Career Paper Assignment:

Research three careers in the public safety, emergency management or business continuity field that are of interest to you. Your paper is to have four distinct sections (three careers, plus your personal plan).

Paper elements:

- You must conduct three actual interviews. The paper requires in-person interviews with three professionals in the field. You must receive prior permission from the instructor, by email, if any of your interviews will not be in person. In addition to the three careers highlighted, you must include a fourth section for your own career plans, including one-three-five year milestones.
- Organize your paper with a separate section for each highlighted career.
- Describe the typical duties associated with the position. How do these match up with your previous job, volunteer or school experiences? What advice do the professionals have for you?
- What are the experience, education and certification requirements for each career?
- In section four of the paper, choose a possible career for you and chart how you will get there. Set one year, three year and five year career goals. Where do you intend to live and what is the job market for the chosen career?
- References: Cite at least three references per career. (If conducted, the interview itself [name, title, location and date].) Use in-text, author-date style citations. Avoid long passages of quotations from other sources. No more than 10 percent of the content is to be verbatim from other sources.
- Write in formal college composition style, using well-composed sentences and paragraphs. Your paper must include: a cover page, six-seven page report (double-spaced, max. 12 point font), page numbers at the bottom (starting at “1” for the first page of text,) and an alphabetized reference page for the minimum of nine citations required. Any pictures and diagrams must be in an appendix, and do not count toward the page count. Paraphrase- do not paste content in directly from external sources. No bulleted sections; no pasted job descriptions permitted.

Disability Accommodation

The University of North Texas makes reasonable academic accommodation for students with disabilities. Students seeking reasonable accommodation must first register with the Office of Disability Access (ODA) to verify their eligibility. If a disability is verified, the ODA will provide you with a reasonable accommodation letter to be delivered to faculty to begin a private discussion regarding your specific needs in a course. You may request reasonable accommodations at any time; however, ODA notices of reasonable accommodation should be provided as early as possible in the semester to avoid any delay in implementation. Note that students must obtain a new letter of reasonable accommodation for every semester and must meet with each faculty member prior to implementation in each class. Students are strongly encouraged to deliver letters of reasonable accommodation during faculty office hours or by appointment. Faculty members have the authority to ask students to discuss such letters during their designated office hours to protect the privacy of the student. For additional information, refer to the Office of Disability Access website (http://www.unt.edu/oda). You may also contact ODA by phone at (940) 565-4323.

Please present your written accommodation request to the instructor within the first two weeks of the semester. Students registered with the ODA may present the Special Accommodation Request from that office in lieu of a written statement.

Cheating and Plagiarism

Definitions

Penalties
Normally, the minimum penalty for cheating or plagiarism is a grade of “F” in the course. In the case of graduate department exams, the minimum penalty shall be failure of all fields of the exam. Determination of cheating or plagiarism shall be made by the instructor in the course, or by the department faculty in the case of departmental exams.

Cases of cheating or plagiarism on graduate departmental exams, problem papers, theses, or dissertations shall automatically be referred to the departmental Curriculum and Degree Program[s] Committee. Cases of cheating or plagiarism in ordinary course work may, at the discretion of the instructor, be referred to the Curriculum and Degree Program[s] Committee in the case of either graduate or undergraduate students. This committee, acting as an agent of the Department, shall impose further penalties, or recommend further penalties to the Dean of Students, if they determine that the case warrants it. In all cases, the Dean of Students shall be informed in writing of the case.

Appeals
Students may appeal any decision under this policy by following the procedures laid down in the UNT Code of Student Conduct and Discipline.

EADP POLICIES

PLAGIARISM:

Professors in the EADP Program will not tolerate any form of academic dishonesty among students in the major. According to the 2005-06 UNT Undergraduate Catalogue (p. 107):

“The term ‘plagiarism’ includes, but is not limited to:

a. the knowing or negligent use by paraphrase or direct quotation of the published or unpublished work of another person without full and clear acknowledgement; and
b. the knowing or negligent unacknowledged use of material prepared by another person or agency engaged in the selling of term papers or other academic materials.”

Examples of plagiarism include:

- purchasing term papers from Internet sources and turning them in to meet assignment requirements
- downloading or copying material from the Internet and presenting it as your own work
- using sentences, quotes, statistics or other information from books or journals without citing the source(s) in papers
- incorporating novel ideas, concepts or phrases into papers without giving credit to the original author
- having someone else write a paper for you

Failure to comply with this policy on plagiarism may result in a failing grade on the assignment or paper, a failing grade in the class, dismissal from the program, and expulsion from the university.

When in doubt about what constitutes plagiarism, contact your professor or provide citations!
