Course Goals

There are three broad goals for this course: to instill an appreciation for different genres of literature and to develop skills in literary analysis; to give students the opportunity to think broadly, outside their cultural and aesthetic comfort zones; and to give students a framework for encountering literary traditions movements, themes, genres, and historical/cultural contests associated with diverse texts and authors.

Grades

Your grade has six components

1. Participation 15%
This includes Attendance, In-Class Engagement, and In-Class Activities
2. Office Hours Attendance: 5%
3. Quizzes 15%
4. Timeline Assignment 15%
5. Midterm Exam 20%
6. Comprehensive Final Exam 20%
7. Two Papers 10% each

You must complete all assignments to receive a passing grade in the course. If you choose to skip any one of the papers or exams, or receive a failing grade in participation, you will receive an F in the course.
