Prerequisites

GEOG 4560/5560: Introduction to GIS Programming (or consent of department)

Objectives

This course includes lectures, demos, hands-on exercises, homework assignments, and a programming project. It is for those who work with ESRI's ArcGIS on a technical level and have knowledge in programming with Visual C#. Based on the knowledge of Visual C#, students will learn about ArcGIS customization using ArcObjects and add-ins. Methods and examples of accessing maps and layers will be introduced, followed by spatial and attribute queries. It is expected that students will learn how to build and deploy add-ins for ArcGIS Desktop after completion of this course.

Project

Two individual programming projects will be distributed in class, one for undergraduate students, and the other for graduate students.

In-Class Exercises and Homework

In-class exercises should be saved in your folder at R:\class\4590\StudentFolders\. The instructor will check your in-class exercises every Wednesday. If you miss a class, you should contact the instructor and finish the in-class exercises by the following Wednesday. Class attendance and in-class exercises count 10% of the final grade.

Five individual homework assignments (12% each) will be turned in and marked. Late homework will be marked down 10% for every day late. Homework files should be saved in your folder at R:\class\4590\StudentFolders\.

Academic Dishonesty

Students caught cheating or plagiarizing will receive a "0" for that particular assignment or exam. Additionally, the incident will be reported to the Office of Student Rights and Responsibilities for further penalty. According to the UNT catalog, the term "cheating" includes, but is not limited to:

Accommodations

The University of North Texas makes reasonable academic accommodation for students with disabilities. Students seeking accommodation must first register with the Office of Disability Accommodation (ODA) to verify their eligibility. If a disability is verified, the ODA will provide you with an accommodation letter to be delivered to faculty to begin a private discussion regarding your specific needs in a course. You may request accommodations at any time, however, ODA notices of accommodation should be provided as early as possible in the semester to avoid any delay in implementation. Note that students must obtain a new letter of accommodation for every semester and must meet with each faculty member prior to implementation in each class. For additional information see the Office of Disability Accommodation website at <http://www.unt.edu/oda>. You may also contact them by phone at 940.565.4323.

Classroom Courtesy

Please follow these guidelines to avoid disrupting the class:

- (1) Turn off cell phones before arriving.
- (2) Do not arrive late or leave early (except for a bathroom break or emergency).
- (3) Do not sleep or eat during class.
- (4) Do not work on other assignments during class.

Student Evaluation of Teaching Effectiveness (SETE)

The Student Evaluation of Teaching Effectiveness (SETE) is a requirement for all organized classes at UNT. This short survey will be made available to you at the end of the semester, providing you a chance to comment on how this class is taught. I am very interested in the feedback I get from students, as I work to continually improve my teaching. I consider the SETE to be an important part of your participation in this class. At the end of the semester, please visit <https://sete.unt.edu> and login using your EUID and password to complete the short survey.
