

NS Designs Personal Use/ Scrap 4 Hire Terms of Use

You may use, copy, and modify these files for personal use and for S4H *. (For commercial use products, see my commercial use TOU below.) Please credit NS Designs along with the product name when you post layouts made with this product in galleries or submit them to magazines. Do not share these files. If your friends like my work, show them where they can find my designs.

Share the joy of digiscraping!

*S4H - Scrap For Hire - Create custom, one-of-a-kind layouts or other craft items for individual clients. These must be delivered to the client in printed or flattened .jpg form and must NOT be layered files or .png files. Each item must be unique and created for that specific customer.

NS Designs Commercial Use Terms of Use

For commercial use, you must modify my designs in some way, and your completed product must be for personal use or S4H only.

My CU products are NOT CU for CU which means that you can NOT purchase a CU product from me and in turn create another CU product with it.

No more than 50% of a product that you sell can be made from my designs.

No credit is necessary, but it's always appreciated. Do not share these files. If your friends like my work, please direct them to my stores.
