Fall 2010
Principles of Language Study
Instructor: Katie Crowder
Grader/TA: Shannon Jauregui
Meeting Times: Thursday 12:30-1:50 and online
Meeting Place: online and Language bldg 310

COURSE DESCRIPTION:
This is an introductory linguistics course that focuses on the structure of language: phonetics, phonology, morphology, syntax; language acquisition, language variation and language change. You will also learn how to apply what you learn about language structure to analyze language data from English and other languages of the world.

COURSE OBJECTIVES:
The overall objective of this course is to create awareness and build a knowledge base about language, in all its complexities, in order to apply it in the field of education, technical communication, foreign language study, and future linguistics study. This knowledge and awareness will enable us to be catalysts for positive change.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS:
Final grades will be determined according to the following distribution:
Quizzes: 35%
Tests: 35%
Discussion postings: 10%
Participation/Attendance for class meetings: 10%
Final Exam: 10%
VERY IMPORTANT: Check the calendar and announcements every time you log in for information about:

- Unit release dates
- Quiz and test dates
- Due dates for discussion postings

Note: There is no required textbook for this class

I. The Linguistics and Technical Communications Department cooperates with the Office of Disability Accommodation to make reasonable accommodations for qualified students with disabilities. If you have a disability, which requires accommodation under the terms of the Americans with Disabilities Act or Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act, please provide your request by email within the first week.

“The University of North Texas is on record as being committed to both the spirit and letter of federal equal opportunity legislation; reference Public Law 92-112 – The Rehabilitation Act of 1973 as amended. With the passage of new federal legislation entitled Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), pursuant to section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act, there is renewed focus on providing this population with the same opportunities enjoyed by all citizens.”

II. You must inform either the professor or the teaching assistant in advance of any circumstance that will cause you to miss a scheduled quiz date and/or time. There will be no make-up quizzes except under extreme circumstances.

III. Each student is expected to do his or her own work. This is important when working on group projects, when citing research for assignments, when posting to discussions, or when answering test questions. Plagiarism and cheating - academic dishonesty - are serious offenses and will not be tolerated in this class. Students who plagiarize or cheat will be referred to the office of the provost and will receive a failing grade in the class. For more information on the university's policy on academic dishonesty please consult the UNT Code of Student Conduct and Discipline at http://www.unt.edu/catalogs/2004-05/upolicies.html.

Acceptable Student Behavior:

Student behavior that interferes with an instructor’s ability to conduct a class or other students' opportunity to learn is unacceptable and disruptive and will not be tolerated in any instructional forum at UNT. Students engaging in unacceptable behavior will be directed to leave the classroom and the instructor may refer the student to the Center for Student Rights and Responsibilities to consider whether the student's conduct violated the Code of Student Conduct. The university's expectations for student conduct apply to all instructional forums, including university and electronic classroom, labs, discussion groups, field trips, etc. The Code of Student Conduct can be found at www.unt.edu/csrr
