

SnickerdoodleDesigns Terms of Use 2016

Thank you for your interest in and purchase of my designs. I know Terms of Use vary from designer to designer and can be confusing. I have tried to make my terms easy to understand; however, if you have questions after reading this document, please feel free to contact me. I am happy to answer your specific questions.

Included in this document are Terms of Use for:

Personal Use (PU) / Scrap For hire (S4H)

Commercial Use (CU)

Please refer to product preview packaging for the license that applies to each product.

PERSONAL USE Terms and conditions:

- You may use this product for your own Personal use
- You may use this product to create projects or layouts on behalf of a client (S4H) Note: Each S4H client must purchase every product used. (You cannot create a layout template and simply insert a different client's photos in it, unless that client has purchased all of the products included in that layout.) Pages created for your client must be delivered as a flattened jpg or in printed format. You cannot create a layout template and simply insert a different client's photos into it, unless that client has purchased all of the products included in that layout.
- You may not use this product for any commercial use.
- You may not claim as your own, even if altered, resized, recolored, or as part of a layout, page, or cluster.
- These terms are the same for freebies as well as purchased products.
- This product cannot be sublicensed, resold, shared, transferred, or otherwise redistributed on its own (even for free).
- You may create designs for YOUR own blog, Facebook Cover, etc, provided you provide credit on the Facebook Cover graphic to SnickerdoodleDesigns (i.e. Graphics courtesy of SnickerdoodleDesigns). Linkable credit is desired, if possible.
- You may post completed projects online through e-groups, board, galleries, forums, newsgroups, or submit to magazines for possible publication. Credit to SnickerdoodleDesigns is required and appreciated.
- You may alter graphics with respect to color, size, or by adding to or removing from them; however, if you have made changes to my designs, and are posting your graphics in any of the groups listed above, you must state the alterations that you have made. (For example: "I recolored several graphics to suit my layout colors.") The reason for this is so customers will not purchase a product of mine (a kit for example), and be unhappy that they can't find the "blue" element within your scrapbook layout (when my original element was red).

- You may not create freebies from my Personal Use products without my express permission. I am easy to work with. Just tell me what you want to do, and chances are I will agree.
- You may not create printables or products for sites such as Zazzle, Café Press, Etsy, etc.

COMMERCIAL USE Terms and conditions:

- You may create personal-use products to sell.
- You may not use this product to create other commercial-use products.
- Commercial Use of this product is limited to digital scrapbook design.
- This product may be used to create projects or layouts on behalf of a client (i.e. Scrap for Hire)
- You may not claim this product as your own, even if altered, resized, recolored, or as part of a layout, page or cluster.
- It is appropriate to give credit to designers in your end product in all digital and print usage (including, but not limited to online galleries, Pinterest, Facebook, digital or print publications, etc.). However, credit is not required. Credit should be given as: SnickerdoodleDesigns. A link is appreciated. Nothing is greater than a personal recommendation from a satisfied user of my products, and I appreciate any and all credit given.
- You may use this product to create freebies, as long as some modification is made to the original product, and the original product cannot be extracted from your design.
- You may not use this product to create brushes, tubes, cutting files, or other similar items.
- You may use my Commercial Use items as-is in your derivative kits created for your customers Personal-Use, unless otherwise stated in the product description.

PERSONAL NOTE:

All of the foregoing regulations are stated to protect myself from unethical people. I believe that the majority of us are honest people with good intentions. If you find anything confusing about my Terms of Use, or would like special permission to use my designs in a way not stated here, please do not hesitate to contact me. I will do my best to accommodate your needs.

Thank you for using my designs in your own creative pursuits. I sincerely appreciate your interest and patronage.
