CATALOG DESCRIPTION

This course focuses on the methods and techniques of teaching English as an additional language and assessing emergent bilinguals in elementary and secondary schools. Using asset-based approaches, the course will examine the use of bilingual learners' strengths in the classroom to design and implement meaningful and authentic lessons, assessments, and classroom activities that advance the students' knowledge of the English language and the content areas. The course will also explore educational structures and pedagogical methodologies that promote language and literacy development centered in the students' family and community traditions.

COURSE PREREQUISITES

Admission to the teacher education program and completion of EDBE 2050 Understanding and Teaching Multilingual Students.

REQUIRED TEXTBOOK AND MATERIALS

Peregoy, S. F., Boyle, O.F. & Amendum, S.J. (2023). Reading, Writing, and Learning in ESL: A Resource Book for Teaching K-12 Multilingual Learners. Pearson.

Supplementary materials, including articles, handouts, and videos, will be listed in the Canvas Modules.

CLASS MODALITY TIME/LOCATION

EDBE 3050.001 is a face-to-face course. We will meet Monday and Wednesday, from 9:00 to 10:20 am at Matthews Hall Room 102.

COURSE OBJECTIVES AND STUDENT OUTCOMES

The content of this course is aimed at these goals:

- Examining the academic and social needs of multilingual learners.
- Identifying the principles of first and second language acquisition theories and their implications on instructional practices.
- Designing lesson plans and assessments that emphasize the unique characteristics and needs of emergent bilinguals.
- Examining culturally and linguistically sustaining practices in a variety of instructional models where English is the main language of instruction (e.g., sheltered instruction).
- Recognizing home and community literacy practices and centering these practices in classroom instruction.
- Reviewing new literacy forms and formulating plans to reduce or eliminate technology and/or opportunity gaps.
- Planning instruction that considers the students' funds of knowledge.
- Researching the elements of critical pedagogy and its implications for an equitable and just education for all students.
- Reviewing children's and young adult's anti-racist literature for reading instruction.
- Describing practices that foster family involvement.
- Examining the intersection of ESL and special education.

HOW TO SUCCEED IN THIS COURSE

This course is designed and organized to be highly collaborative and interactive. Our sessions will involve small and whole-group activities and discussions. Therefore, your attendance, participation, and collaboration are essential to achieve the objectives of this course.

Do your best to review the materials and resources for this course and participate in the classroom discussion, activities, and projects designed to achieve a deeper understanding of the course content.

Office hours offer you an opportunity to ask for clarification or find support with understanding class material. Come visit me! I encourage you to contact me for support. If you need online guidance, we may also schedule an individual or group Zoom meeting. Please send me an email with the proposed day and time for a meeting.

ATTENDANCE POLICY

EDBE 3050 Section 001 is a face-to-face course; consequently, regular and punctual attendance is required and necessary. Your participation and collaboration in enriched discussions in the class is essential for your success. The attendance policy for this course will be guided by the University policy 06.039 will be followed for attendance problems. If necessary, students may miss class with a valid excuse (see university policy for excused absences) and not face penalties related to their grades. Students must let the instructor know as soon as possible if they will miss class. It is the student's responsibility to obtain all notes and handouts missed during their absence. All assignments are due on dates indicated on the syllabus, regardless of student absences. Chronic tardiness or early departure will result in the lowering of a final grade at the instructor's discretion (arriving more than 15 minutes late or leaving more than 15 minutes early). Please note: it is the student's responsibility to drop this course if necessary.

of Absences	Total participation points for the class (out of 100 points)
0 –2	100
3	70
4	30
5 or more	You will automatically receive an F for your final grade

Late to Class or Early Leave

If you arrive 15 minutes or more after the start time of the class or if you leave the class 15 minutes or more before the end of the class, you will be considered absent unless you have extraneous circumstances to justify your tardiness. The instructor will handle justifications on a case-by-case basis.

Excused Absences

An absence may be excused for the following reasons:

- religious holy day, including travel for that purpose;
- active military service, including travel for that purpose;
- participation in an official university function;
- illness or other extenuating circumstances;
- pregnancy and parenting under Title IX; and
- when the University is officially closed.

Students are responsible for requesting an excused absence in writing, providing satisfactory evidence to the faculty member to substantiate the excused absence and delivering the request personally to the faculty member assigned to the course for which the student will be absent. If case of an illness, a student is responsible for submitting the doctor's note with the date/s for an excused absence, and date when he/she can return to school.

Communicate with your instructor about your specific situation.

Description of Assignments

Assignment # 1 Introduction

We are working in a learning community. The purpose of this assignment is to share information about the members of our class.

Use the discussion board to share your background, interest, and knowledge about multilingual students.

Assignment #2 - Critical analysis of anti-racist or culturally relevant children's/YA literature

A fundamental aspect of lesson planning for literacy is the selection of texts for the students to read. These texts need to be age-appropriate and cover a variety of themes connected to the students' lives. For this assignment, you will need to select five texts related to anti-racist or culturally relevant themes and develop a critical analysis and use of these books in classrooms that serve multilingual students. Additional details will be provided in Canvas.

Assignment # 3 Language and language acquisition

For this assignment, students will review theories and research related to language and language acquisition. Then, they will participate in a discussion focused on the application of theories and first and second language acquisition in the classroom.

Assignment #4 Lesson plans for multilingual students.

Students will create two lesson plans that include TEKS, ELPS, content objectives, language objectives, and activities recommended for multilingual students.

Detailed instructions and rubric will be posted in Canvas.

Assignment # 5 Integrating family and community literacy practices

A fundamental part of the education of bilingual learners is an understanding of their home and community literacy practices. Students will review research and videos related to family and community literacy practice; then, they will answer questions posted in the Canvas discussion section. Additional details will be provided in Canvas.

Assignment # 6 Designing and Implementing ESL strategies

The goal of this assignment is to teach for 10-15 minutes to your classmates the use of at least two ESL-specific strategies that are asset-based and equitable for multilingual students. This assignment will be completed in groups of two.

Assignment # 7 Common Lesson Plans

Students will need to develop and upload into Canvas two lesson plans, one for Reading and another for a content area of their choice (Writing, Mathematics, Science, or Social Studies). The two lessons will provide evidence of your ability to design instruction and assessment based on Multilingual learners' proficiency levels, student's strengths, and needs.

Midterm and Final Exam

This exam are formal summative assessments in which students will demonstrate the knowledge and skills learned in this course. Additional details will be provided in Canvas and in class.

DEPARTMENT OF TEACHER EDUCATION AND ADMINISTRATION: PREPARING TOMORROW'S EDUCATORS AND SCHOLARS

The Department of Teacher Education and Administration seeks to improve educational practice through the generation of knowledge and to prepare education professionals who serve all students in an effective, inclusive, and equitable manner. Its focus is on the preparation of highly competent educators, researchers and administrators who employ current theory and research as they fill these important roles.

Mission - The Department of Teacher Education and Administration integrates theory, research, and practice to generate knowledge and to develop educational leaders who advance the potential of all learners.

Vision - We aspire to be internationally recognized for developing visionary educators who provide leadership, promote social justice, and effectively educate all learners.

UNT'S STANDARD SYLLABUS STATEMENTS

Student Academic Integrity

Academic integrity is essential to this course, as in other work that you do in your program. In Policy 06.003, UNT has described academic integrity as follows: The University of North Texas promotes the integrity of learning and embraces the core values of trust and honesty. Academic integrity is based on educational principles and procedures that protect the rights of all participants in the educational process and validate the legitimacy of degrees awarded by the University. In the investigation and resolution of allegations of student academic dishonesty, the University's actions are intended to be corrective, educationally sound, fundamentally fair, and based on reliable evidence.

"Academic Misconduct," in this policy, means the intentional or unintentional action by a student to engage in behavior in the academic setting including, but not limited to: cheating, fabrication, facilitating academic misconduct, forgery, plagiarism, and sabotage.

See full policy (PDF):

ADA Accommodation Statement

The University of North Texas makes reasonable academic accommodation for students with disabilities. Students seeking reasonable accommodation must first register with the Office of Disability Access (ODA) to verify their eligibility. If a disability is verified, the ODA will provide you with a reasonable accommodation letter to be delivered to faculty to begin a private discussion regarding your specific needs in a course. You may request reasonable accommodations at any time; however, ODA notices of reasonable accommodation should be provided as early as possible in the semester to avoid any delay in implementation. Note that students must obtain a new letter of reasonable accommodation for every semester and must meet with each faculty member prior to implementation in each class. Students are strongly encouraged to deliver letters of reasonable accommodation during faculty office hours or by appointment. Faculty members have the authority to ask students to discuss such letters during their designated office hours to protect the privacy of the student. For additional information, refer to the Office of Disability Access website (<http://www.unt.edu/oda>). You may also contact ODA by phone at (940) 565-4323.

Emergency Notification & Procedures.

UNT uses a system called Eagle Alert to quickly notify students with critical information in the event of an emergency (i.e., severe weather, campus closing, and health and public safety emergencies like chemical spills, fires, or violence). In the event of a university closure, please refer to Blackboard for contingency plans for covering course.

Student Evaluation Administration Dates.

Student feedback is important and an essential part of participation in this course. The student evaluation of instruction is a requirement for all organized classes at UNT. The survey will be made available during weeks 13, 14 and 15 of the long semesters to provide students with an opportunity to evaluate how this course is taught. Students will receive an email from "UNT SPOT Course Evaluations via IASystem Notification" (no-reply@iasystem.org) with the survey link. Students should look for the email in their UNT email inbox. Simply click on the link and complete the survey. Once students complete the survey, they will receive a confirmation email that the survey has been submitted. For additional information, please visit the SPOT website at www.spot.unt.edu or email spot@unt.edu.

Sexual Assault Prevention.

UNT is committed to providing a safe learning environment free of all forms of sexual misconduct. Federal laws and UNT policies prohibit discrimination on the basis of sex as well as sexual misconduct. If you or someone you know is experiencing sexual harassment, relationship violence, stalking and/or sexual assault, there are campus resources available to provide support and assistance. The Survivor Advocates can be reached at SurvivorAdvocate@unt.edu or by calling the Dean of Students Office at 940-565- 2648.

Acceptable Student Behavior.

Student behavior that interferes with an instructor's ability to conduct a class or other students' opportunity to learn is unacceptable and disruptive and will not be tolerated in any instructional forum at UNT. Students engaging in unacceptable behavior will be directed to leave the classroom and the instructor may refer the student to the Dean of Students to consider whether the student's conduct violated the Code of Student Conduct. The University's expectations for student conduct apply to all instructional forums, including University and electronic classroom, labs, discussion groups, field trips, etc. The Code of Student Conduct can be found at deanofstudents.unt.edu/conduct.
