THE APOSTLE'S CREED

Credo in Deum Patrem omnipotentem; Creatorem coeli et terrae.

(Translation: I believe in God, the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth)

I believe in God, the Father Almighty
Maker of heaven and earth
And in Jesus Christ
His only Son, our Lord
Who was conceived by the Holy Spirit
Born of the Virgin Mary
Suffered under Pontius Pilate
Was crucified, dead, and buried
He descended into hell
On the third day He rose again from the dead
He ascended into heaven
And sits at the right hand of God the Father Almighty
From there He shall come to judge the living and the dead
I believe in the Holy Spirit
The holy catholic* church
The communion of saints
The forgiveness of sins
The resurrection of the body
And the life everlasting
Amen.

Credo (Translation: I believe)

catholic here does not refer to the denomination, but means the true Christian church of all times and all places.*

LOVE NEVER FAILS

(1 Corinthians 13)²

Though I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, but have not love,
I have become sounding brass or a clanging cymbal.
And though I have the gift of prophecy,
and understand all mysteries and all knowledge, and though I have all faith, so that I could remove mountains,
but have not love, I am nothing.
And though I bestow all my goods to feed the poor, and though I give my body to be burned, but have not love,
it profits me nothing.

Love suffers long and is kind; love does not envy;
love does not parade itself, is not puffed up;
[love] does not behave rudely, does not seek its own,
[love] is not provoked, thinks no evil;
does not rejoice in iniquity, but rejoices in the truth;
bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things.
Love never fails [love never fails].

But whether there are prophecies, they will fail;
whether there are tongues, they will cease;
whether there is knowledge, it will vanish away.
For we know in part and we prophesy in part.
But when that which is perfect has come,
then that which is in part will be done away.

When I was a child, I spoke as a child,
I understood as a child, I thought as a child;
but when I became a man, I put away childish things.
For now we see in a mirror, dimly, but then face to face.
Now I know in part, but then I shall know just as I also am known.
And now abide faith, hope, love, these three;
but the greatest of these is love.

WHO MAY ABIDE

(Psalm 15)¹

O LORD, who may abide in Your tent?
Who may dwell on Your holy hill?
He who walks with integrity, and works righteousness,
And speaks truth in his heart.
He does not slander with his tongue,
Nor does evil to his neighbor,
Nor takes up a reproach against his friend ;
In whose eyes a reprobate is despised,
But who honors those who fear the LORD;
He swears to his own hurt and does not change;
He does not put out his money at interest,
Nor does he take a bribe against the innocent.
He who does these things will never be shaken.

THE TEN COMMANDMENTS

(Exodus 20:1-17)¹

Then God spoke all these words, saying,
I am the LORD your God,
who brought you out of the land of Egypt,
out of the house of slavery.

[#1] You shall have no other gods before Me.

[#2] You shall not make for yourself an idol, or any likeness of what is in heaven above or on the earth beneath or in the water under the earth.
You shall not worship them or serve them;
for I, the LORD your God, am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers on the children,
on the third and the fourth generations of those who hate Me, but showing lovingkindness to thousands,
to those who love Me and keep My commandments

[#3] You shall not take the name of the LORD your God in vain, for the LORD will not leave him unpunished who takes His name in vain.

[#4] Remember the sabbath day, to keep it holy.
Six days you shall labor and do all your work,
but the seventh day is a sabbath of the LORD your God;
in it you shall not do any work, you or your son or your daughter, your male or your female servant or your cattle or your sojourner who stays with you.
For in six days the LORD made the heavens and the earth, the sea and all that is in them, and rested on the seventh day;
therefore the LORD blessed the sabbath day and made it holy.

[#5] Honor your father and your mother, that your days may be prolonged in the land which the LORD your God gives you.

[#6] You shall not murder.

[#7] You shall not commit adultery.

[#8] You shall not steal.

[#9] You shall not bear false witness against your neighbor.

[#10] You shall not covet your neighbor's house;
you shall not covet your neighbor's wife or his male servant
or his female servant or his ox or his donkey or anything that belongs to your neighbor.

THE WORD MADE FLESH

(John 1:14-18) ²

And the Word became flesh and dwelt among us,
and we beheld His glory,
the glory as of the only begotten of the Father,
full of grace and truth.
John bore witness of Him and cried out, saying,
"This was He of whom I said,
'He who comes after me is preferred before me,
for He was before me.' "
And of His fullness we have all received, and grace for grace.
For the law was given through Moses,
but grace and truth came through Jesus Christ.
No one has seen God at any time.

The only begotten Son, who is in the bosom of the Father,
He has declared Him.

MY SON DO NOT FORGET

(Proverbs 3:1-12) ²

My son, do not forget my law,
But let your heart keep my commands;
For length of days and long life
And peace they will add to you.

Let not mercy and truth forsake you;
Bind them around your neck,
Write them on the tablet of your heart,
And so find favor and high esteem
In the sight of God and man.

Trust in the LORD with all your heart,
And lean not on your own understanding;
In all your ways acknowledge Him,
And He shall direct your paths.

Do not be wise in your own eyes;
Fear the LORD and depart from evil.
It will be health to your flesh,
And strength to your bones.

Honor the LORD with your possessions,
And with the firstfruits of all your increase;
So your barns will be filled with plenty,
And your vats will overflow with new wine.

My son, do not despise the chastening of the LORD,
Nor detest His correction;
For whom the LORD loves He corrects,
Just as a father the son in whom he delights.

OUR DWELLING PLACE

(Psalm 90) ¹

Lord, You have been our dwelling place in all generations
Before the mountains were born
Or You gave birth to the earth and the world
Even from everlasting to everlasting,
You are God.

You turn man back into dust
And say, "Return, O children of men."
For a thousand years in Your sight
Are like yesterday when it passes by,
Or as a watch in the night.

You have swept them away like a flood, they fall asleep;
In the morning they are like grass which sprouts anew.
In the morning it flourishes and sprouts anew;
Toward evening it fades and withers away.

For we have been consumed by Your anger
And by Your wrath we have been dismayed.
You have placed our iniquities before You,

Our secret sins in the light of Your presence.

For all our days have declined in Your fury;
We have finished our years like a sigh.
As for the days of our life, they contain seventy years,
Or if due to strength, eighty years,
Yet their pride is but labor and sorrow;
For soon it is gone and we fly away.

Who understands the power of Your anger And Your fury, according to the fear that is due You?
So teach us to number our days,
That we may present to You a heart of wisdom.

Do return, O LORD; how long will it be?
And be sorry for Your servants.
O satisfy us in the morning with Your lovingkindness,
That we may sing for joy and be glad all our days.

Make us glad according to the days
You have afflicted us,
And the years we have seen evil.
Let Your work appear to Your servants
And Your majesty to their children.

Let the favor of the Lord our God be upon us;
And confirm for us the work of our hands;
Yes, confirm the work of our hands.

THE RESURRECTION AND THE LIFE

(John 11:25-26)³

Jesus said unto her, I am the resurrection, and the life:
he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live:
And whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die.
Believest thou this?
