

PROGRAM LEADER INTRODUCTION

Tina Dias - MA, PCC

Tina has over 25 years of experience in business operations and human resources and is a recipient of a Rio-Tinto-Alcan people award for her work in strategic work and talent (SWAT) teams, focusing on business turnarounds.

In 2009, Tina started her leadership development and coaching practice. She is a dynamic and extremely artistic and creative individual who can custom design and facilitate leadership and coaching programs to meet her clients' needs. As a PCC (professional certified coach) with the International Coach Federation, she utilizes her determination, passion for excellence, high standards, contagious positive outlook and high emotional intelligence to help individuals and teams create their own awareness and insight into the best opportunities and choices available to them.

Born in France to Portuguese parents, Tina has an innate ability to adapt to people from all cultures and diverse workforces, which has enabled her to quickly establish a connection and rapport with those she has supported, including in Europe, North and South America and Africa.

Tina trained at Coach University and also holds a MA in Leadership from Royal Roads University, with a focus on coaching for collaboration.

Tina is a program leader for the Great Work programs at Box of Crayons, created by Michael Bungay Stanier.
