Welcome to UNT: As members of the UNT community, we have all made a commitment to be part of an institution that respects and values the identities of the students and employees with whom we interact. UNT does not tolerate identity-based discrimination, harassment, and retaliation. UNT’s full Non-Discrimination Policy can be found in the UNT Policies section of the syllabus.

Instructor information: Melissa McKay, Ph.D.
Office: Hall Park A #125
Student Office Hours: Tuesday 6-8pm via Zoom and by appointment as needed
Email: melissa.mckay@unt.edu
(I will only email you on your university account)

Class Information: Meeting times: Thursday 5:30 – 8:20pm
Meeting place: Hall Park A #133
Online classroom: https://unt.instructure.com

Course Description: This course discusses the nature of the international system, causes and effects of international conflict, the challenges faced by developing countries and governments and the institutional constraints that exist in world politics. We will study causes and trends of war and peace, explore international economic concepts, understand the role of institutions and organizations, and understand the role of international law.

Course Structure: This class will be delivered in a face-to-face format, with many class resources and materials available via Canvas LMS. Assignments, quizzes, and exams will also be made available via Canvas.

Class Communications: You can send me a note via Canvas, or email me directly at the address provided above. Please allow me around 24 hours to get back to you, but if it’s been longer and you haven’t heard back, don’t be shy about sending me a reminder. If you send a note on Friday-Sunday, please expect that I will not write you back until Monday.

Required Materials:
World Politics – Interests, Interactions, Institutions - Fourth Edition
Frieden, Lake, and Schultz
Norton Publishing (2019)

The World – A Brief Introduction
Richard Haass
Penguin Press (2020)

- Access to a popular and reliable podcast app (Apple Podcasts, Spotify, Google Play, etc....)
- Consistent and reliable access to the internet
• A laptop, desktop, or other reliable computer – our entire class is based on digital materials and you’ll need a reliable computer.
  o If you do not have one, you can check out a laptop on campus for daily use, or your home high school may also have laptops to loan to students.
  o Please reach out to me if you are having a hard time securing the use of a computer.

Technical Support
Part of working with digital content involves dealing with the inconveniences and frustration that can arise when technology breaks down or does not perform as expected. Here at UNT we have a Student Help Desk that you can contact for help with Canvas or other technology issues.

Please do not rely on me for technical support – trust me, I am not the person for that.

Rules of Engagement
Rules of engagement refer to the way students are expected to interact with each other and with their instructors. Here are some general guidelines:

• While the freedom to express yourself is a fundamental human right, any communication that utilizes cruel and derogatory language on the basis of race, color, national origin, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, age, disability, genetic information, veteran status, or any other characteristic protected under applicable federal or state law will not be tolerated.
• Treat your instructor and classmates with respect in any communication online or face-to-face, even when their opinion differs from your own.
• Ask for and use the correct name and pronouns for your instructor and classmates.
• Speak from personal experiences. Use “I” statements to share thoughts and feelings. Try not to speak on behalf of groups or other individual’s experiences.
• Use your critical thinking skills to challenge other people’s ideas, instead of attacking individuals.
• Avoid using all caps while communicating digitally. This may be interpreted as “YELLING!”
• Be cautious when using humor or sarcasm in emails or discussion posts as tone can be difficult to interpret digitally.
• Avoid using “text-talk”
• Proofread and fact-check your sources.
• Keep in mind that online posts can be permanent, so think first before you type.

See these Engagement Guidelines for more information.

University and Class Policies:

Academic Integrity Standards and Consequences
According to UNT Policy 06.003, Student Academic Integrity, academic dishonesty occurs when students engage in behaviors including, but not limited to cheating, fabrication, facilitating academic dishonesty, forgery, plagiarism, and sabotage. A finding of academic dishonesty may result in a range of academic penalties or sanctions ranging from admonition to expulsion from the University.

ADA Accommodation Statement
UNT makes reasonable academic accommodation for students with disabilities. Students seeking accommodation must first register with the Office of Disability Accommodation (ODA) to verify their eligibility. If a disability is verified, the ODA will provide a student with an accommodation letter to be delivered to faculty to begin a private discussion regarding one’s specific course needs. Students may request accommodations at any time, however, ODA notices of accommodation should be provided as early as possible in the semester to avoid any delay in implementation. Note that students must obtain a new letter of accommodation for every semester and must meet with each faculty member prior to implementation in each class. For additional information see the ODA website at disability.unt.edu.

Prohibition of Discrimination, Harassment, and Retaliation (Policy 16.004)
The University of North Texas (UNT) prohibits discrimination and harassment because of race, color, national origin, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, age, disability, genetic information, veteran status, or any other characteristic protected under applicable federal or state law in its application and admission processes; educational programs and activities; employment policies, procedures, and processes; and university facilities. The University takes active measures to prevent such conduct and investigates and takes remedial action when appropriate.

Emergency Notification & Procedures
UNT uses a system called Eagle Alert to quickly notify students with critical information in the event of an emergency (i.e., severe weather, campus closing, and health and public safety emergencies like chemical spills, fires, or violence). In the event of a university closure, please refer to Canvas for contingency plans for covering course materials.

Acceptable Student Behavior
Student behavior that interferes with an instructor’s ability to conduct a class or other students' opportunity to learn is unacceptable and disruptive and will not be tolerated in any instructional forum at UNT. Students engaging in unacceptable behavior will be directed to leave the classroom and the instructor may refer the student to the Dean of Students to consider whether the student's conduct violated the Code of Student Conduct. The University's expectations for student conduct apply to all instructional forums, including University and electronic classroom, labs, discussion groups, field trips, etc. The Code of Student Conduct can be found at deanofstudents.unt.edu/conduct.
Sexual Assault Prevention
UNT is committed to providing a safe learning environment free of all forms of sexual misconduct, including sexual harassment, sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking. Federal laws (Title IX and the Violence Against Women Act) and UNT policies prohibit discrimination on the basis of sex, and therefore prohibit sexual misconduct. If you or someone you know is experiencing sexual harassment, relationship violence, stalking, and/or sexual assault, there are campus resources available to provide support and assistance. UNT’s Survivor Advocates can assist a student who has been impacted by violence by filing protective orders, completing crime victim’s compensation applications, contacting professors for absences related to an assault, working with housing to facilitate a room change where appropriate, and connecting students to other resources available both on and off campus. The Survivor Advocates can be reached at SurvivorAdvocate@unt.edu or by calling the Dean of Students Office at 940-565-2648. Additionally, alleged sexual misconduct can be non-confidentially reported to the Title IX Coordinator at oeo@unt.edu or at (940) 565 2759.

Federal Regulation: Important Notice for F-1 Students taking Distance Education Courses
To read detailed Immigration and Customs Enforcement regulations for F-1 students taking online courses, please go to the Electronic Code of Federal Regulations website (http://www.ecfr.gov/). The specific portion concerning distance education courses is located at Title 8 CFR 214.2 Paragraph (f)(6)(i)(G).

COVID-19 & Attendance
UNT encourages everyone to wear a face covering when indoors, regardless of vaccination status, to protect yourself and others from COVID infection, as recommended by current CDC guidelines. Face covering guidelines could change based on community health conditions.

Attendance at every class meeting is expected. I am required to take attendance at the beginning of every class for COVID contact tracing purposes.

While attendance is expected as outlined above, it is important for all of us to be mindful of the health and safety of everyone in our community, especially given concerns about COVID-19. Please contact me if you are unable to attend class because you are ill, or unable to attend class due to COVID-19 including symptoms, potential exposure, pending or positive test results, or if you have been given specific instructions to isolate or quarantine from a health care provider or a local authority. The strictest confidence will be placed on your privacy and I will never reveal any personal information to any other student or non-essential personnel. It is important that you communicate with me prior to being absent so I can make a decision about accommodating your request to be excused from class.

If you are experiencing any symptoms of COVID-19 please seek medical attention from the Student Health and Wellness Center (940-565-2333 or askSHWC@unt.edu) or your health care provider PRIOR to coming to campus.
UNT also requires you to contact the UNT COVID Hotline at 844-366-5892 or COVID@unt.edu for guidance on actions to take due to symptoms, pending or positive test results, or potential exposure. While attendance is an important part of succeeding in this class, your own health, and those of others in the community, is more important.

Students who have been asked to quarantine or have tested positive for COVID-19 but are asymptomatic should attend their class over Zoom. If attending class on Zoom, the student must notify the instructor over email at least 1 hour before the start of class, preferably sooner. The instructor will provide you with a Zoom link.

Students may not attend class on Zoom for any other reason. Any student who attends on Zoom for any other reason will be marked absent. Please see the course’s attendance policy for details on non-COVID absences.

Students who have tested positive for COVID-19 or are symptomatic are not expected to attend class in any capacity. Please contact COVID@unt.edu for further guidance and contact your instructor to arrange make-up work.

Academic Support Services

Mental Health
UNT provides mental health resources to students to help ensure there are numerous outlets to turn to that wholeheartedly care for and are there for students in need, regardless of the nature of an issue or its severity. Listed below are several resources on campus that can support your academic success and mental well-being:

- Student Health and Wellness Center (https://studentaffairs.unt.edu/student-health-and-wellness-center)
- Counseling and Testing Services (https://studentaffairs.unt.edu/counseling-and-testing-services)
- UNT Care Team (https://studentaffairs.unt.edu/care)
- Individual Counseling (https://studentaffairs.unt.edu/counseling-and-testing-services/services/individual-counseling)

Chosen Names
A chosen name is a name that a person goes by that may or may not match their legal name. If you have a chosen name that is different from your legal name and would like that to be used in class, please let the instructor know. Below is a list of resources for updating your chosen name at UNT.

- UNT Records
- UNT ID Card
- UNT Email Address
- Legal Name

*UNT eulIDs cannot be changed at this time. The collaborating offices are working on a process to make this option accessible to UNT community members.

Pronouns
Pronouns (she/her, they/them, he/him, etc.) are a public way for people to address you, much like your name, and can be shared with a name when making an introduction, both virtually and in-person. Just as we ask and don’t assume someone’s name, we should also ask and not assume someone’s pronouns.
You can add your pronouns to your Canvas account so that they follow your name when posting to discussion boards, submitting assignments, etc.

Below is a list of additional resources regarding pronouns and their usage:
- What are pronouns and why are they important?
- How do I use pronouns?
- How do I share my pronouns?
- How do I ask for another person’s pronouns?
- How do I correct myself or others when the wrong pronoun is used?

Grading Policies: Final grades are numerically based on the following weighted assignment types:

Unit Exams: 30% of total grade. There are three (3) exams that will assess the student’s comprehension of the unit materials. None of the exams are comprehensive of the entire semester, they will be focused solely on the material covered in the weeks leading up to the exam. Exams are take-home format and will be made available for students to take in their time, but must be turned in on time.

Chapter Quizzes: 15% of total grade. Each chapter from our textbook has an associated quiz found in Canvas. These are excellent tools to help gauge your understanding of the chapter materials by recapping major concepts. Students have three attempts to maximize grades on each chapter quiz, the highest grade will be recorded.

Dr. McKay’s Totally Mandatory Book Club: 15% of total grade. Much like Oprah Winfrey, I think reading is an underrated and under-emphasized skill that needs to be sharpened and strengthened even in higher ed. This semester we will all read “The World: An Introduction” by Richard Haass and meet periodically throughout the semester to talk about the storyline and different elements from the book.

Discussion Forum Posts: 15% of total grade. Being able to articulate thoughts and perspectives, as well as capable of applying concepts to real world events is a vital skill. We’ll develop and focus on this skill by using discussion posts throughout the semester. Students will be provided a prompt and explicit instructions for each graded post. At the minimum, students will be expected to post a well-thought out response to each prompt as well as two (2) responses to classmates.

In-class Activities/Simulations - 15% of total grade. During in-class discussions, students will be expected to participate in simulations, polls, discussions, and other interactive engagement activities. These will often be based on current events or the application of course materials to world affairs.

Engagement - 10% of total grade. This is an interactive class and it requires commitment and engagement from everyone involved. Your class attendance as well as in-class participation will be noted and contribute to your overall grade.

Students will begin the semester with 100 percent for participation grade. Points will be deducted when the student fails to meet expectations for participation in this class. This includes but is not limited to the following: participating in class discussions, arriving to class on time, remaining in class for the entire class period, abiding by classroom policies, treating others with respect, approaching assignments with a serious effort, etc.

Letter grades are assigned based on standard grade scales:

- A - 90-100%
- B - 80-89%
- C - 70-79%
- D - 60-69%
- F - 59 - under

Important Notes:

- Final grades will be based on the weighted outcomes of the assignments above. I use standard mathematical rounding if necessary.
- Please do not request extra credit. If there is an activity that I feel would be relevant I will offer it to the entire class. I cannot and definitely will not provide extra credit opportunities for individual students.
- If you feel like your grades are slipping or you are falling behind, please reach out to me immediately. Too many students wait until their semester progress is a lost cause, but if we catch it early enough we can most likely work together on a plan of action.
