COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Activities and Assessments

- Active Participation (5 oral and written discussions, 20% of total)
- Online Activities (30% of total)
- Exams (5 chapter exams, 40% of total)
- Final Conversation (10% of total)

Grading

A = 90% - 100%

B = 89% - 90%

C = 79% - 70%

D = 69% - 60%

F = 59% - 0%

Active Participation

The participation portion of your grade will be derived from the level and quality of your interaction with other students and your instructor in the course. As active participation you will be required to complete written and oral discussions in Canvas and Zoom on specific topics related to the chapter of study.

After you post each discussion, you will listen to or read the answers of two students and leave each a substantial comment. (Discussion #3 is conducted with the instructor via Zoom; see Discussion #3 for instructions). Full information and grading rubric are provided in the discussion assignments in Canvas.

Using translation programs, generative AI, or outside help for discussions will result in a grade of zero without the opportunity to redo the work. Written discussions and comments must be the student's work and should reflect their writing skills as demonstrated in exams. Video discussion posts must be memorized, and students will receive a grade of zero for reading a script or using notes for video discussions.

2 points extra credit will be added to the discussion score for students who submit their first post by Wednesday, 11:59 pm of the due week. The purpose of this incentive is to motivate early submission and thereby provide a wider variety of posts for reply commenting by classmates.

Online Activities

You will complete activities using an online platform called Connect, which is accessed through Canvas. This portion of the course consists of video tutorials, activities, and projects offering practice for all vocabulary, grammar, and cultural topics introduced. Due dates are listed by week in Connect with weekly assignments due each Friday by 11:59 pm. No makeup work will be accepted for online activities except in the case of excused absence. In case of technical difficulties, students should contact McGraw Hill Technical Support.

Exams

At the end of each chapter, you will complete an exam to demonstrate your mastery of the material covered for that chapter. The final exam covers the last chapter exam of the semester (chapter 10).

Final Conversation

At the end of the course, you will have a conversation in Spanish with a classmate via Zoom. The conversation will cover the communicative functions practiced in the course and will be based on one of 4 topics related to the themes of the first four chapters covered during the course. The topic is chosen randomly, and the conversation will last 3-4 minutes. This assignment will be graded individually on content and detail provided, incorporation of grammatical structures, vocabulary studied throughout the course, and preparation and use of communication strategies. Students will sign up in advance in the Canvas Calendar on the day and time from those offered that best fit their schedule. It is the student's responsibility to make the necessary arrangements to have the conversation according to the schedule. If there is a conflict with the time slots available, contact your instructor immediately to reschedule. Grading rubric, topics to study, and guidelines for this assignment are available in the module labeled "Final Conversation" on Canvas.

COURSE POLICIES

ADA Policy

UNT makes reasonable academic accommodation for students with disabilities. Students seeking accommodation must first register with the Office of Disability Accommodation (ODA) to verify their eligibility. If a disability is verified, the ODA will provide a student with an accommodation letter to be delivered to faculty to begin a private discussion regarding one's specific course needs. Students may request accommodations at any time, however, ODA notices of accommodation should be provided as early as possible in the semester to avoid any delay in implementation. Note that students must obtain a new letter of accommodation for every semester and must meet with each faculty member prior to implementation in each class. For additional information see the ODA website \(https://disability.unt.edu/\).

Attendance Policy:

Research has shown that students who attend class are more likely to be successful. You should attend every class unless you have a university excused absence such as active military service, a religious holy day, or an official university function as stated in the Student Attendance and Authorized Absences Policy \(PDF\) \(https://policy.unt.edu/policy/06-039\). If you cannot attend a class due to an emergency, please let the instructor know.

Late Work

No late or makeup work is allowed except in the case of excused absence.

Acceptable Student Behavior

Student behavior that interferes with an instructor's ability to conduct a class or other students' opportunity to learn is unacceptable and disruptive and will not be tolerated in any instructional forum at UNT. Students engaging in unacceptable behavior will be directed to leave the classroom and the instructor may refer the student to the Dean of Students to consider whether the student's conduct violated the Code of Student Conduct. The University's expectations for student conduct apply to all instructional forums, including University and electronic classroom, labs, discussion groups, field trips, etc. Visit UNT's Code of Student Conduct (<https://deanofstudents.unt.edu/conduct>) to learn more.

Student Academic Integrity:

All work must be the student's work only (unless otherwise indicated by the course instructor) and should reflect the student's level of proficiency. Students are prohibited from asking another person (i.e., a friend, tutor, or relative) to help them develop or compose a response in preparation for, or while completing, an assignment or assessment that will be graded and applied to the student's final grade. Additionally, the use of generative AI or translation apps is strictly prohibited for all assignments and assessments in this course. Information "cut and pasted" or otherwise copied from other sources and used as answers in assignments and assessments will be considered plagiarism. If a student has any doubts as to what constitutes any form of scholastic dishonesty, they should consult with the course instructor before submitting their work. Cheating, plagiarism, and other examples of academic misconduct defined by University Policy will result in a zero on the assignment or assessment in question and a warning and may be reported to the Dean of Students.

Students' Concerns and Complaints

Open communication is key to resolving concerns. Most issues or misunderstandings can be addressed effectively when those directly involved engage in honest discussion.

If you have a concern related to your course, whether about materials, instruction, assessments, or the classroom environment, please begin by speaking with your instructor. If the matter remains unresolved, or if you are uncomfortable approaching your instructor, you may contact the WLLC department.

To learn more about the complaint procedure or to file a formal complaint, you can access the document WLLC COURSE COMPLAINT PROCEDURE FOR STUDENTS on the departmental website: <https://class.unt.edu/world-languages-literatures-cultures/resources/studentcomplaint.pdf>

When emailing the department, be sure to include:

- Your first and last name
- Your instructor's name
- Your course title and section number

Thank you for helping us to maintain a supportive learning environment.

Guidelines on Grade Appeals in the WLLC Department

Students should attempt to resolve the grade dispute with their instructor first. If there is no satisfactory resolution, the student can initiate a grade appeal with the instructor based on the following criteria:

1. The grade is based on unfair treatment during the regularly scheduled class period.
2. The instructor deviated from the guidelines outlined in the course syllabus without providing a valid academic reason, or
3. An error occurred in calculating the grade, including the failure to factor in an assignment, project, quiz, or examination.

Important Notice for F-1 Students taking Distance Education Courses

Federal Regulation

To read detailed Immigration and Customs Enforcement regulations for F-1 students taking online courses, please go to the Electronic Code of Federal Regulations website (<http://www.ecfr.gov/>). The specific portion concerning distance education courses is located at Title 8 CFR 214.2 Paragraph (f)(6)(i)(G).

The paragraph reads:

(G) For F-1 students enrolled in classes for credit or classroom hours, no more than the equivalent of one class or three credits per session, term, semester, trimester, or quarter may be counted toward the full course of study requirement if the class is taken on-line or through distance education and does not require the student's physical attendance for classes, examination or other purposes integral to completion of the class. An on-line or distance education course is a course that is offered principally through the use of television, audio, or computer transmission including open broadcast, closed circuit, cable, microwave, or satellite, audio conferencing, or computer conferencing. If the F-1 student's course of study is in a language study program, no on-line or distance education classes may be considered to count toward a student's full course of study requirement.

University of North Texas Compliance

To comply with immigration regulations, an F-1 visa holder within the United States may need to engage in an on-campus experiential component for this course. This component (which must be approved in advance by the instructor) can include activities such as taking an on-campus exam, participating in an on-campus lecture or lab activity, or other on-campus experience integral to the completion of this course.

If such an on-campus activity is required, it is the student's responsibility to do the following:

- (1) Submit a written request to the instructor for an on-campus experiential component within one week of the start of the course.
- (2) Ensure that the activity on campus takes place and the instructor documents it in writing with a notice sent to the International Student and Scholar Services Office. ISSS has a form available that you may use for this purpose.

Campus Closures Policy

The calendar is subject to change in agreement with the Campus Closures Policy (<https://policy.unt.edu/policy/15-006>) and students will be notified by Eagle Alert if there is a campus closing that will impact a class.
