COURSE OBJECTIVES

This course consists of weekly applied lessons as well as a weekly “departmental” meeting, with the aim of developing the functional skills, versatility and aesthetics required of the modern-day jazz trumpeter.

COURSE POLICIES AND INFORMATION

ATTENDANCE AND GRADING:

Your grade is determined by the following:

- 30% end-of-semester jury
- 70% lesson attendance and progress

Final jury (30%) requirements are determined on an individual basis by the instructor, usually consisting of some combination of technical studies, harmonic drills, transcription projects, repertoire in twelve keys, and stylistic analyses. Students will know what their jury assignments are by the end of the fourth lesson.

For lesson attendance and progress (70%), students will be given specific weekly assignments. 2-unit students will receive thirteen (13) lessons of fifty (50) minutes each. 1-unit students receive thirteen (13) lessons of twenty-five (25) minutes each. As a courtesy, the lowest individual lesson grade will be dropped from calculations.

All juries and individual lessons are graded on the following rubric:

- A (90-100%): Extraordinary level of preparation and improvement, transcription assignments performed with near-exact note accuracy and mostly correct style, tunes learned functionally in all keys, technical studies well-rehearsed and accurate, demonstrating regular, consistent practice.

- B (80-89%): Adequate preparation, transcription assignments are mostly correct but with some significant errors, tunes learned in most keys, technical studies near-accurate, demonstrating a good amount of weekly practice.
- C (70-79%): Some level of preparation and improvement in the above listed areas, but much left to be accomplished
- D (60-69%): Very little preparation and improvement in the above listed areas, and / or student more than 10 mins late
- F (0-59%): No preparation and / or student does not attend without notice

Weekly departmental is a chance to perform for the group and receive critical feedback from peers and the instructor. You are expected to attend weekly and participate. Your attendance / participation in departmental is not directly part of your grade for this course. However, students are only allowed three unexcused absences from departmental. Each subsequent absence lowers the final grade by a full letter, regardless of performance in other parts of the course. Per the Division of Jazz Studies policy, an A or B is required in all major division coursework for it to count towards the degree.

Students are expected to be present at every lesson unless Prof. Dizack reschedules with advance notice. If students need to reschedule, they should contact their fellow students to switch lesson times before contacting Prof. Dizack. Excused absences are, of course, permitted with ample notice and reasonable cause. Please email the instructor to clear these in advance, or as soon as possible after-the-fact in case of emergency. Usually some form of documentation / verification is necessary.

PREREQUISITES AND COURSE OF STUDY:

Per the handbooks, B.M. jazz trumpet students, after two years of classical study, must pass the UDE (Upper Division Exam) to be eligible to enroll in MUAC 3536.

3rd year undergraduates will study with Prof. Dizack based on studio availability and lab band/lesson placement auditions given before the start of each semester.

DEPARTMENTAL:

Departmental is our weekly meeting as a jazz trumpet studio. All jazz trumpet students are required to attend departmental, including 1st year students who are studying only with a classical trumpet teacher. The focus of departmental is to perform various jury and non-jury assignments in a public, group setting with opportunity for critique from Prof. Dizack and from peers.

STUDENT RECITAL ATTENDANCE:

You are required to attend all jazz trumpet senior capstone, MM, and DMA recitals. We cannot grow in the music unless we learn from each other and offer support to our peers. Unexcused absences from such performances will count towards the three unexcused absences you are granted for departmental.

EMAIL USE:

It is expected that you use your UNT email address for all correspondence related to your degree. Any university-related questions emailed to Prof. Dizack from your personal email address, through Facebook or any other social media platform, or through SMS (text messaging) will not receive a response.

Furthermore, you must check your UNT email DAILY. All inquiries from Prof. Dizack (or any other professor or administrator) should be responded to within 24 hours.

For better or for worse, effective use of email is essential to your career as a professional musician. In the modern-day music business, timely responses are mandatory in order to be considered for many gigs and opportunities. Consider your use of email at UNT to be training for your professional career.

CANVAS:

All jazz majors must register for the Division of Jazz Studies Canvas page. All degree information is found on this page, and it is the primary method that the department uses to notify you of important information.

PROFESSIONALISM AND INCLUSIVITY:

All students are expected to contribute to an environment of inclusivity and mutual respect, in this course and in all department courses. Please consider how some words, phrases and actions that you feel are harmless and acceptable may actually be perceived by others as an attack on their very identity. Show proper respect for all of your peers and treat others how they would like to be treated.

In addition, compulsive tardiness, inadequate preparation, ineffective use of email or delayed response times, and/or disrespectful behavior towards fellow students or professors are not only grounds for grade reductions and other department-level actions, they will also naturally prevent you from receiving any professional referrals that may arise, as well as letters of recommendation for various paid and unpaid opportunities.

UNIVERSITY POLICIES AND INFORMATION

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

Students caught cheating or plagiarizing will receive a "0" for that particular assignment or exam [or specify alternative sanction, such as course failure]. Additionally, the incident will be reported to the Dean of Students (Office of Academic Integrity), who may impose further penalty. According to the UNT catalog, the term "cheating" includes, but is not limited to: a. use of any unauthorized assistance in taking quizzes, tests, or examinations; b. dependence upon the aid of sources beyond those authorized by the instructor in writing papers, preparing reports, solving problems, or carrying out other assignments; c. the acquisition, without permission, of tests or other academic material belonging to a faculty or staff member of the university; d. dual submission of a paper or project, or resubmission of a paper or project to a different class without express permission from the instructor(s); or e. any other act designed to give a student an unfair advantage. The term "plagiarism" includes, but is not limited to: a. the knowing or negligent use by paraphrase or direct quotation of the published or unpublished work of another person without full and clear acknowledgment; and b. the knowing or negligent unacknowledged use of materials prepared by another person or agency engaged in the selling of term papers or other academic materials.

STUDENT BEHAVIOR

Student behavior that interferes with an instructor's ability to conduct a class or other students' opportunity to learn is unacceptable and disruptive and will not be tolerated in any instructional forum at UNT. Students engaging in unacceptable behavior will be directed to leave the classroom and the instructor may refer the student to the Dean of Students to consider whether the student's conduct violated the Code of Student Conduct. The university's expectations for student conduct apply to all instructional forums, including university and electronic classrooms, labs, discussion groups, field trips, etc.

ODA STATEMENT

The University of North Texas makes reasonable academic accommodation for students with disabilities. Students seeking accommodation must first register with the Office of Disability Access (ODA) to verify their eligibility. If a disability is verified, the ODA will provide you with an accommodation letter to be delivered to faculty to begin a private discussion regarding your specific needs in a course. You may request accommodations at any time, however, ODA notices of accommodation should be provided as early as possible in the semester to avoid any delay in implementation. Note that students must obtain a new letter of accommodation for every semester and must meet with each faculty member prior to implementation in each class. For additional information see the Office of Disability Access.

UNT Policy Statement on Diversity

UNT values diversity and individuality as part of advancing ideals of human worth, dignity and academic excellence. Diverse viewpoints enrich open discussion, foster the examination of values and exposure of biases, help educate people in rational conflict resolution and responsive leadership, and prepare us for the complexities of a pluralistic society. As such, UNT is committed to maintaining an open, welcoming atmosphere that attracts qualified students, staff, and faculty from all groups to support their success. UNT does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, age, disability, genetic information, or veteran status in its application and admission process, educational programs and activities, employment policies and use of university facilities.

Financial Aid and Satisfactory Academic Progress

Undergraduates

A student must maintain Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) to continue to receive financial aid. Students must maintain a minimum 2.0 cumulative GPA in addition to successfully completing a required number of credit hours based on total hours registered. Students cannot exceed attempted credit hours above 150% of their required degree plan. If a student does not maintain the required standards, the student may lose their financial aid eligibility.

Students holding music scholarships must maintain a minimum 2.5 overall cumulative GPA and 3.0 cumulative GPA in music courses.

If at any point you consider dropping this or any other course, please be advised that the decision to do so may have the potential to affect your current and future financial aid eligibility. It is recommended that you to schedule a meeting with an academic advisor in your college or visit the Student Financial Aid and Scholarships office to discuss dropping a course before doing so.

COVID-19 impact on attendance

While attendance is expected as outlined above, it is important for all of us to be mindful of the health and safety of everyone in our community, especially given concerns about COVID-19. Please contact me if you are unable to attend class because you are ill, or unable to attend class due to a related issue regarding COVID-19. It is important that you communicate with me prior to being absent as to what may be preventing you from coming to class so I may make a decision about accommodating your request to be excused from class.

If you are experiencing cough, shortness of breath or difficulty breathing, fever, or any of the other possible symptoms of COVID-19 (<https://www.cdc.gov/coronavirus/2019-ncov/symptomtesting/symptoms.html>) please seek medical attention from the Student Health and Wellness Center (940-565-2333 or askSHWC@unt.edu) or your health care provider. While attendance is an important part of succeeding in this class, your own health, and those of others in the community, is more important.
