

Drum Set Lessons Fall 2022

Professor Quincy Davis

MUAC 1521, MUAC 3521

Email: Quincy.Davis@unt.edu

Studio: Music Building Room 133

Office Hours: M-F by appointment

Course Goals

*To give students the necessary tools needed in becoming a musical jazz drummer with emphasis on:

- Technique and sound
- Overall sense of groove in various styles
- Jazz language and vocabulary
- Overall musicianship
- Professionalism

These goals will be achieved through the usage of audio/visual material, barrier material and transcription assignments.

Grading

60% - Lessons (Attendance, departmental attendance, preparedness, attitude, etc.)

20% - Jury

10% - Departmental performance

10% - Transcription presentation

Attendance Policy:

1. Attendance is mandatory.
2. Students should give at least 24hrs notice if they cannot attend a lesson. Notify Prof. Davis by email if you can not be at your lesson.
3. Missed lessons will not be made up unless we have spoken and alternate arrangements have been made.
4. Lessons missed by the instructor will be made up at a time convenient for both.
5. The student will be allowed one absence; after that, each absence lowers the final grade by a letter.
6. All applied students are required to attend percussion departmentals on Fridays at 1pm. Missing more than 3 will lower your final lesson by a letter grade. Missing 4 will lower your lesson grade by two letters.
7. You are required to attend all student recitals. If you cannot attend, you will need to email your reason before the recital.

Forms of Communication

1. Only a UNT email address will be used for email communications.
2. If the contact information is not submitted by the due day the student will be responsible for his/her attendance to any unscheduled activity: Instructor absence notifications and make up lessons that could arise during the course of the semester.

Weekly Assignments and Barrier Information

Please follow the schedule on the UNT Percussion Manual regarding private applied percussion lessons. Lessons are divided into twelve (12) weekly assignments, to aid individuals in pacing themselves throughout the semester. Independent of what is discussed during lessons, it is the responsibility of the student to stay on pace with the weekly barrier assignments throughout the semester.

Jury Transcription:

1. The material for the transcriptions will be selected by week 3 (the chosen material should reflect the musical goals of the semester). Title, drummer and source will be notified to the instructor at that time.
2. Revision and completion schedule:
Week 5: Present draft.
Week 7: 1st revision
Week 9: 2nd revision and playable (slow tempo).
Week 11: Turn in complete final transcription. At this time the transcription should be playable at tempo with recording.
3. Staple a new transcription cover sheet (attached) with each new transcription. The use of music notation programs like Finale or Sibelius is REQUIRED.
4. You will upload final PDF of your transcription to a Google cloud folder that you will receive an invite to join.

For further information regarding private lesson requirements consult the UNT Percussion Manual.

SPOT Evaluations:

All classes and ensembles members are encouraged to evaluate this course and its instructor at the end of the semester. Your opinion and views as students are extremely valuable to us faculty members. It helps us improve and become more effective in our mission to efficiently assist in your growth and education.

For complete information on course syllabi requirements, please see the university's policy.
(<https://policy.unt.edu/policy/06-049> )

In addition to the information below, course syllabi should minimally include the following information:

- Course Title and Course Number
- Course Objectives
- Instructor Office Hours
- Attendance Expectations
- Grading Criteria
- Statement on timeliness return of student work, particularly final exams or final projects
- For Faculty, Teaching Fellows and Adjuncts:
  - ✓ All undergraduate syllabi for lecture courses are required by law to be available to the public. At UNT, undergraduate syllabi for lecture courses should be uploaded into the Faculty Information System.
  - ✓ Use gender inclusive language in your syllabi
  - ✓ UNT requires that all graduate course syllabi to be uploaded into FIS.
    - To access the Faculty Information System, go to your my.unt home page. Under the Faculty Tab, click on Faculty Information System.

Rather than including the text for the information below, it is also an option to include the links in course syllabi and review the information on the first day of class.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

Students caught cheating or plagiarizing will receive a "0" for that particular assignment or exam [or specify alternative sanction, such as course failure]. Additionally, the incident will be reported to the Dean of Students (Office of Academic Integrity), who may impose further penalty. According to the UNT catalog, the term "cheating" includes, but is not limited to: a. use of any unauthorized assistance in taking quizzes, tests, or examinations; b. dependence upon the aid of sources beyond those authorized by the instructor in writing papers, preparing reports, solving problems, or carrying out other assignments; c. the acquisition, without permission, of tests or other academic material belonging to a faculty or staff member of the university; d. dual submission of a paper or project, or resubmission of a paper or project to a different class without express permission from the instructor(s); or e. any other act designed to give a student an unfair advantage. The term "plagiarism" includes, but is not limited to: a. the knowing or negligent use by paraphrase or direct quotation of the published or unpublished work of another person without full and clear acknowledgment; and b. the knowing or negligent unacknowledged use of materials prepared by another person or agency engaged in the selling of term papers or other academic materials.

ODA STATEMENT

The University of North Texas makes reasonable academic accommodation for students with disabilities. Students seeking accommodation must first register with the Office of Disability Access (ODA) to verify their eligibility. If a disability is verified, the ODA will provide you with an accommodation letter. You can now request your Letters of Accommodation ONLINE and ODA will mail your Letters of Accommodation to your instructors. You may wish to begin a private discussion with your professors regarding your specific needs in a course. Note that students must obtain a new letter of accommodation for every semester. For additional information see the Office of Disability Access.

Financial Aid and Satisfactory Academic Progress

Undergraduates

A student must maintain Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) to continue to receive financial aid. Students must maintain a minimum 2.0 cumulative GPA in addition to successfully completing a required number of credit hours based on total hours registered. Students cannot exceed attempted credit hours above 150% of their required degree plan. If a student does not maintain the required standards, the student may lose their financial aid eligibility.

Students holding music scholarships must maintain a minimum 2.5 overall cumulative GPA and 3.0 cumulative GPA in music courses.

If at any point you consider dropping this or any other course, please be advised that the decision to do so may have the potential to affect your current and future financial aid eligibility. It is recommended that you to schedule a meeting with an academic advisor in your college or visit the Student Financial Aid and Scholarships office to discuss dropping a course before doing so.

Graduates

A student must maintain Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) to continue to receive financial aid. Students must maintain a minimum 3.0 cumulative GPA in addition to successfully completing a required number of credit hours based on total registered hours per term. Music scholarships require a 3.5 cumulative GPA. Students cannot exceed maximum timeframes established based on the published length of the graduate program. If a student does not maintain the required standards, the student may lose their financial aid eligibility.

If at any point you consider dropping this or any other course, please be advised that the decision to do so may have the potential to affect your current and future financial aid eligibility. It is recommended you schedule a meeting with an academic advisor in your college, an advisor in UNT-International or visit the Student Financial Aid and Scholarships office to discuss dropping a course.
