Course Description:

This is a 100 % Internet course. The focus of the course is to apply the theories and research on leadership to developing leadership in each person taking the course. Students will have an opportunity to provide leadership in a nonprofit organization of their choice as a service learning experience and this will allow for recognition and application of knowledge and skills from the course.

Books:

Leadership Theory, Research, and Practice

Peter G. Northouse. 2015. Introduction to Leadership: Concepts and Practice, Fourth Edition.

Thousand Oaks, CA: Sage Publishing. (eBook available and recommended. Please see this web site: <https://us.sagepub.com/en-us/nam/product/Northouse>)

Nonprofit Cases (NP)

Norman Dolch, Julianne Gassman, Ann Marie Kimell, Stephanie Krick, Regan Schaffer, Sue Ann Strom, Susan Cruise, and Ronald Wade. 2013. Leadership Cases in Community Nonprofit Organizations. Debuque, Iowa: Kendal Hunt. (only available as an eBook) Please see the following web site:

<https://he.kendallhunt.com/product/leadership-cases-community-nonprofit-organizations>

Nongovernmental Organization Cases (NGO)

Norman Dolch, Stephanie Krick, Regan Harwell Schaffer, Ronald Wade, Ann Marie Kinnell, Edward Clayton Polson, Julianne Gassman, Susan Cruise. 2016. Nongovernmental Organization Case Studies in Leadership from Around the World. Dubuque, Iowa: Kendal Hunt. (only available as an eBook) Please see the following web site:

<https://he.kendallhunt.com/product/nongovernmental-organization-case-studies-leadership-around-world>

One casebook is on USA based nonprofit organizations. The other casebook is on nongovernmental organizations, which are the equivalent of USA nonprofits. It was selected to give the course a global orientation since students are increasingly interested in nongovernmental (NGO) and nonprofit (NP) organizations working worldwide in the areas of health, human trafficking, and refugees. The NGO case book allows students in the course to directly apply material on leadership to these types of organizations rather than governmental or business organizations.

Students who purchase other editions of the books may find themselves at a distinct disadvantage in the course. The earlier edition of Northouse lacks some new chapters in the Fourth Edition.

Course Pre-requisites, Co-requisites, and/or Other Restrictions:

There are no pre-requisites or restrictions.

Course Objectives:

A student who has successfully completed the course should be able to:

- ☐ Identify and analyze theoretical bases of leadership
- ☐ Examine and apply enduring insights and research on leadership.
- ☐ Identify personal characteristics associated with various leadership styles.
- ☐ Apply leadership skills needed by nonprofit professionals

Student Evaluation Procedures:

~~Students will be required to do the following in the course as described below:~~

Discussions:

The discussion feature of Canvas is used each week. There will be a forum assigned for the week. It is graded with guidelines known as a grading rubric and it is very important for you to read and note this in the remainder of this discussion. The first forum under the DISCUSSION area of Canvas reproduces these guidelines (rubrics) for quick reference when you participate in the discussion boards of the class.

Discussions are usually graded within 5-7 days. A numerical grade is given corresponding to the rubric. Some notes are given and referencing the grading rubric gives you considerable feedback. For example, in the note section you might be told that post=8 and reply=8. Referencing the grading rubric indicates that 8/10 points on the discussion means that you explicitly referenced course material in your discussion but did not include any material over and above the course such as material from another class pertinent to the question nor material from a web site, professional journal article, book, personal experience, etc.

Guidelines or rubrics for the case studies are as follow:

Generally speaking, your professor expects you to make insightful comments on the discussions and in group work on Canvas. An approximate entry length is 125-150 words.

It is recommended that you type your response in a word document to verify spelling and length and then copy it into the discussion post.

Please note that the rubric applies to both your post and replies. Unless otherwise directed, always make a posting and reply to the posting of another person on the discussion boards.

Case study posts are graded on a scale of 0-10 points and the reply to at least one person is also graded on a scale of 0-10 points. The case study discussion boards are worth 20 points, 10 points for the post and 10 points for the reply to another. Each is graded separately and the total recorded as the grade.

Here is the basic grading rubric unless otherwise instructed:

10 points = A direct and explicit reference to the text or other course material plus a relationship to personal experience, something read, material from another class,

8 points = A direct and explicit reference to the text or other course material

7 points = A comment dealing with the topic at hand but lacking a direct and explicit reference to the text or other course material

6 points= A comment that is only remotely related to the topic of the discussion

5 points= A comment like "You made a good point"

0 points= no comment then no points

Questionnaires:

There are questionnaires at the end of each chapter in the Northouse text. You are required to complete them and submit them as assigned. In the Canvas modules you will find them in pdf files.

Student Learning Journal

Students are required to keep a learning journal in which they record the information from the text and Canvas Module material. In the journal, students will record information that they consider important for future use in leading others. The weekly journal will be submitted in the weekly module. The format provided for the journal must be used. The weekly learning journal is worth 25 points.

Essays

Students will write two Autobiographical Qualitative Research Technique based essays on their leadership experiences (leading or being led). The technique is explained in the START HERE lesson for the first week of the course. These essays replace a midterm exam in the course.

Exams

There will be a final exam worth 200 points on the case study from chapter 5 in NP Dolch and Associates Stop Growling Stomachs. The exam provides an opportunity for students to demonstrate their learning from the semester by making explicit references to material from the beginning to the end of the course in their 3-4page analysis of the case.

Volunteer Leadership Experience/ Service Learning Component

Students are required to spend 10 hours volunteering at a nonprofit organization of their choice and use this to reflect on course material.

Course Writing:

All writing must utilize the American Psychological Association (APA) Style

Guidelines. A good resource on APA guidelines is found here:

<http://owl.english.purdue.edu/owl/resource/560/01/>.

Use these guidelines for writing the Reflective Essay and citing references. Also use them for other writing in the course such as on the discussion boards.

Course Grades:

Grades are based on a percentage breakdown of the total points earned in the course as follows:

Breakdown of Total Points for Grading in the Course

Activity	Points
Exercises
Chapter Questionnaires.....	120
2 AQRT Essays.....	60
Discussion Boards
13 NP & NGO Case Studies.....	260
1 discussion board on NP & NGO Differences.....	20

Reflective Essay on Nonprofit Leadership..... 100

Exam

Final (Essay)..... 200

Learning Journal

Student Learning Journal..... 300

Total: 1,060

Final course grades will be assigned on the basis of a percentage breakdown of the 1,150 points in the course as follows: 100-90%= A, 89-80%= B, 79-70%= C, 69-60%= D, and 59% and below= F.

Course Policies:

This course will be governed by all policies in the current Faculty Handbook and the Student Guidebook of the University of North Texas.

- ☐ Students are prohibited from soliciting and /or receiving outside assistance for this class unless they have received prior approval from the instructor.
- ☐ Any and all deviations from this syllabus must be obtained from the instructor IN WRITING through the Instructor's e-mail.
- ☐ Students without acceptable reasons will not be permitted to make-up missed work.
- ☐ All students must abide by the Internet Policies and Procedures as outlined in their enrollment agreements. Please note that students may be dropped for non-attendance in this course. In this Internet class non-attendance will mean that a student has not posted any assignments by the 12th day audit or will have exceeded 3 unauthorized absences during the semester. It is the student's responsibility to watch the University official "drop" dates.
- ☐ A Notice of Unsatisfactory Progress will be sent to students who have either an attendance or grade problem by the University audit date each semester.
- ☐ Syllabus subject to change by the instructor. Students will be notified by email if this occurs.

Academic Integrity:

Academic dishonesty is defined in the UNT Policy on Student Standards for Academic Integrity. Any suspected case of Academic Dishonesty will be handled in accordance with University policy and procedures. Possible academic penalties range from a verbal or written admonition to a grade of "F" in the course. Further sanctions may apply to incidents involving major violations. You will find the policy and procedures at <https://policy.unt.edu/policy/06-003> behavior will be directed to leave the classroom and the instructor may refer the student to the Center for Student Rights and Responsibilities to consider whether the student's conduct violated the Code of Student Conduct. The university's expectations for student conduct apply to all instructional forums, including university and electronic classroom, labs, discussion groups, field trips, etc. The Code of Student Conduct can be found at www.unt.edu/csrr.

Netiquette is very important. The course asks you to follow the Core Rules of Netiquette from the book Netiquette by Virginia Shea. Please go to <http://www.albion.com/netiquette/corerules.html>

Please note that disability accommodations are not retroactive. Accommodations will be made only after a disability is officially verified.

STANDARD SYLLABUS POLICY LANGUAGE

STUDENT CONDUCT

Any student behavior that interferes with an instructor's ability to conduct class or other students' opportunity to learn is unacceptable and will not be tolerated in any instructional setting at UNT. This includes traditional face-to-face classes, online or blended classes, labs, discussion groups or boards, field trips, and verbal and/or written (including email) communication with the instructor and/or other students. Examples of unacceptable behavior include, but are not limited to, disrespectful treatment of other students (verbal or written), disrupting lecture, and use of inappropriate or profane language or gestures in class or other instructional settings.

A student engaging in unacceptable behavior may be directed to leave the classroom or other instructional setting and may also be referred to the Dean of Students to consider whether his/her conduct violates UNT's Student Code of Conduct.

CAMPUS CARRY & CONCEALED HANDGUNS

In accordance with state law and UNT policy, students who are licensed may carry a concealed handgun on campus premises except in locations and at any function, event, and program prohibited by law or by this policy. Students may learn more about UNT's concealed handgun policy at <https://campuscarry.unt.edu>.

SEXUAL DISCRIMINATION, HARRASSMENT, & ASSAULT

UNT is committed to providing an environment free of all forms of discrimination and sexual harassment, including sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking. If you (or someone you know) has experienced or experiences any of these acts of aggression, please know that you are not alone. The federal Title IX law makes it clear that violence and harassment based on sex and gender are Civil Rights offenses. UNT has staff members trained to support you in navigating campus life, accessing health and counseling services, providing academic and housing accommodations, helping with legal protective orders, and more.

UNT's Dean of Students' website offers a range of on-campus and off-campus resources to help support survivors, depending on their unique needs:

http://deanofstudents.unt.edu/resources_0, e-mail SurvivorAdvocate@unt.edu or telephone the Dean of Students' office at 940-565-2648. You are not alone. We are here to help.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

Academic integrity emanates from a culture that embraces the core values of trust and honesty necessary for full learning to occur. As a student-centered public research university, UNT promotes the integrity of the learning process by establishing and enforcing academic standards. Academic dishonesty breaches the mutual trust necessary in an academic environment and undermines all scholarship. Academic dishonesty includes cheating, plagiarism, forging the signature of the instructor or of another student, fabrication, and/or facilitating or sabotaging the academic dishonesty of other students.

Any suspected occurrence of academic dishonesty will be investigated and handled in accordance with UNT policy and procedures. The following academic penalties may be assessed at the instructor's discretion upon determination that academic dishonesty has occurred. Admonitions and educational assignments are not appealable.

1. Admonition. The student may be issued a verbal or written warning.
2. Assignment of Educational Coursework. The student may be required to perform additional coursework not required of other students in the specific course.
3. Partial or no credit for an assignment or assessment. The instructor may award partial or no credit for the assignment or assessment on which the student engaged in academic dishonesty, to be calculated into the final course grade.
4. Course Failure. The instructor may assign a failing grade for the course.

Should the procedure for appeal of a case of academic dishonesty extend beyond the date when the instructor submits course grades for the semester, the student will be assigned a grade that reflects the penalty, which shall be adjusted, as appropriate, at the conclusion of any appeal process.

Specific details and description of UNT's Policy on Student Standards of Academic Integrity (18.1.16) and students' right to appeal are available at <https://policy.unt.edu/policydesc/student-standards-academic-integrity-18-1-16>.

DISABILITY ACCOMMODATION

In accordance with university policies and state and federal regulations, UNT is committed to full academic access for all qualified students, including those with disabilities. To this end, all academic units are willing to make reasonable and appropriate adjustments to the classroom environment and the teaching, testing, or learning methodologies in order to facilitate equality of educational access for persons with disabilities. Students seeking accommodation must first register with the Office of Disability Accommodation (ODA) to verify their eligibility. If a disability is verified, the ODA will provide the student with an accommodation letter to be hand delivered to the instructor to begin a private discussion regarding the student's specific needs in the course.

Students may request accommodations at any time; however, ODA notices of accommodation should be provided as early as possible in the semester to avoid any delay in implementation. Every semester, students must obtain a new letter of accommodation, and they must meet with each faculty member prior to implementation in each class.

Students are strongly encouraged to deliver letters of accommodation during faculty office hours or by appointment. Faculty members have the authority to request that students discuss such letters during their designated office hours in order to protect the privacy of the student.

For additional information, visit the Office of Disability Accommodation (ODA) in Sage Hall, suite 167, or their website at <http://disability.unt.edu>. You may also contact the ODA office by phone at 940.565.4323. Specific information on UNT's policies related to disability accommodations is available at <https://policy.unt.edu/policydesc/disability-accommodation-students-and-academic-units-18-1-14>.

Please note that disability accommodations are not retroactively applied to the start of a course. Accommodations in the course become effective after the student has delivered an official accommodation letter from UNT's ODA.

REQUESTS FOR AN INCOMPLETE

Students may request a grade of incomplete ("I") only if he/she meets all of the following conditions:

- The request occurs on or after November 14, 2016;
- The student is passing the course;
- There is a justifiable and documented reason beyond the control of the student (e.g., serious illness or military service) for not completing the course on schedule; and,
- The student has the approval of the instructor and the department chair.

Students meeting these criteria must arrange with the instructor to finish the course at a later date by completing specific requirements outlined by the instructor. These requirements must be listed on a “Request for Grade of Incomplete” form signed by the instructor, student, and department chair. More information on UNT’s Incomplete Grade policy is available at <http://registrar.unt.edu/grades/incompletes>.

REQUESTS TO DROP THE CLASS

We want you to succeed in this class and at UNT. If you are concerned about your progress in the course, or believe you need to drop for other reasons, it is important that you contact the instructor as soon as possible. We want to make sure that dropping the course is your best or only option.

There are consequences to dropping classes that extend beyond losing your invested time, money, and effort. Dropping one or more classes may make you ineligible for financial aid. There are also limits on the number of courses you can drop. You can learn more about this at <http://registrar.unt.edu/registration/dropping-class>.

If you absolutely have to drop the course, you must file the appropriate form. It does not require the instructor’s signature. Please take careful note of the university dates for dropping a course.

EMERGENCY NOTIFICATIONS & PROCEDURES

UNT uses a system called Eagle Alert to quickly notify you with critical information in the event of an emergency (i.e., severe weather, campus closing, and health and public safety emergencies like chemical spills, fires, or violence). The system sends voice messages (and text messages upon permission) to the phones of all currently enrolled students. Please make certain to update your phone numbers at <https://my.unt.edu/>.

Some helpful emergency preparedness actions include:

- 1) know the evacuation routes and severe weather shelter areas in the buildings where your classes are held,
- 2) determine how you will contact family and friends if phones are temporarily unavailable, and
- 3) identify where you will go if you need to evacuate the Denton area suddenly.

In the event of a university closure, please refer to Blackboard for contingency plans for covering course materials.
