNT policies prohibit discrimination on the basis of sex, and therefore prohibit sexual misconduct. If you or someone you know is experiencing sexual harassment, relationship violence, stalking, and/or sexual assault, there are campus resources available to provide support and assistance. UNT's Survivor Advocates can assist a student who has been impacted by violence by filing protective orders, completing crime victim's compensation applications, contacting professors for absences related to an assault, working with housing to facilitate a room change where appropriate, and connecting students to other resources available both on and off campus. The Survivor Advocates can be reached at SurvivorAdvocate@unt.edu or by calling the Dean of Students Office at 940-565- 2648. Additionally, alleged sexual misconduct can be non-confidentially reported to the Title IX Coordinator at oeo@unt.edu or at (940) 565 2759.

Where to go for help:

Technical Help

If you have a technical problem in this course, contact the UIT Help Desk (If you do not understand the assignments or need help with the course content, please contact the instructor.)

In order for the Help Desk to help you, make sure that you have the following information:

1. The course title, number, and instructor.

2. Which browser and browser version you are using.
3. Where you are when you experience these difficulties (home, work, school, etc.).
4. If at home, please include your internet service provider.
5. The exact text of any error messages.
6. Your EUID and Student ID for troubleshooting purposes.
7. Specific actions that led to the problems you experienced.

Help with Canvas

The UNT Canvas server rarely experiences unscheduled down time. However, as with any type of technology, it is possible that it could fail.

If you need immediate help using a specific tool while you are in Canvas, you can access the help guide. The instructions provided in this context-sensitive help are clear and useful.

Student Success

The UNT Academic Success Center provides academic support services for all UNT students. These services include programs such as: The Writing Center and Office of Disability Access.

The UNT Student Resources website also has additional information to help you succeed at UNT.

Mental Health

UNT provides mental health resources to students to help ensure there are numerous outlets to turn to that wholeheartedly care for and are there for students in need, regardless of the nature of an issue or its severity. Listed below are several resources on campus that can support your academic success and mental well-being:

- Student Health and Wellness Center
- Counseling and Testing Services
- UNT Care Team

- UNT Psychiatric Services
- Individual Counseling

COURSE OUTLINE

Note: this syllabus may be subject to changes and/or revisions.

Guidelines for final blog

Your final paper blog will discuss the main themes you identified in the interview of your informant (for CLAHP project) or in your analysis (for BHH) project

The blog must be no longer than 8,000 words using 12 point font.

It must include:

- Images and other media (include captions) that serve to illustrate the themes of the interview (these can be pictures that you take and/or images available for public use or videos) (10 points)—does not count towards word count.

- Title, your name, course title and number, semester (5 points)—does not count towards word count.
- Thesis statement and brief biographic sketch of your informant (for CLAHP). Brief description of activities (for BHH). Remember not to include name or personally identifiable information of informant if they chose to remain anonymous (10 points).
- A description of the methods used. For CLAHP this description must include: when and where you conducted the interview, the procedures followed for transcribing the interview, a description of how you identified the relevant themes from the interview along with a list of all of the themes you came up with. For BHH this description must include: when and how many times you volunteered, including total number of hours, the procedures you followed for taking fieldnotes, a description of how you identified the relevant themes from the fieldnotes along with a list of all of the themes you came up with (20 points).
- Analysis that identifies the most relevant themes from the interview (for CLAHP) or fieldnotes (for BHH) and relates them to ideas and information from the readings and class lectures. This analysis must include relevant citations (follow the Chicago Manual of Style Author-Date format) of the class lectures and readings that show your understanding of how the readings and class lectures apply to the relevant themes you identify. It must be written in a way that supports and develops your thesis statement (40 points).
- A page listing the references cited in your paper (follow the Chicago Manual of Style Author-Date format) along with a brief acknowledgement of your informant (15 points).
