This course will survey the history of Western music from approximately 1750 to the present. During this period, many of our most cherished musical ideas and institutions acquired a more familiar form: from ensembles like orchestras, to organizing principles like sonata form, to ideas like art for art's sake. In this sense, we will be tracing the history of the present, of our contemporary musical culture. Yet we will also be examining the ways in which eighteenth, nineteenth, and twentieth century Western musical cultures differed from our own.

This course is organized around three broad goals: 1) familiarizing you with prominent periods, styles, composers and pieces, 2) explaining the development of this repertory by contextualizing it historically, and 3) fostering an ability to think critically about the importance and limits of history.

Text, Scores, and Recordings

Required:

- Norton Anthology of Western Music, 8th Edition, Volume 2 (Classic to Romantic) and Volume 3 (The Twentieth Century and After)

Recommended:

- J. Peter Burkholder, Donald Jay Grout, and Claude V. Palisca, A History of Western Music, 10th Edition (New York: Norton, 2019)

The anthologies and textbook are available in our bookstore, as well as from numerous online retailers. Primary source readings will be available on Canvas as PDFs.

Modules and Multiple-Choice Quizzes

Before each class meeting, you will need to complete 2-4 modules on Canvas. These modules (designed to take about 20 minutes each) will provide the factual background needed for our discussions. Each module will be followed by a five-question multiple choice quiz. You will need to score a 4/5 or better to unlock the next module. The quizzes are not timed, and can be taken as many times as needed. Failure to stay up-to-date on modules and quizzes will result in a lowered quiz score at the end of the semester.

Class Meetings and Attendance

In our class meetings, we will read and discuss primary sources, and consider together some of the main themes of the course. To facilitate discussion, the class will be split into three groups (alphabetically by last name; if you need to swap with someone, please let us know):

Group 1	Group 2	Group 3
M, 9-9:50	W, 9-9:50	F, 9-9:50

Attendance is required. You are allowed two absences, after which we will deduct 10% from your class attendance grade for each additional absence.

Face Coverings:

UNT encourages everyone to wear a face covering when indoors, regardless of vaccination status, to protect yourself and others from COVID infection, as recommended by current CDC guidelines. Face covering guideline could change based on community health conditions.

University Attendance Statement:

Students are expected to attend class meetings regularly and to abide by the attendance policy established for the course. It is important that you communicate with the professor and the instructional team prior to being absent, so you, the professor, and the instructional team can discuss and mitigate the impact of the absence on your attainment of the course learning goals. Please inform the professor and instructional team if you are unable to attend class meetings because you are ill, in mindfulness of the health and safety of everyone in our community. Contact the UNT COVID Team at COVID@unt.edu for guidance on actions to take due to symptoms, pending or positive test results, or potential exposure.

Labs and Discussion Boards

Labs will provide a forum for further discussion focused primarily on upcoming assignments. There are two lab sections, each of which will meet twice a week. There will also be a weekly discussion board. Attendance and participation are required.

Section 301 – Chandler Hall F 1-1:50, Room 321	Section 302 – Robbie Segars F 8-8:50, Room 289

Section 303 – Chandler Hall Th 8-8:50, Room 250	Section 304 – Peter Kohanski F 11-11:50, Room 289

Section 305 – Robbie Segars
F 11-11:50, Room 322

Essays

There will be two essay assignments, intended to assess how well you are able to use historical evidence to establish and defend an argument.

Form Assignments

There will be one assignment in which you will examine a piece not found in the anthology. You will apply what you have covered in class to identify important formal patterns.

Sonata Presentations

In labs, you will work with each other to prepare short presentations on sonata movements not discussed in the anthology. These presentations will cover both form and historical context.

Position Paper

There will be one short paper that will examine a contentious issue in modern musical culture critically by placing it in broader context.

Grading

Multiple Choice Quizzes	20%
Short Essays	30%
Form Assignments	10%
Presentations	10%
Position Paper	10%
Class Attendance	10%
Lab Attendance and Participation	10%

Nothing is graded on a curve; you will receive the grade that we feel you deserve. If a particular question or concept appears to have given the class difficulties, it will be graded more leniently.

Academic Integrity

Students caught cheating or plagiarizing will receive a “0” for that particular assignment or exam. Additionally, the incident will be reported to the Dean of Students (Office of Academic Integrity), who may impose further penalty.

According to the UNT catalog, the term “cheating” includes, but is not limited to:

- a) use of any unauthorized assistance in taking quizzes, tests, or examinations;
- b) dependence upon the aid of sources beyond those authorized by the instructor in writing papers, preparing reports, solving problems, or carrying out other assignments;
- c) the acquisition, without permission, of tests or other academic material belonging to a faculty or staff member of the university;
- d) dual submission of a paper or project, or resubmission of a paper or project to a different class without express permission from the instructor(s); or
- e) any other act designed to give a student an unfair advantage.

The term “plagiarism” includes, but is not limited to:

- a) the knowing or negligent use by paraphrase or direct quotation of the published or unpublished work of another person without full and clear acknowledgment; and
- b) the knowing or negligent unacknowledged use of materials prepared by another person or agency engaged in the selling of term papers or other academic materials.

Student Behavior

Student behavior that interferes with an instructor’s ability to conduct a class or other students' opportunity to learn is unacceptable and disruptive and will not be tolerated in any instructional forum at UNT. Students engaging in unacceptable behavior will be directed to leave the classroom and the instructor may refer the student to the Dean of Students to consider whether the student's conduct violated the Code of Student Conduct. The university's expectations for student conduct apply to all instructional forums, including university and electronic classrooms, labs, discussion groups, field trips, etc.

ODA Statement

The University of North Texas makes reasonable academic accommodation for students with disabilities. Students seeking accommodation must first register with the Office of Disability Access (ODA) to verify their eligibility. If a disability is verified, the ODA will provide you with an accommodation letter. You can now request your Letters of Accommodation ONLINE and ODA will mail your Letters of Accommodation to your instructors. You may wish to begin a private discussion with your professors regarding your specific needs in a course. Note that students must obtain a new letter of accommodation for every semester. For additional information see the Office of Disability Access.

UNT Policy Statement on Diversity

UNT values diversity and individuality as part of advancing ideals of human worth, dignity and academic excellence. Diverse viewpoints enrich open discussion, foster the examination of values and exposure of biases, help educate people in rational conflict resolution and responsive leadership, and prepare us for the complexities of a pluralistic society. As such, UNT is committed to maintaining an open, welcoming atmosphere that attracts qualified students, staff, and faculty from all groups to support their success. UNT does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, age, disability, genetic information, or veteran status in its application and admission process, educational programs and activities, employment policies and use of university facilities.

Financial Aid and Satisfactory Academic Progress

A student must maintain Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) to continue to receive financial aid. Students must maintain a minimum 2.0 cumulative GPA in addition to successfully completing a required number of credit hours based on total hours registered. Students cannot exceed attempted credit hours above 150% of their required degree plan. If a student does not maintain the required standards, the student may lose their financial aid eligibility.

Students holding music scholarships must maintain a minimum 2.5 overall cumulative GPA and 3.0 cumulative GPA in music courses. If at any point you consider dropping this or any other course, please be advised that the decision to do so may have the potential to affect your current and future financial aid eligibility. It is recommended that you schedule a meeting with an academic advisor in your college or visit the Student Financial Aid and Scholarships office to discuss dropping a course before doing so.

Retention of Student Records

Student records pertaining to this course are maintained in a secure location by the instructor of record. All records such as exams, answer sheets (with keys), and written papers submitted during the duration of the course are kept for at least one calendar year after course completion. Course work completed via the Canvas online system, including grading information and comments, is also stored in a safe electronic environment for one year. You have a right to view your individual record; however, information about your records will not be divulged to other individuals without the proper written consent. You are encouraged to review the Public Information Policy and the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) laws and the university's policy in accordance with those mandates.
