COURSE ANNOUNCEMENTS

Students must turn on notifications for course announcements in Canvas to receive important information during the semester.

COURSE DESCRIPTIONS

Introduction to painting practices and issues, including the study of methods and materials (oil, acrylic, tools, building of supports and surfaces), composition, value, color, and pictorial space centered on observation. Focuses on the capacities of painting and introduces students to technical and historical issues central to painting.

COURSE CONTENT STATEMENT

"Content in the arts can sometimes include works, situations, actions, and language that can be personally challenging or offensive to some students because of sexual explicitness, violence, or blasphemy. As the College of Visual Arts and Design is devoted to the principle of freedom of expression, artistic and otherwise, it is not the college's practice to censor these works or ideas on any of these grounds. Students who might feel unduly distressed or uncomfortable by such expressions should withdraw and seek another course at the start of the term."

COURSE OBJECTIVES & OUTCOMES

- Students will explore color painting techniques, developing skills and problem-solving strategies, from perception to paint handling in creative image making.
 - Students will develop and strengthen visual perception and verbal analysis through class critiques and evaluations of painting projects.
 - Students will explore art as a visual language—its ability to communicate independently of the descriptive elements, literal or symbolic—and build sensitivity to the Elements and Principles of Design in image making.
 - Students will develop a broader understanding of painting in both historical and contemporary contexts.

COMMUNICATION

If you have a private question, please get in touch with me via email, and I will do my best to respond within 24 hours, Monday through Friday. Please do not expect a response over the weekend. You may also want to find someone with whom you can regularly communicate within the course.

COURSE STRUCTURE & SUCCESS

- Online: Course information, including the announcements, discussions, syllabus, instructions, and handouts, are available on Canvas. After each in-person critique, images of samples, sketches, and projects will also be uploaded to Canvas.

- Lab: This class requires a 2-hour 50-minute lab meeting twice a week. You will practice and analyze the information in the lab through sketches, samples, and projects. The samples will allow students to learn and practice technical skills. The projects will require preparatory work, including sketching and research, and in some cases, more samples.
- Digital: This class requires you to upload digital images for each assignment on Canvas. Therefore, you must document your research, sketches, samples, and projects; this will require you to take professional images of your sketchbook, samples, and projects.
- Outside work: Although time will be given to work on projects in class, students should expect to work on physical projects, documentation, and written responses and readings outside of class.
- Time management: Students can expect to spend an average of 10-12 hours a week working inside and outside of class, completing research, sketches, samples, and projects successfully.

To be successful in this course, you will need to:

- Commit to spending a minimum of 5 hours a week working on assignments.
- Cite sources, giving credit to where you obtain information.
- Network with others and utilize tact when offered differing perspectives.
- Actively participate in group discussions and critiques.

ASSESSMENTS

You are not expected to be an expert in this class, but you are expected to grow your technical and conceptual abilities throughout the semester. For each assignment, a portion of your grade will depend on your choice of appropriately challenging subject matter. The remainder of your grade will depend on how well you meet the technical and conceptual challenges you have set out for yourself. Before each critique, you will be given a rubric detailing how your instructor will grade the project.

The following shows how your final grade will be weighted:

- Surface Speed Project & Critique = 100 Points
- Studio Assignment 1 = 200 Points
- Studio Assignment 2 = 200 Points
- Studio Assignment 3 = 200 Points
- Critique 1 = 100 Points
- Critique 2 = 100 Points
- Critique 3 = 100 Points
- Check-ins = 200 Points (25 Points per assignment; 8 per semester)
- Citizenship and Studio Clean Up = 100 Points
- Stretched Canvas Building = 100 Points
- Wooden Panel Building = 100 Points
- Required On-Campus Studio Hours (14 Hours) = 140 Points

Total: 1650 Points

Main Assignments (600 Points Each):

1. Gesture as Ritual or Pattern
2. Diptych - Two Views of the Same Scene
3. Painting as Small Scale Installation

Good Citizenship and Studio Clean-Up (100 Points):

Students must participate in studio clean-up at the end of each working studio day and one at the end of the semester. Failure to participate in the final clean-up will result in deductions of points. You are responsible for cleaning your work area, storage area, check-out palette, and hazardous materials area (inside the chemical cabinet). You are to remove all stored work and materials from your storage cubby and your rented locker on this day. Gamsol Silcoils will be recycled on this day if you do not take yours home.

The final day to remove work is Friday, December 13th, at 12 pm. Any artwork or materials left after this day will not be stored for you and will be disposed of. There are no exceptions to this deadline.

Check-ins (200 Points):

Short meetings with the instructor to discuss works currently in progress and to help meet student's personal goals while in this course.

Critiques (300 Points):

Critiques are an essential component of this studio course. We will overview critique procedures in class and collaboratively develop guidelines for expectations and goals. Parties may be asked to leave a critique if their participation does not meet the expectations or standards of decorum. Art is personal, and the need to discuss individual themes may arise, so as fellow artists, we must be considerate and conscientious during critiques (also see note on Course Content). In addition, the artist receiving the critique will be expected to use the advice and criticism. It is most encouraged to keep a sketchbook/notebook during critique to write notes for future reference.

ATTENDANCE POLICY

- Regular and punctual attendance during your scheduled lab time is mandatory.
- Three absences (excused or unexcused) will be accepted.
 - After three absences, you will receive an Early Alert.
 - An excused absence will require a note from the Dean of Students excusing the absence for a reason covered under UNT Policy 06.039 Student Attendance and Authorized Absences.
 - More than three absences (excused or unexcused) will lower your final grade by 0.5 of letter grade (5%) per additional absence (4 or more).
- Most critiques, lectures, demonstrations, and assignments will occur at the beginning of the lab and will not be repeated for those who arrive late or miss class.
- If you are late to class, you will need to notify your instructor to replace an absence with a tardy at the end of the class period. Failure to do this could result in an absence; this will not be debated at the end of the semester or any other time.
- Three tardies equal one absence.
- A tardy is arriving after the class begins or leaving class early. Do not ask your instructor if you can leave to move your vehicle, get a cup of coffee, or for any other reason. If you leave class, you will receive a tardy.
- Examinations, quizzes, and in-class assignments missed may only be made up with a note from the Dean of Students excusing the absence for a reason covered under UNT Policy 06.039 Student Attendance and Authorized Absences.
- Critiques missed may not be made up. Grades will reflect the student's failure to participate in the critique.

CLASS PARTICIPATION

- Attend class and participate in the online course requirements.
- Complete all the required assignments.
- Participate in online and in-class discussions.
- Maintain a classroom and online environment that is conducive to learning.
- To ensure that everyone has an opportunity to gain from time spent in class unless otherwise approved by the instructor, you are prohibited from:

- o Using cellular phones, checking email, surfing the internet, and updating your social networking sites.
 - o Using a computer, tablet, phone, etc., for non-class purposes.

RULES OF ENGAGEMENT

Online Communication Tips

Effective online communication is crucial for student success in online education and increasingly for all classes as online communication becomes more commonplace, regardless of course modality.

General Guidelines

- Remember that college communication is still professional communication. Use correct spelling and grammar, and always double-check your response before hitting send or reply. Do not use slang and limit the use of emoticons.
- Use standard, readable font sizes and colors, and avoid writing in all caps.
- Use your instructor's title of "Dr." or "Professor," or if you don't know, use "Mr." or "Ms." Do not use "Mrs." to address female instructors unless told otherwise by said instructor.
- Be mindful of tone in online communication as it lacks the nonverbal cues of face-to-face communication that provide clarity and context to conversations.
- Respect the personal identities of others based on gender, sexuality, race, ethnicity, class, and/or culture.
- Respect the privacy of yourself, your instructor, and your peers. Keep in mind what you reveal, particularly if this information involves personal health or classroom performance, such as grades.
- Give people the benefit of the doubt. Though there may be a computer between you, there are people on the other side of the screen.

- Do not make assumptions about others' technological skills. Technological skills vary across various factors, including experience, age, culture, etc.

Communicating via Email

- Check the syllabus before asking a question about the course, and let the instructor know you checked the syllabus before asking. Instructors put a lot of time into making students' syllabi as comprehensive as possible.
- Use a descriptive subject line to get the instructor's attention. Instructors receive a lot of emails, and a descriptive subject line helps them identify student inquiries more efficiently.
- Be concise and to the point.

GRADING

A (90% - 100%)	Excellent	Exceeds the assignment goals and objectives
B (80% - 89%)	Above Average	Meets all assignment goals and objectives
C (70% - 79%)	Average	Mixed strengths and weaknesses to assignment goals and objectives.
D 60% - 69%)	Below Average	Lacks the initiative to explore assignment goals and objectives. The highest grade possible for unfinished work. A grade of "D" is considered passing by the university but does not satisfy CVAD degree requirements.
F (0% - 59%)	Failure	Does not follow directions and/or does not indicate an understanding of materials or techniques. Work lacks initiative or creativity. Handing in a project or design from another class for credit will automatically receive an F.

Final grades will consider perseverance, improvement, attitude, attendance, and participation in class discussions and critiques.

LATE WORK

Online late assignment is accepted; however 5% of the total project's grade may be deducted for each day the project is late. Students have to be on time and present for critiques and presentations to receive points for those assignments.

Late assignments without deductions will be accepted if a student experiences extenuating circumstances covered under UNT Policy 06.039 Student Attendance and Authorized Absences and contacts the Dean of Students to advocate on their behalf.

INCOMPLETE GRADES

An Incomplete Grade ("I") is a non-punitive grade given only during the last one-fourth of a term/semester and only if a student (1) is passing the course and (2) has a justifiable and documented reason, beyond the control of the student (such as serious illness or military service), for not completing the work on schedule. In consultation with the instructor, complete a request for an Incomplete Grade. This form can be found on the department website and must be turned into the department chair prior to the last day of classes (not the exam date).

Note: A grade of Incomplete is not automatically assigned to students

EXTRA CREDIT

This course will have extra credit opportunities, including completing the SPOT evaluations.

FINAL EXAMS

According to the published schedule, final exams must be administered at the designated times. Suppose a student has three final exams scheduled on one day. In that case, they may appeal to their respective faculty members to reschedule one of those examinations for another day during the final examination period. Should none of the faculty members agree to reschedule an examination, the student may appeal to the Dean of their respective major. The decision of the Dean is final. Please consult UNT Policy 06.031 for information on the procedures for requesting rescheduling final examinations.

STUDENT PERCEPTIONS OF TEACHING (SPOT)

Student Perceptions of Teaching (SPOT) is the student evaluation system for UNT. It allows students to confidently provide constructive feedback to their instructor and department to improve the quality of student experiences in the course and is a requirement for all organized classes at UNT. The survey will be made available during weeks 13 and 14 of the long semesters to provide students with an opportunity to evaluate how this course is taught. Students will receive an email from "UNT SPOT Course Evaluations via IASystem Notification" (no-reply@iasystem.org) with the survey link. Students should look for the email in their UNT email inbox. Click on the link and complete the survey. Once students complete the survey, they will receive a confirmation email that the survey has been submitted. For additional information, please visit the spot website at www.spot.unt.edu or email spot@unt.edu.

HEALTH & SAFETY AREA SPECIFIC INFORMATION: PAINTING

1. Hazards of Media (inherent)

Educate yourself about the painting materials you are using by visiting the links below.

The hazards of traditional painting materials arise from exposure to pigments, solvents, and additives, and are dependent on the toxicity of those elements. Exposure can cause a variety of health issues (for both you and those around you) ranging from minor skin irritation to death. The primary forms of exposure to these toxic materials are inhalation, contact, and accidental ingestion. See the "Best Practices" section for way to avoid/lessen exposure.

- a. Acrylics: May contain ammonia and formaldehyde, causing eye/nose/throat irritation.
- b. Oils: Oil mixed with pigment. Avoid skin contact and ingestion.
- c. Alkyd: Used to make oils dry quicker. Avoid solvent inhalation and skin contact with pigments.
- d. Tempera: Avoid inhalation of powdered pigments.
- e. Latex: May contain glycols and mercury.
- f. Watercolor/Gouache Gum Arabic: Can cause skin allergies and asthma. May contain formaldehyde.
- g. Solvents (e.g. Turpentine, Mineral Spirits, Odorless Mineral Spirits, Gamsol, Turpenoid): Solvents range from moderately to severely toxic. The primary forms of exposure are inhalation, absorption through the skin, and accidental ingestion. The use of solvents () poses a serious hazard. All solvents may cause skin allergies, narcosis (dizziness, nausea, fatigue, loss of coordination, coma), respiratory irritation, kidney damage, respiratory allergies, and brain damage. Ingestion can be fatal. Gamsol or turpenoid, which have had the aromatic hydrocarbons removed, are less hazardous.

Solvents are also highly flammable. Even without a spark or fire, solvent/oil-soaked rags can spontaneously combust. Follow the CVAD Waste Management Chart when disposing of these materials.

- h. Pigments: Many pigments are toxic and are known carcinogens, including those based on lead, cadmium, mercury, chromates, manganese, and cobalt. The main risk is from accidental ingestion of the pigments due to eating while working, nail-biting, pointing your brush with your lips, and similar means of hand-to-mouth contact. Working with dry pigments or sanding dry paint layers can allow the pigments to be inhaled.

2. Best Practices

- a. Wear gloves, wash hands regularly, and avoid any skin exposure to materials.
- b. Try to brush items rather than spraying if possible.
- c. Never use aerosol media in the classroom. Use the spray booths provided.
- d. Avoid inhaling pigment powder.
- e. Turpentine and mineral spirits are prohibited in the studio. Gamsol is the only approved solvent.
- f. Keep your solvent container covered while painting (a lid or tinfoil will work).
- g. Solvent washes are strongly discouraged.
- h. Reuse Gamsol by allowing sediment to settle in jar.
- i. Brush washing primarily takes place at your station with a jar, brush caddy, Gamsol, and paper towel. This assures as little paint as possible will go down the sink.
- j. Store all flammables in the flammable cabinet. Keep flammable cabinet always closed.

4. Area Rules

- a. All users of the studio classrooms are expected to follow studio area rules at all times. If you have any questions, ask your instructor.
- b. In case of emergency, call campus police at (940) 565-3000 or call 911
- c. File an incident report (forms may be found in the CVAD H&S Handbook and in the main office) within 48 hours of the event.
- d. Follow all CVAD Health and Safety handbook guidelines. Again the handbook can be found here: <https://art.unt.edu/healthandsafety>
- e. Follow the CVAD Waste Management Chart in the classroom and other health & safety guidelines posted.
- f. Respect the workspace and your fellow classmates.
- g. Leave the space cleaner than you found it.
- h. Clean up and organize your surroundings.
- i. Throw away any trash (whether it's yours or not).
- j. Wipe down your easel, tabouret, and floor.
- k. Wipe down sinks at the end of class.
- l. Respect other's work. Do not use or move other students' work/materials.
- m. No food, drink, or alcohol allowed in the studio
- n. Practice best practices for material handling. If you have questions about a material, ask your instructor for guidance.
- o. Do not spray any aerosols in any CVAD classroom/studio/doorway or exterior wall/floor. Use the spray booths provided.
- p. Familiarize yourself with the eyewash station
- q. Razor blades, X-Acto blades and any other small sharp refuse goes in the sharps container at SAA station.
- r. Do not remove/borrow furniture from rooms without permission from faculty or D&P coordinator.
- s. Do not prop classroom doors. Doors must remain closed for the building hvac and ventilation work properly.
- t. Do not create "daisy chains" with multiple electric cords.
- u. Absolutely no paint, solvents, or hazardous materials down sinks.
- v. Store all flammables in the flammable cabinet. Keep flammable cabinet closed at all times.
- w. First aid kits are found in each studio. Notify your instructor or area technician if supplies are low.
- x. Report any safety issues immediately to your instructor or area technician.
- y. All courses must engage in an end of the semester clean up.
- z. Theft will not be tolerated.

5. CVAD Container Policy - There are 3 types of labels used in CVAD. All containers must have a label identifying the contents at all times.

a. Universal Labels (while chemical is in use)

All secondary/satellite containers for hazardous materials (or what might be perceived as hazardous -i.e. watered-down gesso, graphite solutions, satellite containers of solvents, powders, spray paints, fixatives, oils, solvents) must be marked with content, your name and the date opened. All unmarked containers will be disposed of with no notice. Labels can be found in the studios. All containers must be marked with your name, contents and date opened.

b. Universal Waste Labels (when material is designated as waste)

All containers solely containing a universal waste must have a universal waste label identifying the contents as "Universal Waste - (type of universal waste)" that are designated as waste for proper disposal. The label must also include the date the first item of universal waste entered the container.

c. Hazardous Waste Labels (All hazardous waste containers must have a label identifying the contents as hazardous)

Labels should include all constituents in the waste mixture as well as an approximate percentage of the total for that item. All constituents should equal 100%.

CVAD HEALTH AND SAFETY

CVAD Health and Safety Program Mission

- The CVAD Health and Safety Program aims to protect the health and welfare of all students, faculty, staff, and visitors and to cooperate with the University of North Texas office of Risk Management.

CVAD Health & Safety Guidelines

- The Health & Safety Handbook requires all CVAD classroom and facilities users to follow the health and safety guidelines and immediately report any safety issues to instructors, area technicians, departmental offices, or the Dean's office. Each student and instructor must be familiar with and follow all health & safety procedures when they are in CVAD buildings. Each member of CVAD must follow health & safety practices to keep the working and teaching environment safe for everyone; this includes cleaning the classroom before leaving.

Best Practices for Health & Safety *

- Wash hands regularly and avoid any skin exposure to materials.
- Try to brush items rather than spraying if possible.
- Never use aerosol media in the classroom.
- Use the spray booths provided.
- Avoid inhaling pigment powder.
- Brush washing primarily occurs at your station with a jar, brush caddy, and paper towel; this assures as little paint as possible will go down the sink.
- Store all flammables in the flammable cabinet. Keep flammable cabinet closed at all times.

Area Health & Safety Studio Rules

- All studio classroom users must follow studio area rules at all times. If you have any questions, ask your instructor.
- In case of emergency, call campus police at (940) 565-3000 or call 911
- File an Incident Report within 48 hours of the emergency event. Forms are located in the CVAD
- Health & Safety Handbook at https://riskmanagement.unt.edu/sites/default/files/incident_report_form.pdf or in the main office).

- Follow the CVAD Waste Management Chart and other health & safety guidelines posted in the classroom.
- Respect the workspace and your classmates.
- Leave the space cleaner than you found it.
- Clean up and organize your surroundings.
- Throw away any trash (whether it's yours or not).
- Wipe down the table, sewing machine, and floor at the end of class.
- Wipe down sinks at the end of class.
- Respect others' work. Do not use or move other students' work/materials.
- No food or alcohol is allowed in the studio
- Practice best practices for material handling. If you have questions, ask your instructor for guidance.
- Do not spray aerosols in any CVAD classroom/studio/doorway or exterior wall/floor. Use the spray booths provided.
- Familiarize yourself with the eyewash station
- Razor blades, X-Acto blades, and any other small sharp refuse go in the sharps container at the SAA station. Do not remove/borrow furniture from rooms without faculty or D&P coordinator permission.
- Do not prop classroom doors. Doors must remain closed for the building's HVAC and ventilation to work correctly.
- Do not create "daisy chains" with multiple electric cords.
- No paint, solvents, or hazardous materials down sinks.
- Store all flammables in the flammable cabinet. Keep flammable cabinets closed at all times.
- First aid kits are located in each studio. Notify your instructor or area technician if supplies are low.
- Report any safety issues immediately to your instructor or area technician.
- All courses must engage at the end of the semester clean-up.
- Theft will not be tolerated.
- Follow the CVAD CONTAINER POLICY (see below). There are three types of labels used in CVAD. All containers must have a tag that identifies the contents at all times.
- UNIVERSAL LABELS (while the chemical is in use): Mark all secondary/satellite containers for hazardous materials (or what might be perceived as hazardous -i.e., watered-down gesso, graphite solutions, satellite containers of solvents, powders, spray paints, fixatives, oils, solvents) with content, your name, and the date opened. All unmarked containers will be disposed of with no notice. Find the labels in the studio before mixing any chemicals. All containers must be marked with your name, contents, and date.

- UNIVERSAL WASTE LABELS (designates the material as waste): All containers solely containing a universal waste must have a universal waste label identifying the contents as "Universal Waste - (a type of universal waste)" that are designated as waste for proper disposal. The label must also include the date the first item of universal waste entered the container.
- HAZARDOUS WASTE LABELS All hazardous waste containers must identify the contents as hazardous. Labels should include all constituents in the waste mixture and the approximate percentage of the total for that item. All components should equal 100%.

Emergency Notification & Procedures *

- UNT Emergency Guide: <https://emergency.unt.edu/about-us>
- "UNT uses a system called Eagle Alert to quickly notify students with critical information in the event of an emergency (i.e., severe weather, campus closing, and health and public safety emergencies like chemical spills, fires, or violence). In the event of a university closure, please refer to the course management system for contingency plans for covering course materials."

UNT POLICIES

Student Evaluation Administration Dates

Student feedback is an essential part of participation in this course. The student evaluation of instruction is required for all organized classes at UNT. The survey will be made available during weeks 13, 14, and 15 of the long semesters to provide students with an opportunity to evaluate how this course is taught. Students will receive an email from "UNT SPOT Course Evaluations via IASystem Notification"

(no-reply@iasystem.org) with the survey link. Students should look for the email in their UNT email inbox. Click on the link and complete the survey. Once students complete the survey, they will receive a confirmation email that it has been submitted. For additional information, email spot@unt.edu.

Academic Integrity *

The University of North Texas promotes learning integrity and embraces the core values of trust and honesty. Academic integrity is based on educational principles and procedures that protect the rights of all participants in the educational process and validate the legitimacy of degrees awarded by the University. In investigating and resolving allegations of student academic dishonesty, the University's actions are intended to be corrective, educationally sound, fundamentally fair, and based on reliable evidence, UNT Policy 06.003.

Acceptable Student Behavior

"Student behavior that interferes with an instructor's ability to conduct a class or other students' opportunity to learn is unacceptable and disruptive and will not be tolerated in any instructional forum at UNT. Students engaging in unacceptable behavior will be directed to leave the classroom, and the instructor may refer the student to the Dean of Students to consider whether the student's conduct violated the Code of Student Conduct. The university's expectations for student conduct apply to all instructional forums, including university and electronic classrooms, labs, discussion groups, field trips, etc.

The Dean of Students Office enforces the Code of Student Conduct. The Code explains what conduct is prohibited, the process the DOS uses to review reports of alleged misconduct by students, and the sanctions that can be assigned. When students may have violated the Code, they meet with a representative from the Dean of Students Office to discuss the alleged misconduct in an educational process."

Code of Student Conduct

The University of North Texas is deeply committed to advancing educational excellence and preparing students to become thoughtful, engaged citizens of a diverse, global community. The University has established the Code of Student Conduct to promote the well-being, honor, and dignity of all who live, learn and work in our educational community. The Code of Student Conduct is intended to foster a safe environment conducive to learning and development and hold students accountable through an educational process that balances the interests of individual students with the interests of the University. Students and student groups are expected to conduct themselves in a manner that demonstrates respect for the rights and property of others and upholds the integrity and values of the University community.

UNT Policy 07.012

Office of Disability Access (ODA) *

The University of North Texas makes reasonable academic accommodations for students with disabilities. Students seeking reasonable accommodation must first register with the Office of Disability Access (ODA) to verify their eligibility. If a disability is confirmed, the ODA will provide you with a reasonable accommodation letter to be delivered to the faculty to begin a private discussion regarding your specific needs in a course. You may request reasonable accommodations at any time; however, ODA notices of reasonable accommodation should be provided as early as possible in the semester to avoid any delay in implementation. Students must obtain a new letter of reasonable accommodation for every semester and meet with each faculty member before implementation in each class.

Students are strongly encouraged to deliver letters of reasonable accommodation during faculty office hours or by appointment. Faculty members have the authority to ask students to discuss such letters during their designated office hours to protect the privacy of the student. For additional information, refer to the Office of Disability Access website at <https://studentaffairs.unt.edu/office-disability-access>. You may also contact ODA by phone at (940) 565-4323.

CARE Assessment Team and Involuntary Student Medical Withdrawal

The University of North Texas is committed to providing a learning environment conducive to students developing to their fullest potential. On rare occasions, the University may be required to activate a systematic response to students who may be in crisis or whose mental, emotional, or psychological health conditions may directly threaten the safety of the learning environment. By creating a collaborative interdisciplinary team, the University will provide a caring, confidential program of identification, intervention, and response to provide students with the greatest chance for success and the University community with the greatest level of protection.

Face Coverings

UNT encourages everyone to wear a face-covering when indoors, regardless of vaccination status, to protect themselves and others from COVID infection, as recommended by current CDC guidelines. Face covering guidelines could change based on community health conditions.

Prohibition of Discrimination, Harassment, and Retaliation

The University of North Texas (UNT) prohibits discrimination and harassment because of race, color, national origin, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, age, disability, genetic information, veteran status, or any other characteristic protected under applicable federal or state law in

If you (or someone you know) have experienced any of these acts of aggression, please know that you are not alone. The federal Title IX law makes it clear that violence and harassment based on sex and gender are Civil Rights offenses. UNT has staff members trained to support you in navigating campus life, accessing health and counseling services, providing academic and housing accommodations, helping with legal protective orders, and more.

UNT's Dean of Students website offers a range of on-campus and off-campus resources to help support survivors, depending on their unique needs: http://deanofstudents.unt.edu/resources_0. UNT's Student Advocate can be reached through email at SurvivorAdvocate@unt.edu or by calling the Dean of Students' office at 940-565-2648.

Survivor Advocacy

UNT is committed to providing a safe learning environment free of all forms of sexual misconduct, including sexual harassment, sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking. Federal laws (Title IX and the Violence Against Women Act) and UNT policies prohibit discrimination based on sex and therefore prohibit sexual misconduct. If you or someone you know is experiencing sexual harassment, relationship violence, stalking, and/or sexual assault, campus resources are available to provide support and assistance. UNT's Survivor Advocates can assist a student who has been impacted by violence by filing protective orders, completing crime victim's compensation applications, contacting professors for absences related to an assault, working with housing to facilitate a room change where appropriate, and connecting students to other resources available both on and off-campus. The Survivor Advocates can be reached at SurvivorAdvocate@unt.edu or by calling the Dean of Students Office at 940-565-2648. Additionally, alleged sexual misconduct can be non-confidentially reported to the Title IX Coordinator at oeo@unt.edu or at (940) 565 2759.
