Office	Bain Hall 313
Office Hours	Tuesday 2:15-4:15pm
Coordinator	Dr. Benjamin Graf – Benjamin.Graf@unt.edu – MU 215

Course Objectives

This course begins to develop both the “hearing eye” and the “seeing ear.” Singing activities will include prepared melodies, sight singing, and ensemble singing. Dictation exercises will focus on melody, rhythm, and harmony. Keyboard assignments reinforce the basic building blocks of tonal theory: intervals, chords, and simple diatonic progressions. By the end of the course, students will be able to sing and identify the following:

1. Diatonic melodies in major and minor using bass and treble clef (using movable do and letter names)
2. Intervals (up through an octave)
3. Triads (major, minor, diminished), and the dominant seventh chord
4. Cadences
5. Harmonic vocabulary commensurate with MUTH1400 (the phrase model and its basic expansions)
6. Simple and compound meter (combined with conducting patterns in 2, 3, and 4)

Prerequisites: Official status as a music major. Co-requisite: MUTH 1400.

Required Materials

- Music for Sight Singing, 10th edition by Nancy Rogers and Robert W. Ottman
- Manuscript paper and pencils with erasers

Grading Rubric*

In-class	40%
(HW, projects, sight singing)
Dictation Tests	30%
Hearing	30%

Letter Grades

A	90-100%
B	80-89%
C	70-79%
D	60-69%

*You must earn a minimum average of 60% in both the Dictations Tests category and the Individual Hearings category in order to receive a grade higher than F for the course.

May include both prepared materials and sight-reading.

Course Schedule (subject to change)

Unit	Topics	Dictation Test	Individual Hearing
1	Conducting patterns, treble and bass clefs, major, meter ID, interval ID, chord ID	Wed., Sept. 16	The Week of Sept. 14
2	Tonic and dominant, minor, scale ID, compound meter	Wed., Oct. 21	The Week of Oct. 19
3	Predominants, more diatonic skips, subdivision	Wed., Dec. 2	Final Exam Week

*You should not schedule your end-of-semester jury against a regularly scheduled class, including the final exam.

Assignments

All homework, quizzes, and exams must be completed neatly in pencil. Assignments are due 11:59PM every Sunday. If you do not understand how to complete an assignment, please come see me before the assignment is due. Late work will be accepted up to two days (if assignment is due on Sunday, then Tuesday is the latest it will be accepted) with a late penalty of 15%. After Tuesday, no late work will be accepted. Exceptions will only be made for unplanned excused absences (such as medical emergencies) at the discretion of the instructor.

Attendance

Because gaining fluency in music takes consistent practice, I expect you to attend every class. If you do miss a class for any reason, you are still responsible to know the material covered that day and for submitting all assignments on time.

Unexcused absences are monitored according to the following schedule:

- 0-3 unexcused absences: No questions asked.
- 4-5 unexcused absences: Final grade lowered by 10% (Example: 92% → 82%)
- 6 and more unexcused absences: Withdrawn (WF) automatically

Excused absences include official University or College of Music activities, medical emergencies, religious observances, and documented illnesses. Excused absences do not count against your attendance or lower your grade. E-mail me before the class period for your absence. If you expect to be absent for several days or weeks, please contact the Dean of Students Office.

If you have a chronic medical condition that might affect your class attendance or performance, please see the Office of Disability Accommodations.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

Students caught cheating or plagiarizing will receive a "0" for that particular assignment or exam [or specify alternative sanction, such as course failure]. Additionally, the incident will be reported to the Dean of Students (Office of Academic Integrity), who may impose further penalty. According to the UNT catalog, the term "cheating" includes, but is not limited to: a. use of any unauthorized assistance in taking quizzes, tests, or examinations; b. dependence upon the aid of sources beyond those authorized by the instructor in writing papers, preparing reports, solving problems, or carrying out other assignments; c. the acquisition, without permission, of tests or other academic material belonging to a faculty or staff member of the university; d. dual submission of a paper or project, or resubmission of a paper or project to a different class without express permission from the instructor(s); or e. any other act designed to give a student an unfair advantage. The term "plagiarism" includes, but is not limited to: a. the knowing or negligent use by paraphrase or direct quotation of the published or unpublished work of another person without full and clear acknowledgment; and b. the knowing or negligent unacknowledged use of materials prepared by another person or agency engaged in the selling of term papers or other academic materials.

STUDENT BEHAVIOR

Student behavior that interferes with an instructor's ability to conduct a class or other students' opportunity to learn is unacceptable and disruptive and will not be tolerated in any instructional forum at UNT. Students engaging in unacceptable behavior will be directed to leave the classroom and the instructor may refer the student to the Dean of Students to consider whether the student's conduct violated the Code of Student Conduct. The university's expectations for student conduct apply to all instructional forums, including university and electronic classrooms, labs, discussion groups, field trips, etc.

ODA STATEMENT

The University of North Texas makes reasonable academic accommodation for students with disabilities. Students seeking accommodation must first register with the Office of Disability Access (ODA) to verify their eligibility. If a disability is verified, the ODA will provide you with an accommodation letter. You can now request your Letters of Accommodation ONLINE and ODA will mail your Letters of Accommodation to your instructors. You may wish to begin a private discussion with your professors regarding your specific needs in a course. Note that students must obtain a new letter of accommodation for every semester. For additional information see the Office of Disability Access.

Financial Aid and Satisfactory Academic Progress

Undergraduates

A student must maintain Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) to continue to receive financial aid. Students must maintain a minimum 2.0 cumulative GPA in addition to successfully completing a required number of credit hours based on total hours registered. Students cannot exceed attempted credit hours above 150% of their required degree plan. If a student does not maintain the required standards, the student may lose their financial aid eligibility.

Students holding music scholarships must maintain a minimum 2.5 overall cumulative GPA and 3.0 cumulative GPA in music courses.

If at any point you consider dropping this or any other course, please be advised that the decision to do so may have the potential to affect your current and future financial aid eligibility. It is recommended that you to schedule a meeting with an academic advisor in your college or visit the Student Financial Aid and Scholarships office to discuss dropping a course before doing so.

Graduates

A student must maintain Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) to continue to receive financial aid. Students must maintain a minimum 3.0 cumulative GPA in addition to successfully completing a required number of credit hours based on total registered hours per term. Music scholarships require a 3.5 cumulative GPA. Students cannot exceed maximum timeframes established based on the published length of the graduate program. If a student does not maintain the required standards, the student may lose their financial aid eligibility.

If at any point you consider dropping this or any other course, please be advised that the decision to do so may have the potential to affect your current and future financial aid eligibility. It is recommended you schedule a meeting with an academic advisor in your college, an advisor in UNT-International or visit the Student Financial Aid and Scholarships office to discuss dropping a course.
