Acting: Realism Fall 2021

Monday/Wednesday

Section 001- 9:00pm-11:20am

Section 003- 11:30am-1:50pm

RTFP 127

Instructor: Sarah Rutan

Office Hours: T/TH 12pm-1pm

E-mail: Sarah.Rutan@unt.edu

Prerequisites:

Students majoring or minoring in Theatre who have received a grade of “C” in any of the prerequisite courses, even if they are transferring that course in, will be required to audition for consideration for enrollment in THEA 3050.

Any student who receives a grade BELOW a “C” will be allowed to repeat the course one more time. Should the student repeat the course and receive a grade BELOW a “C” again, the student will no longer be able to continue in the Acting Concentration.

In addition, students transferring to UNT, majoring or minoring in Theatre, who have completed ALL THREE prerequisite courses (THEA 1050, THEA 2051, and THEA 2351) elsewhere will be required to audition for consideration for enrollment in THEA 3050.

Description:

Acting: Realism and the methods used are the primary focus of this class, which includes developing an understanding and familiarity with Stanislavski, Strasberg, Hagen, Adler, Meisner, Viewpoints and others. As with Acting Fundamentals, this class includes rehearsal techniques for the actor, cultivating a sense of curiosity, exploring all aspects of imagination, script breakdown (given circumstances) and building techniques of character and scene building. Acting is behaving truthfully under imaginary circumstances.

Objective:

At the completion of this course, the student will be able to:

- *Apply the advanced principles of acting through the study of different Realism Theater Teachers
- *Apply the processes of beat breakdown and scene work
- *Enhance their observation, curiosity and self-reflection/analysis of their acting instrument

Attendance:

Students are allowed THREE absences only in this Course. If you accrue a FOURTH absence, the highest grade you will be able to receive in this course is a D.

Three tardies will equal ONE ABSENCE.

Please be present, on time and ready to work. This is the professional standard that we will be striving to attain this semester.

Disability Accommodations:

The University of North Texas makes reasonable academic accommodation for students with disabilities. Students seeking reasonable accommodation must first register with the Office of Disability Accommodation (ODA) to verify their eligibility. If a disability is verified, the ODA will provide you with a reasonable accommodation letter to be delivered to faculty to begin a private discussion regarding your specific needs in a course. You may request reasonable accommodation anytime, however, ODA notices of reasonable accommodation should be provided as early as possible in the semester to avoid any delay in implementation. Note that students must obtain a new letter of reasonable accommodation for every semester and must meet with each faculty member prior to implementation in each class. Students are strongly encouraged to deliver letters of reasonable accommodation during faculty hours or by appointment. Faculty members have the authority to ask students to discuss such letters during their designated office hours to protect the privacy of the student. For additional information see the Office of Disability Accommodation website at <http://www.unt.edu/oda>. You may also contact them by phone at 940.565.4323 or <https://studentaffairs.unt.edu/office-disability-access>

Monologue /Scene Work/Journals:

Your work in class on monologues and scenes will be based on:

- level of preparation (appropriate set, costume, props...work outside of class)
- level of memorization
- clarity of given circumstances
- ability to engage in and explore techniques discussed in class

All journal entries must be 3 paragraphs in length.

1) My experience in the exercise

2) What I learned/discovered

3) How I can use this in the work in the future

Lastly, rate the exercise from 1-10 (10 being most useful/helpful)
