Name: Stella Reed

Office Location: LANG 220

Office hours: MW 11:10 am– 12:10 pm by appointment in my office or Canvas Conference call

e-mail: Stella.Reed@unt.edu

Course Description

Spanish 2040 is a language course designed to bring students to an intermediate level of proficiency in the Spanish language. The course focuses on Spanish grammar and emphasizes in particular listening, speaking, reading and writing skills. Students will participate in listening comprehension activities, oral projects, in depth cultural study, readings, audio and video resources, as well as Web based language interaction. The class will be conducted in Spanish and students are expected to use only Spanish in all assignments.

Pre-requisites

This course is designed for students who have passed Spanish 1010, 1020, 1030 at UNT or the equivalent. For more information, please contact the Department of Spanish in LANG 101, (940) 565-2404.

Course Objectives

By the end of this course students will be able to:

- Analyze personal relations, cultural values, traditions, and celebrations
- Discuss food and eating habits
- Analyze historical figures, politics, and contemporary society
- Recall and describe past events
- Express feelings, opinions, preferences, and desires
- Recommend or tell others to do something
- Convey doubt, hope, and uncertainty
- Explain what you and others have done

REQUIRED MATERIALS:

There are 2 obligatory materials required for this course: The textbook and the Access Code Card for MindTap. Be careful: used textbooks do not include the Access Code Card. It is cheaper to buy the bundle (textbook and MindTap Code) (Unlimited), than buying a used textbook and a separate Access Code. This textbook and Access Code are good for this course and the next level (SPAN 2050).

Important: This is a new textbook edition and homework platform (MindTap). The textbook from Spring 2019 semester or before, is not useful anymore as some of the content has changed and it does not have access to MindTap.

Textbook (digital or paper):

Blitt/Casas/Copple - Bundle: Exploraciones Curso Intermedio, 2nd edition (4 terms) with Access Code Card, ISBN 9780357100806 (use this number only if you buy the textbook and MindTap access code at UNT bookstore). To buy online, use: ISBN-10: 1-337-61248-0 / ISBN-13: 978-1-337-61248-7.

You can also buy your bundle at Cengage website:

<https://www.cengage.com/c/mindtap-for-exploraciones-curso-intermedio-2e-blitt/?filterBy=Student>

After buying your book, you will need to register in MindTap for your course. Instructions on how to register is available in Canvas in Module “MindTap Homework Digital Platform”.

Other materials required:

- Spanish/English Dictionary
- A computer webcam, microphone, and speakers (or a headset with microphone) will also be required to complete the oral exercises.
- Systems: UNT Canvas platform, MindTap (the website where you will have access to homework assignments, grammar video tutorials, interactive eBook, voiceboards, study flashcards and practice tests.
- It is highly recommended to download the MindTap Mobil app in your computer or phone to have access to flashcards, practice pronunciation, progress tracker without an Internet connection.

Technical Support:

If you need help with technology, please do not contact your professor, contact:

UIT Student Helpdesk
Sage Hall 130
940-565-2324
helpdesk@unt.edu

Technical Skill Requirements

In order to be successful in this course, students will need the following technical skills: downloading and uploading files, sending and receiving emails, using Canvas, using MindTap, video and voice recording, using a webcam, using LockDown Browser system (instructions and link to download the one-time application is available in Canvas in “Where to get help”).

- IMPORTANT: Canvas and MindTap work better using Chrome or Firefox Browsers.
- Be sure to update Adobe Flash Player and Java in your computer.

Netiquette

Rules for appropriate online interaction (from the book Netiquette by Virginia Shea):

1. Remember the human. Respect your classmates; they are real people.
2. Adhere to the same standards of behavior online that you follow in real life.
3. Know where you are in cyberspace. Read carefully the assignments, give your comments accordingly to the topic and give substantial and appropriate feedback to your classmates as directed by your professor in each assignment.
4. Respect another people's time and bandwidth. Look for the information in the course or Syllabus before emailing your professor.
5. Get the correct textbook edition, so you work on the correct pages assigned. If you have any questions, post them in the Open Forum (in Canvas "Forums" Module), chances are others may have the same question.

For more rules: <http://www.albion.com/netiquette/corerules.html>.

Course Requirements and Expectations

As the instructor in this course, I am responsible for

- providing course materials that will assist and enhance your achievement of the stated course goals, guidance
- providing timely and helpful feedback within the stated guidelines
- assisting in maintaining a positive learning environment for everyone
- replying emails as soon as possible within my working schedule hours

As a student in this course, you are responsible for

- reading all the information in the "Instructional Modules" and this Syllabus before Friday of the first week of class
- get familiar with the course Calendar assignments
- turn in all the assignments of the course in a timely manner.
- working to remain attentive and engaged in the course and interact with your fellow students.
- assisting in maintaining a positive learning environment for everyone.
- know well the rules for taking all exams and quizzes as stated in Canvas in folder "Rules and Regulations for Exams and Quizzes" and follow the rules.

Open Forum: To foster communication among all course participants, there is an open forum in Canvas. Here you can ask thoughtful questions to your professor. Questions should be asked only after studying the grammatical concepts assigned. For details, see the discussion forum. All students are encouraged to participate on answering the questions.

Course Content

All the content of the course will be stored in in the main menu in Canvas. Study assignments are organized in weekly modules. Modules will cover chapters 1-4 in the textbook and includes specific information, guidelines and grading rubrics for each assignment.

Readings and Assignments:

Weekly readings, pages to study and assignments are stored in the Course Assignments Calendar (integrated at the end of this Syllabus). It is your responsibility to continually consult the class schedule and meet the due dates for all assignments. Work on assignments at your own pace but keep in mind that all weekly assignments have to be turned in before Friday 5:00 pm. Late work will not be accepted.

EVALUATION PROCEDURE	Final grade percentage
Active Participation Through:  Weekly Discussions and comments: total 14 (7 written and 7 video)  Discussion 15 (escrita) is optional to earn extra credit	20%
MindTap Online Homework (Chapters 1-4)	35%
Weekly Quizzes: total 10  Quiz 11 (optional to earn extra points)	15%
Chapter Exams: total 4 (exam 4 is your final exam)	20%
Final Conversation	10%
TOTAL	100 %

Grading Scale: A = 90-100%, B = 80-89%, C = 70-79%, D = 60-69%, F = Below 60%

In order to be successful in the next level of Spanish, it is highly recommended that students pass this course with a final grade of C and above. A grade of C is obligatory for all Spanish majors and minors.

ACTIVE PARTICIPATION

The participation portion of your grade will be derived from the level and quality of your interaction with other students and your professor in the course. As active participation, and to practice your writing and listening skills in Spanish, you will be required to complete written and oral (video) weekly discussions in Canvas on specific topics related to the chapter of study.

After you post your discussion, you will listen or read the answers of two students and you will give each of them a substantial comment (video or written). Full information and grading rubric are provided in Canvas. Late work is not accepted.

Writing discussions and comments: must be the student's work and should reflect their writing skills as demonstrated in exams and quizzes. Using translators or outside help for discussions will result in a grade of 0 without the opportunity to redo the work. In order for your written discussions to be accepted, you must write the essay written portion of each exam. The essay in your exam should be very close in grammar, vocabulary, sentence construction, and language usage of your writing in your discussion (when grading, your instructor will compare the paragraph you wrote on the exam with your written discussion).

Video discussions and comments: audio comments will not be accepted for video discussions. Reading while making the video will result in a grade of 0 without the opportunity to redo the work. For more information and rules, read “Course Policies” section of this syllabus.

Early Discussions Submission Extra Points:

Students who 1) submit their first post by Wednesday at 11:59 pm; 2) submit their 2 comments by Friday at 5:00 pm, and 3) comply with all the rules described below, will earn +2 points extra credit added to their discussion score for that week. The purpose of this incentive is to motivate early submission, and thereby provide a wider variety of posts for reply commenting by classmates.

Rules to receive the 2 extra points:

- a). Both comments must be substantial, avoid basic vocabulary, and include complex sentences. Comments that are superficial and do not meet with all the requirements stated in the grading rubric, will not receive the 2 extra points.
- b). Students who submit their first post early, but do NOT submit their 2 reply comments will not be eligible for the 2 bonus points because they did not fully complete the assignment.

Discussion to earn extra points:

Discussion on week 15 (last week of class) is optional to earn extra points. To receive the extra points, your discussion needs to be complete (post and 2 comments), your post and two comments must be meaningful and comply with all the requirements in the grading rubric. The 2 extra points for submitting by Wednesday do not apply to this assignment.

ASSIGNMENTS THAT CAN REPLACE VIDEO DISCUSSIONS

Up to 4 video discussions and comments can be replaced by attending “Tertulia”, “Hispanic Heritage Month Activities” or the “Spanish Club at UNT” (you must be a member to attend) meetings in campus. Written Discussions cannot be replaced. Credits will be applied only on the week the student attended the activity. To receive full credit, the student must sign in at the event and actively participate. These activities are a great opportunity to practice your Spanish speaking skills and interact with other students who are taking Spanish classes. The Spanish Club at UNT offers the opportunity to expand your knowledge on the Hispanic culture through hands on activities and do some volunteer work in the community. The schedule for activities for Tertulias and the Spanish Club will be posted by your instructor in Canvas as soon as they are available. The schedule is also posted in several places around the LANG building.

MindTap ONLINE HOMEWORK

Using MindTap (textbook website), you will be assigned a variety of online reading, cultural, Grammar videos and grammar assignments. Your MindTap calendar will show the assignments. It is highly recommended to watch the grammar videos and do the homework before taking quizzes and exams. Homework will be due every Friday 5:00 pm. Late work is not accepted.

General information on the accessibility of Cengage products for students with disabilities, can be found in this website: <https://www.cengage.com/accessibility/>.

LOCKDOWN BROWSER SYSTEM

All quizzes and exams will be using LockDown Browser System. Instructions and the link to download the application in your computer is in “Where to get help” Module. To take quizzes and exams you will need a webcam in your computer. If your computer does not have a webcam, you can take the exam in the Language Lab (in this case, you don’t need to download the application to your computer).

No extra time will be allowed for not planning well your time or for not downloading the LockDown Browser Application in advance.

QUIZZES

Throughout the semester there will be weekly quizzes assigned in Canvas (except for the week of exams). Quiz 1 will cover the information on this Syllabus and the Informational Modules in Canvas (not the Learning Modules). You will have two attempts for this quiz. It is highly recommended to read all the folders in the Informational Modules and the Syllabus before taking quiz 1. Quizzes 2-11 will cover vocabulary, listening, and specific grammar concepts studied during the week of the quiz.

Quiz 11 is optional to receive extra credit.

All weekly quizzes will be taken using LockDown Browser; are timed, and you will be allowed to take each only once. Quizzes are due every Friday 5:00 pm. Take your quiz early in the week; in the event of computer problems, you will need time to solve them and still be able to take the quiz before it closes. Make up for quizzes and exams will not be allowed due to computer problems.

If you experience technical problems, contact the UNT Help Desk, do not contact your professor.

EXAMS

To evaluate your listening, reading, writing, vocabulary and grammatical skills, there will be 4 chapter exams (chapters 1-4) throughout the semester. Exam 4 will be your final exam and it will be taken at the end of the course on the date for final examination scheduled by UNT.

Exams can be taken anywhere or in the Language Lab (Lang building first floor). Each exam will be available ONLY on the days and time assigned. Exams will be timed, and you will be logged out of the exam once the time allowed expires. If you take the exam in the Language lab, plan your time well and arrive at least two hours before the lab closes (check their website for their schedule). You will need to bring your UNT student ID and sign in and out at the front desk. Without their student ID students will not be able to take the exam.

All exams (taken at home or the Language Lab) will require you to show your UNT student ID. Driver's Licenses are not accepted as a form of ID. If you are a student from another university taking this course at UNT, you can use your university student ID, however, you need to contact your professor on the first week of class and let her/him know.

IMPORTANT NOTE ABOUT QUIZZES AND EXAMS:

It is the student's responsibility to read in full and follow all the rules and regulations before taking exams and quizzes. Rules are available in Canvas in folder "Rules and Regulations for Exams and Quizzes".

Study guides and complete information with instructions on how to take the exams are available in Canvas. Make-ups for exams will NOT be accepted. For exams due dates consult the course assignments calendar.

A Note on Computers:

- Take your exam as early as possible. In the event of a technical issue with your computer, you are able to solve it and take the exam before the deadline.
- Make sure your laptop computer is fully charged before beginning the exam. Make up for exams will not be allowed due to computer problems.

FINAL CONVERSATION

At end of the semester you will have a conversation in Spanish with a classmate or your professor using the “Conference” feature of Canvas or at your professor’s office. The conversation will cover the communicative functions practiced in class and will be based in 4 topics related to the theme of the 4 chapters covered during the course. The conversation will be for 4 minutes per group of two students or 6 minutes per group of three. This assignment will be graded individually on content and detail provided, incorporation of grammatical structures, and vocabulary studied throughout the course, preparation and use of communication strategies. Students will sign up in advance (in Canvas Calendar) on the day and time provided that best fit their schedule. Grading rubric, topics to study, and guidelines on how to do well on this assignment are available in “Conversación Final” folder in Canvas.

Final Conversations will not be conducted on weekends. It is the student’s responsibility to make the necessary arrangements to have the conversation on the days schedule. Not showing up for this assignment will result in a grade of 0. If there is a conflict with the time slots available, contact your instructor immediately to reschedule.

ODA students: contact your professor during the first week of class if you need reasonable accommodations for this assignment.

COURSE POLICIES

On outside help/academic integrity

The UNT Department of Spanish adheres to the University’s policy on Student Academic Integrity. For all pertinent assignments and assessments, the work must be the student’s work only (unless otherwise indicated by the course instructor) and should reflect the student’s level of proficiency (as it shows in the written portion of exams). Students are prohibited from asking another person (i.e. a friend, tutor, or relative) to help them develop or compose a response (oral or written) in preparation for, or while completing, an assignment or assessment that will be graded and applied to the student’s final grade in the course. This includes, but is not limited to, receiving outside assistance with drafting, revising, editing, or developing the content and structure of a response to an assignment or assessment question without consent from the course instructor. Also, the use of translation technology (any digital translation tool or app) is prohibited for all assignments and assessments and will be considered academic misconduct. Information “cut and pasted” or otherwise copied from other sources and used as answers in assignments and assessments will be considered plagiarism. If a student has any doubts whatsoever as to what constitutes any form of scholastic dishonesty, they should consult with the course instructor before submitting their work. Cheating, plagiarism, and other examples of academic misconduct defined by University Policy will result in a zero on the assignment or assessment in question, and may be reported to the Dean of Students.

For an explanation of the Code, including information on definitions, reporting and investigations, and contesting an admonition or violation report, see <https://deanofstudents.unt.edu/academic-integrity>

On use of e-mail

Instructors of first- and second-year Spanish (1010 through 2050) require students to use official UNT Eagle Connect for all communication. This means that your instructor will only respond to e-mail sent by their students from a UNT Eagle Connect address. Likewise, your instructor will only send e-mail to your UNT Eagle Connect address. Information about Eagle Connect can be found at the following Web address: <http://eagleconnect.unt.edu/>.

On student behavior during the course

Student behavior that interferes with an instructor's ability to conduct a class or other students' opportunity to learn is unacceptable and disruptive and will not be tolerated in any instructional forum at UNT. Students engaging in unacceptable behavior will be directed to leave the course and the instructor may refer the student to the Center for Student Rights and Responsibilities to consider whether the student's conduct violated the Code of Student Conduct. The university's expectations for student conduct apply to all instructional forums, including university and electronic classroom, labs, discussion groups, field trips, etc. The Code of Student Conduct can be found at www.unt.edu/csrr.

A note on protocol: If you have a problem with anything related to your course (textbook, instructor, testing, etc.), it is your responsibility to discuss the problem first with your instructor. Most problems or misunderstandings can be dealt with effectively and efficiently if the people most directly involved can discuss the problem and communicate honestly with each other.

Disability Accommodation Policy (ODA)

The University of North Texas makes reasonable academic accommodation for students with disabilities. Students seeking reasonable accommodation must first register with the Office of Disability Accommodation (ODA) to verify their eligibility. If a disability is verified, the ODA will provide you with a reasonable accommodation letter to be delivered to faculty to begin a private discussion regarding your specific needs in a course. You may request reasonable accommodations at any time, however, ODA notices of reasonable accommodation should be provided as early as possible in the semester to avoid any delay in implementation. Note that students must obtain a new letter of reasonable accommodation for every semester and must meet with each faculty member prior to implementation in each class. Students are strongly encouraged to deliver letters of reasonable accommodation during faculty office hours or by appointment. Faculty members have the authority to ask students to discuss such letters during their designated office hours to protect the privacy of the student. For additional information see the Office of Disability Accommodation website at <http://www.unt.edu/oda>. You may also contact them by phone at 940.565.4323.

Important Notice for F-1 Students taking Distance Education Courses

Federal Regulation

To read detailed Immigration and Customs Enforcement regulations for F-1 students taking online courses, please go to the Electronic Code of Federal Regulations website at <http://ecfr.gpoaccess.gov>. The specific portion concerning distance education courses is located at "Title 8 CFR 214.2 Paragraph (f)(6)(i)(G)" and can be found buried within this document: <http://frwebgate.access.gpo.gov/cgi-bin/get-cfr.cgi?TITLE=8&PART=214&SECTION=2&TYPE=TEXT>

The paragraph reads:

(G) For F-1 students enrolled in classes for credit or classroom hours, no more than the equivalent of one class or three credits per session, term, semester, trimester, or quarter may be counted toward the full course of study requirement if the class is taken on-line or through distance education and does not require the student's physical attendance for classes, examination or other purposes integral to completion of the class. An on-line or distance education course is a course that is offered principally through the use of television, audio, or computer transmission including open broadcast, closed circuit, cable, microwave, or satellite, audio conferencing, or computer conferencing. If the F-1 student's course of study is in a language study program, no on-line or distance education classes may be considered to count toward a student's full course of study requirement.

University of North Texas Compliance

To comply with immigration regulations, an F-1 visa holder within the United States may need to engage in an on-campus experiential component for this course. This component (which must be approved in advance by the instructor) can include activities such as taking an on-campus exam, participating in an on-campus lecture or lab activity, or other on-campus experience integral to the completion of this course.

If such an on-campus activity is required, it is the student's responsibility to do the following:

- (1) Submit a written request to the instructor for an on-campus experiential component within one week of the start of the course.
- (2) Ensure that the activity on campus takes place and the instructor documents it in writing with a notice sent to the International Student and Scholar Services Office. ISSS has a form available that you may use for this purpose.

Because the decision may have serious immigration consequences, if an F-1 student is unsure about his or her need to participate in an on-campus experiential component for this course, s/he should contact the UNT International Student and Scholar Services Office (telephone 940-565-2195 or email internationaladvising@unt.edu) to get clarification before the one-week deadline.
