

=====Miracles Tapping Script=====

I want MIRACLES now!

...and that includes money!

Karate Chop Point:

Even though the truth is that one of the big miracles
I want this year is money, and I'm not sure how I feel about that, I'm not sure how God/The Divine would feel about that, I'm open to releasing all my negative judgments about money.

I'm open to allowing money to be a miraculous swirling, nurturing, flow in my life. Money has been flowing through my life in a trickle.
I'm now allowing it to be a river.

Even though 'miracles' is a really big word, I'm open to being a miracle in my own life.
I'm open to being the miracle in other people's lives.

Even though 'miracles' really seems like a stretch,
I'm open to widening my view and suddenly seeing miracles unfolding all around me, in every smile,
in every sunset, and every person.

Even though it's hard to believe in miracles,
I'm open to seeing the miraculous things that have already happened in my life, how far I've come,
how much I've manifested.

Tap Through the Points Your Favorite Way:

One of the miracles I want this year is money,
And I have a lot of judgments about that,
And I worry God/Divine has those same judgments.
that is is wrong to ask for miracles in my money
I'm ready to let go of that pretty bold assumption,
That I know the mind of God/the Divine
and I'm now open to allowing money,
YES, even MONEY
to be a miraculous flow in my life,
Flowing and swirling and nurturing me,
Flowing in and out of my life.
Through money I'm connected to millions of people.
I'm connected through giving and receiving.
I connected through exchange of buying and selling
I'm connected through our time and energy value!
Money connects millions of people across the world.
all trading in their energy
using the currency of money!
I'm open to letting that swirling energy
Flow into my life like a river.
And I'm open to being a walking, talking miracle myself.
I'm open to being the miracle in my own life.
I'm open to being the miracle in the lives of others.
A miracle of self-acceptance,
A miracle of self-love,
A miracle of abundance,

Letting everyone around me feel that miracle too.
I'm open to all miracles showing up.
Little miracles,
Big miracles,
Miraculous, divine, inspired miracles.
and even everyday miracles.
I am now open to widening my view
And seeing miracles unfolding everywhere.
The miracle of every blade of grass,
Of every hug offered, given and received
And in that moment
I commit
That I will now pause
And allow that miracle
To wash over me,
Electrify me,
Inspire me,
Mind body and soul.
I am totally wired for miracles.
(wow, that felt good!)
