ASSESSMENT

Evaluation Procedure	Weight
Active Participation	20%
MindTap	25%
Activities and Quizzes	15%
Chapter Exams (5)	30%
Final Conversation	10%

ACTIVE PARTICIPATION

The participation portion of your grade will be derived from the level and quality of your interaction with other students and your instructor in the course. As active participation you will be required to complete written and oral discussions in Canvas on specific topics related to the chapter of study.

After you post each discussion, you will listen or read the answers of two students and leave each a substantial comment (video or written as required; comments must be distinct from one another). Full information and grading rubric are provided in Canvas.

Writing discussions and comments: Must be the student’s work and should reflect their writing skills as demonstrated in exams. Using translators or outside help for discussions will result in a grade of 0 without the opportunity to redo the work.

Video discussions and comments: Written or audio comments will not be accepted for video discussions. Using translators or outside help for discussions or reading while making the video will result in a grade of 0 without the opportunity to redo the work.

Early discussion submission extra credit points: Students who 1) submit their first post by Wed., 11:59 pm of the due week; 2) submit their 2 comments by Fri., 11:59 pm of the due week, and 3) comply with all the rules described below will earn 2 points extra credit added to their discussion score. The purpose of this incentive is to motivate early submission, and thereby provide a wider variety of posts for reply commenting by classmates.

Rules to receive the 2 extra credit points:

- Both comments must be substantial, distinct from one another, avoid basic vocabulary, and include complex sentences. Comments that are superficial and do not meet with all the requirements stated in the grading rubric will not receive the 2 extra points.
- Students who submit their first post early but do not submit their 2 reply comments will not be eligible for the 2 bonus points.

MINDTAP

You will complete assignments using an online platform called MindTap, which is accessed through Canvas (open the folder labeled “Click Here for Access to MindTap” in the module labeled “MindTap”). This portion of the course consists of activities and projects offering practice of all vocabulary, grammar, and cultural topics introduced. Weekly MindTap assignments are due every Friday by 11:59 pm, and late submissions will not be accepted except in the case of excused absence. In case of technical difficulties, students should contact Cengage Technical Support at <https://cengage.force.com/s/contact-us> or 1-800-354-9706.

For step-by-step help getting registered for MindTap, go to cengage.com/start-strong for a training video and instructions. When prompted, select that you are using MindTap in Canvas.

ACTIVITIES AND QUIZZES

This portion of the course consists of: (1) Activities and tasks which may include but are not limited to writing tasks, cultural activities, and participation in a conversation club. (2) Announced/unannounced quizzes over any material covered. Your instructor will provide specific details about requirements and expectations for activities and quizzes.

EXAMS

There will be five exams throughout the semester (last exam is taken as the final exam). For chapter exam due dates consult the course calendar. Before taking exams, read the folder labeled “Rules and Regulations for Exams” in the “Introduction” module in Canvas. Failure to comply with all the rules will result in a grade of 0 on your exam. Makeups for exams will not be allowed except in the case of excused absence.

Important note about chapter exams and quizzes:

All online exams and quizzes are closed book, closed notes, closed resources. To take each exam or quiz, you will need your UNT Student ID. If you do not have it, notify your instructor immediately. Exams and quizzes must be taken alone and no communication with other individuals is allowed. Use of electronic translators is completely prohibited. Failure to do a 360-degree environment check (including both sides of your desk) will result in a grade of 0.

A note on computers:

- Take your exam or quiz as early as possible so that in the event of a technical issue with your computer you can solve it before the deadline.
- Chromebook and tablets are not compatible for taking exams and quizzes using LockDown Browser.
- Make sure your laptop computer is fully charged before beginning the exam or quiz. Makeups for exams or quizzes will not be allowed due to computer problems.

FINAL CONVERSATION

At end of the course you will have a conversation in Spanish with a classmate or your instructor via Zoom (your instructor will specify which). The conversation will cover the communicative functions practiced in the course and will be based on one of 4 topics related to the themes of the first four exams completed during the course. The topic is chosen randomly, and the conversation will be 2-3 minutes per student. This assignment will be graded individually on content and detail provided, incorporation of grammatical structures, vocabulary studied throughout the course, and preparation and use of communication strategies. Students will sign up in advance in Canvas Calendar on the day and time from those offered that best fit their schedule. It is the student's responsibility to make the necessary arrangements to have the conversation according to the schedule. If there is a conflict with the time slots available, contact your instructor immediately to reschedule. Grading rubric, topics to study, and guidelines for this assignment are available in the module labeled "Final Conversation" in Canvas.

OPEN FORUM

The purpose of this Canvas open forum is to foster communication among all course participants. Here you can ask thoughtful questions to your instructor and students can also give answers. Questions should be asked only after studying the grammatical concepts assigned.

COURSE POLICIESCOVID-19 impact on course participation

While course participation and attendance are expected as outlined in the syllabus, it is important for all of us to be mindful of the health and safety of everyone in our community, especially given concerns about COVID-19. Please contact your instructor if you are unable to complete coursework or attend class because you are ill, or due to a related issue regarding COVID-19. It is important that you communicate with your instructor prior to missing a due date in order that he/she may make a decision about accommodating your request

If you are experiencing cough, shortness of breath or difficulty breathing, fever, or any of the other possible symptoms of COVID-19 (<https://www.cdc.gov/coronavirus/2019-ncov/symptoms-testing/symptoms.html>) please seek medical attention from the Student Health and Wellness Center (940-565-2333 or askSHWC@unt.edu) or your health care provider. While regular participation is an important part of succeeding in this class, your own health, and those of others in the community, is more important.

Disability Accommodation Statement:

The University of North Texas makes reasonable academic accommodation for students with disabilities. Students seeking reasonable accommodation must first register with the Office of Disability Accommodation (ODA) to verify their eligibility. If a disability is verified, the ODA will provide you with a reasonable accommodation letter to be delivered to faculty to begin a private discussion regarding your specific needs in a course. You may request reasonable accommodations at any time, however, ODA notices of reasonable accommodation should be provided as early as possible in the semester to avoid any delay in implementation. Note that students must obtain a new letter of reasonable accommodation for every semester and must meet with each faculty member prior to implementation in each class. Students are strongly encouraged to deliver letters of reasonable accommodation during faculty office hours or by appointment. Faculty members have the authority to ask students to discuss such letters during their designated office hours to protect the privacy of the student. For additional information see the Office of Disability Accommodation website at <http://www.unt.edu/oda>. You may also contact them by phone at 940.565.4323.

Student behavior in the classroom:

Student behavior that interferes with an instructor's ability to conduct a class or other students' opportunity to learn is unacceptable and disruptive and will not be tolerated in any instructional forum at UNT. Students engaging in unacceptable behavior will be directed to leave the classroom and the instructor may refer the student to the Dean of Students to consider whether the student's conduct violated the Code of Student Conduct. The University's expectations for student conduct apply to all instructional forums, including University and electronic classrooms, labs, discussion groups, field trips, etc. The Code of Student Conduct can be found at www.unt.edu/csrr.

Attendance:

No makeup work will be allowed for unexcused absences. This applies to all instructional forums, including face-to-face and electronic classrooms. Only those individuals whose absences are authorized by the instructor will be eligible to make up any assessment or assignment missed. Excused absences include the following: illness with a written excuse from a medical professional, death in the family, religious holidays, military training, and university-sponsored activities. Documentation must be provided (physician's statement, obituary, etc.) the first day upon returning to class for the absence to be excused. Absences in observance of religious holidays are authorized only if students have notified the instructor in writing within the first three weeks of the semester. For absences due to scheduled (not emergency) military training/duty, students must present their documentation to the instructor within the first three weeks of the semester. For absences due to university-sponsored activities, students must obtain authorized absence cards from the Dean of Students and present them to the instructor prior to absence.

Student academic integrity:

The UNT Department of Spanish adheres to the University's policy on Student Academic Integrity. For all pertinent assignments and assessments, the work must be the student's work only (unless otherwise indicated by the course instructor) and should reflect the student's level of proficiency. Students are prohibited from asking another person (i.e., a friend, tutor, or relative) to help them develop or compose a response (oral or written) in preparation for, or while completing, an assignment or assessment that will be graded and applied to the student's final grade in the course. This includes, but is not limited to, receiving outside assistance with drafting, revising, editing, or developing the content and structure of a response to an assignment or assessment question without consent from the course instructor. Also, the use of translation technology (any digital translation tool or app) is prohibited for all assignments and assessments and will be considered academic misconduct. Information "cut and pasted" or otherwise copied from other sources and used as answers in assignments and assessments will be considered plagiarism. If a student has any doubts whatsoever as to what constitutes any form of scholastic dishonesty, they should consult with the course instructor before submitting their work. Cheating, plagiarism, and other examples of academic misconduct defined by University Policy will result in a zero on the assignment or assessment in question, and may be reported to the Dean of Students.
