SPAN 2040 Summer 1 2013

“The University of North Texas makes reasonable academic accommodation for students with disabilities. Students seeking accommodation must first register with the Office of Disability Accommodation (ODA) to verify their eligibility. If a disability is verified, the ODA will provide you with an accommodation letter to be delivered to faculty to begin a private discussion regarding your specific needs in a course. You may request accommodations at any time, however, ODA notices of accommodation should be provided as early as possible in the semester to avoid any delay in implementation. Note that students must obtain a new letter of accommodation for every semester and must meet with each faculty member prior to implementation in each class. For additional information see the Office of Disability Accommodation website at <http://www.unt.edu/oda>. You may also contact them by phone at 940.565.4323.”

ELIGIBILITY / UNT PREREQUISITE POLICY

This course is designed for students who have passed Spanish 1010 and 1020 at UNT or the equivalent. For more information, please contact the Department of World Languages, Literatures and Cultures in LANG 101, 565-2404.

COURSE DESCRIPTION / OBJECTIVES

This is the first semester course of the intermediate level of Spanish. Language knowledge will be expanded by learning more advanced grammatical structures and new vocabulary. This course will be student centered in which a large percentage of class time will be spent practicing the language in pairs and small groups. Outside of class students will interact with the language through a variety of online activities. Through these activities and others, students will continue to develop their proficiency in the four languages skills: listening, speaking, reading, and writing.

By the end of this course you will be able to:

- Describe you, your family, and others in detail
- Talk about pastimes and sports
- Share information about your home and surroundings
- Discuss celebrations, life events, foods, and cooking
- Converse about travel, transportation, and technology
- Express feelings and reactions
- Recommend or tell others to do something
- Convey doubt, hope, and uncertainty
- Indicate what you and others have done

Please note: Grades are not curved. No extra credit will be awarded.

ATTENDANCE POLICY

Class attendance is mandatory and essential to your success in learning Spanish. You are allowed one unexcused absence during the semester. For each additional unexcused absence your final grade will be reduced by 1%. Excused absences include the following: illnesses, deaths in the family, religious holidays, and university sponsored activities. For illnesses and deaths, you must provide documentation (physician's statement, obituary, etc.) upon returning to class in order to be excused. Absences in observance of religious holidays are authorized only if you have notified your instructor in writing. For university sponsored activities, you must obtain authorized absence cards from the Dean of Students and present them to your instructor in order for your absences to be excused. Only those individuals whose absences are authorized by the instructor will be eligible to make up any material missed. No make up work will be allowed for unexcused absences. Tardies will also carry penalties according to the policy of the instructor.

PARTICIPATION

Each day you will have the opportunity to earn five participation points. Full participation points will be given to those who are present for the entire class period, are prepared for class, are participating fully and cooperatively in all activities, and are using Spanish whenever possible. Partial attendance (tardiness/early departures) will result in a loss of participation points. The following rubric applies to the class:

Level of participation and preparation	Points
Uses only Spanish when possible; exhibits excellent, cooperative behavior; always comes to class prepared.	5
Uses Spanish often; exhibits good, cooperative behavior; usually prepared for class.	4
Sometimes uses Spanish and exhibits good, cooperative behavior; average preparation.	3
Frequent use of English, less than average participation, less than average preparation.	2
Uses more English than Spanish, minimal participation, unprepared.	1
Does not participate.	0

ORAL INTERVIEW

Toward the end of the semester each student will have a short conversation in Spanish with the instructor or a classmate covering the communicative functions practiced in class. Orals will be graded on information conveyed, vocabulary, grammar, pronunciation, and fluency.

COMPOSITION

You will write one composition during the semester developed as a two stage process. The first draft will be composed in class and turned in. A specific topic will be given in class and you must incorporate the vocabulary and grammar that you have studied up to that time. You may use up to four words you have not yet studied. If you do so, you are required to provide a glossary for each word. The final copy must be typed and double-spaced (font size: 12, font type: Times New Roman, standard margins). Handwritten final copies will not be accepted. The graded first draft must be submitted along with the final copy. If the graded first draft is not submitted, the maximum score that can be earned on the final copy is 45/50. The final copy MUST be turned in on time and MUST be your own work. You will receive a zero (0) if you hand in something not your own. See Outside Help/Academic Integrity.

IN-CLASS TASKS

There will be 5 tasks that will be assigned and completed during class time. They may or may not be announced, and could be quizzes, or other activities that cover grammar, vocabulary, culture, etc. No make ups of in-class tasks for un-authorized absences will be allowed.

MYSpanishLAB

You will be assigned a variety of online activities from the SAM (Student Activities Manual). Your on-line calendar will show the due dates of the activities. Late submissions of SAM activities will not be accepted.

MID-TERM EXAM

The mid-term exam will take place on Monday, June 17.

FINAL EXAM

The final exam for the course will take place on Friday, July 5, during regular class time.

COURSE POLICIES

On Food and Beverages in the Classroom

You are not allowed to consume food or carbonated beverages in the classroom during the class period. You are, however, allowed to consume appropriate/legal beverages only if the instructor gives his or her approval for doing so in the classroom during the class period.

On Outside Help/Academic Integrity

All assignments should be the student's work only and should reflect the student's level of proficiency. Cheating, plagiarism, and other examples of academic misconduct will be pursued and sanctions will be levied.

On Cell phones and Laptops

Cell phones must be off and kept out of sight at all times during class meetings. Any use of a cell phone in class will lower your participation grade. The use of laptop computers in class is not allowed.

On Use of E-Mail

Instructors of first-and second-year Spanish (1010 through 2050) require students to use official UNT Eagle Connect for all communication. This means that your instructor will only respond to e-mail sent by their students from a UNT Eagle Connect address. Likewise, your instructor will only send e-mail to your UNT Eagle Connect address. Information about Eagle Connect can be found at the following Web address: <http://eagleconnect.unt.edu/>.

A note on protocol: If you have a problem with anything related to your course (textbook, instructor, testing, etc.), it is your responsibility to discuss the problem first with your instructor. Most problems or misunderstandings can be dealt with effectively and efficiently if the people most directly involved can discuss the problem and communicate honestly with each other.

On Student Behavior in the Classroom

Student behavior that interferes with an instructor's ability to conduct a class or other students' opportunity to learn is unacceptable and disruptive and will not be tolerated in any instructional forum at UNT. Students engaging in unacceptable behavior will be directed to leave the classroom and the instructor may refer the student to the Center for Student Rights and Responsibilities to consider whether the student's conduct violated the Code of Student Conduct. The university's expectations for student conduct apply to all instructional forums, including university and electronic classroom, labs, discussion groups, field trips, etc. The Code of Student Conduct can be found at www.unt.edu/csrr
