Course Overview

“Does such a thing as “the fatal flaw,” that showy dark crack running down the middle of a life, exist outside literature? I used to think it didn’t. Now I think it does. And I think that mine is this: a morbid longing for the picturesque at all costs. A moi. L’histoire d’une de mes folies.” —Tartt

“Had the price of looking been blindness, I would have looked.” —Ellison

American Literature survey courses are intended to help equip all students with a broad, shared understanding of the literary tradition in America. This course in American Literature offers guided readings of culturally significant texts, provides a historical framework in which to read the works, explores methods and assumptions of literary and cultural analysis, and sharpens skills in close reading. Knowledge of the past, an appreciation for the arts, an understanding of issues central in the country during the designated time period, and insights into how individuals and societies work are all objectives for the course. Other goals of literature courses at UNT include teaching students how to reason well, communicate ideas effectively, and develop skills in reading and writing.

ENGL 3840 will introduce you to a selection of American texts from 1870 to the present. We will begin with two groundbreaking poets from the Antebellum era. We will then survey Naturalist, Modernist, and Postmodern works, reading from short stories, plays, poetry, and novels along the way. Themes of the course will include the role of the individual in our culture, the nature of America and American life, the high hopes and shattered promises of the American dream, and our relationships to each other and the rest of the world. We will also discuss whether countries, like characters, have both hidden strengths and fatal flaws, and what attentively looking at each might entail.

Course Objectives

By the end of this course, students should be able to:

1. Identify important literary and rhetorical elements in poetry and prose.
2. Perform a close reading that analyzes literary devices and their effects in a passage.
3. Show how a work of literature exemplifies characteristics of a particular cultural/artistic period.
4. Illustrate how the themes and details in a text point to a critique of cultural or political trends.
5. Compare themes and details in two or more literary texts to generate ideas about each one.

Course Structure

This is a face-to-face course with some online instruction (up to 49%). The semester consists of sixteen weeks plus finals week. The major components of the course include reading, in-class discussion, online reading quizzes, and two papers. Students must acquire the primary texts, bring relevant readings on the day they are assigned, and bring assigned workshop drafts to class. I require print texts. The course pack will be handed out in class. All quizzes and papers will be submitted on Canvas. The course schedule at the end of this document provides an overview of our work for the term.

Minimum Technology Requirements

Minimum technology requirements for students in this course include the following:

- A computer
- Reliable internet access
- Microsoft Office Suite
- Canvas Technical Requirements (<https://clear.unt.edu/supported-technologies/canvas/requirements>)

Computer Skills & Digital Literacy

To succeed in the course, students should be able to

- Use Canvas
- Send e-mail with attachments
- Download and install software

Rules of Engagement

Rules of engagement refer to the way students are expected to interact with each other and with their instructors at UNT. Here are some general guidelines:

- While the freedom to express yourself is a fundamental human right, any communication that utilizes cruel and derogatory language on the basis of race, color, national origin, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, age, disability, genetic information, veteran status, or any other characteristic protected under applicable federal or state law will not be tolerated.
- Treat your instructor and classmates with respect in any communication, whether online or face-to-face, even when their opinion differs from your own.
- Ask for and use the correct name and pronouns for your instructor and classmates.
- Speak from personal experience, your reading of the text, or scholarly research. Use “I” statements to share thoughts and feelings. Try not to speak on behalf of groups, especially if you don’t belong to them.
- Use your critical thinking skills to challenge other people’s ideas instead of attacking individuals.
- Avoid using all caps while communicating digitally. This may be interpreted as “yelling.”
- Be cautious when using humor or sarcasm in emails or discussion posts as tone can be difficult to interpret.
- Avoid using “text-talk” in written posts or papers in the course.
- Keep in mind that online posts can be permanent, so think first before you type.
- Proofread and fact-check your sources.

See these Engagement Guidelines (<https://clear.unt.edu/online-communication-tips>) for more information.

Attendance

Students are expected to attend class meetings regularly and to abide by the attendance policy established for the course. It is important that you communicate with me prior to being absent, so we can discuss and mitigate the impact of the absence on your attainment of course learning goals. Please inform me if you are unable to attend class meetings because you are ill, in mindfulness of the health and safety of everyone in our community.

Attendance Policy

Attendance is required. Attendance will be taken at the beginning of each class. If you are late, make sure to see me after class to verify your presence. University policies concerning attendance may be found at <http://www.unt.edu/catalog/enrollment.htm>.

Unexcused Absences

- An absence is unexcused unless it is explicitly excused by the University or the instructor. Absences for university events, holy days, hospitalization, and documented illness, medical isolation, or quarantine may be eligible.
- You are allowed three unexcused absences in the course with no penalty. They are granted as leeway for personal emergencies.
- Three tardies counts as an unexcused absence. Those excessively tardy (more than ten minutes) to one class may be counted absent for the class.
- Those who habitually come in late or are sleeping in class will be counted absent.
- Ten points will be deducted from your participation grade upon your fourth unexcused absence.
- Upon your fifth unexcused absence, your grade for the semester will be an F if you do not withdraw.

Excused Absences and Make-up Work

- An absence to be excused by the University must follow the procedure outlined in the Undergraduate Catalog: "Absences due to participation in sponsored activities must be approved in advance by the department chair and academic dean. Within three days of the absence, students must obtain authorized absence cards from the Dean of Students for presentation to their instructors." Failure to follow this procedure will result in an unexcused absence.
- State law requires that students notify their teachers at the beginning of the semester (in the first 15 days) if they expect to miss class on a religious holiday.
- An absence for an emergency doctor's visit, hospitalization may be excused if you let me know in an e-mail, an original, verifiable doctor's note (with contact information) is presented to me on the first day back after the absence, and we hold a brief conference on the absence.
- Contact me in a timely fashion to make up course days missed for extended excused absences. Failure to hand in make-up work on time will result point deductions.
- Excused absences do not change essay or quiz dates. Make arrangements accordingly.

Assignments

Quizzes (40%)

Multiple-choice quizzes will be given on Canvas to test your knowledge of the course material. Quizzes may cover readings, lectures, and handouts. These quizzes cannot be made up, however, If I give more than ten quizzes, I will drop your lowest grade(s). Due dates for ten quizzes are on Canvas and the Course Schedule; they may be changed if necessary to meet the goals of the course.

Written Work (45%)

You will write two papers in this course to respond to the readings, develop your skills in close reading, and engage in critical analysis of course texts while also addressing the broader topics of the course. The first essay will be a close reading of a passage; the second essay will be a critical analysis. Specific and detailed instructions for each essay will be provided and discussed in class.

Participation (15%)

Active participation of all class members is essential to the success of this course. Factors affecting your participation grade include your timely contributions to class discussions and in-class activities, your level of preparedness for class (attentiveness to reading, useful questions, materials in hand, etc.), your helpfulness as a peer editor, and the quality of your group presentations, and your attendance. In order to earn a superior participation grade, your contributions to class should be regular, well-informed, on topic, and insightful. Contributions that lead the class off topic or do not address course texts will not be rewarded. If you never speak in class or never speak on subjects relevant to the course you will receive a failing participation grade. If participation wanes, I will assign written discussion questions for the class to prepare in advance. Your final participation grade will be determined at the end of the semester, but you are free to schedule a conference at any time to find out where you stand.

Note: On “Workshop and Peer Review Days,” you must bring a fully typed, printed draft on time to be counted present for the class.

Assignment Requirements

- Work should be turned in to Canvas by the due date and time.
- All work must be titled, in 12-point Times New Roman or a similar professional font, with numbered pages, and your name included on each page. Use block format (the paragraphs under “Course Overview” are an example).
- Keep copies of everything you turn in throughout the semester. Save your work as you go.

Late Work

Due dates for assignments are announced in advance on the course schedule and are compiled on the Canvas course summary. Late essays will lose one letter grade per calendar day. Late quizzes, discussions, and makeup work (see Canvas for your individual deadline) are not accepted.

Grading

Quizzes	40%
Essay #1:	20%
Essay #2	25%
Participation	15%
Total	100%

Final Grades

A = 90-100
B = 80-89
C = 70-79
D = 60-69
F = 00-59

There are no extra credit opportunities in this course.

Online Instruction

Increased online instruction (up to 49%) may be necessary if community health conditions change. Students will need access to a computer with a camera and speakers to participate in online portions of the class and/or to engage in synchronous online interaction with the instructor. Information on how to be successful in a remote learning environment can be found at <https://online.unt.edu/learn>. If classroom health considerations require further online instruction, the relative weight of components in the total grade may be shifted to properly reward online discussion and group work.

Questions about Grades or Attendance

If you have questions about papers, grades, or absences, you should discuss those with me during office hours, making sure to bring any papers in question. I will not discuss paper grades until 24 hours have passed after the papers have been returned. Problems concerning attendance, participation, or grades must be resolved by Tuesday of Week 15.

Other Course Policies

Required Materials

Everyone is expected to secure the course texts by the second day of the course. I require print, not electronic texts. If you have difficulty obtaining texts, e-mail me prior to the next class so I can advise you on how to get the readings in time for class. It is your responsibility to bring the texts under discussion to class each day and to do the required reading. This includes handouts or online material. I reserve the right to count you absent for class meetings if you repeatedly fail to bring required readings or writing materials to class.

Classroom Etiquette

- Please organize your seating as requested.
- Those disrupting class will be asked to leave. Actions considered misconduct by the University may be found in the UNT Student Code of Conduct. These include disruptions of teaching or research, acts of incivility, violence, harassment, repeatedly talking out of turn or monopolizing class discussion, and unauthorized use of electronic devices.
- Silence all phones, music players, and laptops, etc. Only those taking notes for in-class small group work should have laptops open in class. Remove ear buds for the duration of the class. If electronic devices repeatedly distract you or disturb the class, you will be asked to leave and counted absent. Those texting or taking calls during class will be asked to leave and counted absent.
- Working on outside material during class will result in an unexcused absence for the day.

Plagiarism

- Plagiarism is defined as the knowing or negligent use by paraphrase or direct quotation of the published or unpublished work of another person without full and clear acknowledgement.
- All assignments should be original work written only for this particular class.
- UNT defines the use of materials prepared by another person or agency as plagiarism.
- Looking at a phone during an in-class quiz or exam will be construed as cheating.
- Protect yourself: do not lend or send your essays to other students.
- Cheating or plagiarism on any assignment will result in a zero on the assignment, and may lead to an F in the course and/or disciplinary procedures established by the Administrative Office such as loss of scholarships or expulsion.

Financial Responsibilities

Students who are dropped from classes for nonpayment of financial aid or other reasons may not be readmitted to this section; it is the student's responsibility to make sure that all of their financial records are in order so that they are not dropped. Please monitor your course schedule in the first two weeks of class to verify your registration.

Additional Course Requirements & Information

Schedule Changes—The reading and assignment schedule will be changed if necessary to meet the goals of the course or adjust to circumstances beyond my control. I will send an announcement upon any changes and update the relevant documents. Since this face-to-face class is coded for some online instruction, I will update you as to the instructional format as we go.

Interpreting the Reading Schedule—Readings are due on the day they are listed. You should be finished with each day's reading by the time you come to class.

Course Content— The course reading includes texts with dark themes, passages with vulgar language, explicit descriptions of sex, and depictions of violence. If you do not wish to read or discuss such content, you should drop this course.

E-mail—If Canvas functionality temporarily fails, the registrar's course enrollment list will be used to communicate with you outside of class. It is your responsibility to make sure your UNT e-mail is up and running and to check your e-mail regularly for schedule changes, course announcements, or supplementary materials for the class. When you ask questions about the course or send relevant information over e-mail, courtesy and care are recommended. Include your name and a clear, relevant subject line on all e-mail messages.

Course Webpage—You should regularly check Canvas where important announcements, course documents, schedule changes, reading notes, and discussion questions may be posted.

Resolving Technical Difficulties—The University is committed to providing a reliable online course system to all users. However, part of working with an online environment involves dealing with the inconveniences and frustration that can arise when technology breaks down or does not perform as expected. In the event of any unexpected server outage or any unusual technical difficulty which prevents you from completing a time-sensitive assessment activity, you should contact the UNT Student Help Desk: helpdesk@unt.edu or 940.565.2324 and obtain a ticket number before reporting problems to the instructor. The instructor and the UNT Student Help Desk will work with the student to resolve any issues at the earliest possible time.

Writing Center and Writing Help—If you need additional help with grammar, punctuation, or any other element of composition, the UNT Writing Center may be of assistance. You may wish to schedule a conference with the Writing Center as part of your writing process. The tutors there can answer specific questions about the effectiveness of your essays and may help you polish your writing. I am happy to meet with you during office hours to assist with questions on papers or to help with brainstorming, organizing, or finalizing your material. Note that I do not read drafts on computers when in person. Please bring a typed hardcopy.

Recordings—Any class recordings are the intellectual property of the university or instructor and are reserved for use only by students in this class and only for educational purposes. Students may not post or otherwise share recordings outside the class, or outside the Canvas Learning Management System, in any form. Failing to follow this restriction is a violation of the UNT Code of Student Conduct and could lead to disciplinary action.

Senate Bill 11 (“Campus Carry”) [Current as of 8/18/2021]—Students must read UNT’s policy on concealed handguns on campus. (See <http://campuscarry.unt.edu/untpolicy>.) Note that 1) only licensed persons may legally carry handguns on campus, and 2) this right only authorizes the licensed carrying of “handgun[s], the presence of which is not openly noticeable to the ordinary observation of a reasonable person.” If a gun is “partially or wholly visible, even if holstered,” it’s not legal under “campus carry” law and may be reported.

“Active Shooter” Situations. All students should be aware of UNT’s guidelines for responding to “active shooter situations” (see <http://emergency.unt.edu/get-prepared/Active-Shooter>).

UNT Policies

Academic Integrity Policy

Academic Integrity Standards and Consequences. According to UNT Policy 06.003, Student Academic Integrity, academic dishonesty occurs when students engage in behaviors including, but not limited to cheating, fabrication, facilitating academic dishonesty, forgery, plagiarism, and sabotage. A finding of academic dishonesty may result in a range of academic penalties or sanctions ranging from admonition to expulsion from the University.

ADA Policy

UNT makes reasonable academic accommodation for students with disabilities. Students seeking accommodation must first register with the Office of Disability Accommodation (ODA) to verify their eligibility. If a disability is verified, the ODA will provide a student with an accommodation letter to be delivered to faculty to begin a private discussion regarding one's specific course needs. Students may request accommodations at any time, however, ODA notices of accommodation should be provided as early as possible in the semester to avoid any delay in implementation. Note that students must obtain a new letter of accommodation for every semester and must meet with each faculty member prior to implementation in each class. For additional information see the ODA website \(https://disability.unt.edu/\).

Prohibition of Discrimination, Harassment, and Retaliation (Policy 16.004)

The University of North Texas (UNT) prohibits discrimination and harassment because of race, color, national origin, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, age, disability, genetic information, veteran status, or any other characteristic protected under applicable federal or state law in its application and admission processes; educational programs and activities; employment policies, procedures, and processes; and university facilities. The University takes active measures to prevent such conduct and investigates and takes remedial action when appropriate.

Emergency Notification & Procedures

UNT uses a system called Eagle Alert to quickly notify students with critical information in the event of an emergency (i.e., severe weather, campus closing, and health and public safety emergencies like chemical spills, fires, or violence). In the event of a university closure, please refer to Canvas for contingency plans for covering course materials.

Retention of Student Records

Student records pertaining to this course are maintained in a secure location by the instructor of record. All records such as exams, answer sheets (with keys), and written papers submitted during the duration of the course are kept for at least one calendar year after course completion. Course work completed via the Canvas online system, including grading information and comments, is also stored in a safe electronic environment for one year. Students have the right to view their individual record; however, information about student's records will not be divulged to other individuals without proper written consent. Students are encouraged to review the Public Information Policy and the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) laws and the University's policy. See UNT Policy 10.10, Records Management and Retention for additional information.

Acceptable Student Behavior

Student behavior that interferes with an instructor's ability to conduct a class or other students' opportunity to learn is unacceptable and disruptive and will not be tolerated in any instructional forum at UNT. Students engaging in unacceptable behavior will be directed to leave the classroom and the instructor may refer the student to the Dean of Students to consider whether the student's conduct violated the Code of Student Conduct. The University's expectations for student conduct apply to all instructional forums, including University and electronic classroom, labs, discussion groups, field trips, etc. Visit UNT's Code of Student Conduct (<https://deanofstudents.unt.edu/conduct>) to learn more.

Access to Information: Eagle Connect

Student Evaluation Administration Dates

Student feedback is important and an essential part of participation in this course. The student evaluation of instruction is a requirement for all organized classes at UNT. The survey will be made available during weeks 13, 14 and 15 of the long semesters to provide students with an opportunity to evaluate how this course is taught. Students will receive an email from "UNT SPOT Course Evaluations via IASystem Notification" (no-reply@iasystem.org) with the survey link. Students should look for the email in their UNT email inbox. Simply click on the link and complete the survey. Once students complete the survey they will receive a confirmation email that the survey has been submitted. For additional information, please visit the SPOT website (<http://spot.unt.edu/>) or email spot@unt.edu.

Sexual Assault Prevention

UNT is committed to providing a safe learning environment free of all forms of sexual misconduct, including sexual harassment sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking. Federal laws (Title IX and the Violence Against Women Act) and UNT policies prohibit discrimination on the basis of sex, and therefore prohibit sexual misconduct. If you or someone you know is experiencing sexual harassment, relationship violence, stalking, and/or sexual assault, there are campus resources available to provide support and assistance. UNT's Survivor Advocates can assist a student who has been impacted by violence by filing protective orders, completing crime victim's compensation applications, contacting professors for absences related to an assault, working with housing to facilitate a room change where appropriate, and connecting students to other resources available both on and off campus. The Survivor Advocates can be reached at SurvivorAdvocate@unt.edu or by calling the Dean of Students Office at 940-565- 2648. Additionally, alleged sexual misconduct can be non-confidentially reported to the Title IX Coordinator at oeo@unt.edu or at (940) 565 2759.

Use of Student Work

A student owns the copyright for all work (e.g. software, photographs, reports, presentations, and email postings) he or she creates within a class and the University is not entitled to use any student work without the student's permission unless all of the following criteria are met:

The work is used only once.

The work is not used in its entirety.

Use of the work does not affect any potential profits from the work.

The student is not identified.

The work is identified as student work.

If the use of the work does not meet all of the above criteria, then the University office or department using the work must obtain the student's written permission.

Class Recordings & Student Likenesses

If optional live sessions in this course are held, they may be recorded for students enrolled in this class section to refer to throughout the semester. Class recordings are the intellectual property of the university or instructor and are reserved for use only by students in this class and only for educational purposes. Students may not post or otherwise share the recordings outside the class, or outside the Canvas Learning Management System, in any form. Failing to follow this restriction is a violation of the UNT Code of Student Conduct and could lead to disciplinary action.
