HYMN #64

Sweet, Sweet Spirit

Vocal Ensemble - Seth Durbin, Jenna Hessel, Patti Mangis, Michael Rees

There's a sweet sweet spirit in this place
And I know that it's the spirit of the Lord.
There are sweet expressions on each face
And I know that it's the presence of the Lord.
Sweet Holy Spirit
Sweet heavenly dove
Stay right here with us
Filling us with your love.
And for all these blessings
We lift our hearts in praise
Without a doubt we'll know
That we have been revived
When we shall leave this place...

THE LORD'S PRAYER #895

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy Kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

SCRIPTURE LESSON

Acts 2: 1-11

Pastor Chris Winkler, Senior Pastor BUMC

2 When the day of Pentecost had come, they were all together in one place. ² And suddenly from heaven there came a sound like the rush of a violent wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting. ³ Divided tongues, as of fire, appeared among them, and a tongue rested on each of them. ⁴ All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages, as the Spirit gave them ability.

⁵ Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven living in Jerusalem. ⁶ And at this sound the crowd gathered and was bewildered, because each one heard them speaking in the native language of each. ⁷ Amazed and astonished, they asked, "Are not all these who are speaking Galileans?" ⁸ And how is it that we hear, each of us, in our own native language? ⁹ Parthians, Medes, Elamites, and residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, ¹⁰ Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya belonging to Cyrene, and visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes, ¹¹ Cretans and Arabs—in our own languages we hear them speaking about God's deeds of power."

Join the BUMC Garden Team

Over the last nine years, our congregational garden has provided 223,500 pounds of fresh vegetables to 9 area food pantries as well as our own Community Meal. Our hope is to provide more than last year's total of 25,600 pounds and we need your help! To get started, visit barringtonumc.com/get-involved to indicate your interest; there is a place for you here!

Growing Hope Globally

Our farmer partners have begun planting! They look to Barrington UMC and Trinity Lutheran in Ottawa for support each spring. By offsetting the cost of inputs, we allow our farmer partners to offer more acreage and more help to projects led by Christian agencies assisting agricultural communities worldwide to develop out of poverty. As we look ahead, it is likely that Russia's war in Ukraine will push even more people into food insecurity and at the same time increase the value of the fall grain crop. Your help will make a real difference this year.

A Concert to Benefit Growing Hope Globally

James Preucil, viola, will be joined by Esther Chae, cello, and William Koehler, piano, for a concert benefiting Growing Hope Globally on June 19 at 4:00 p.m. in the Barrington UMC sanctuary. All are invited!

Help plan our 2023 Adult Mission Trip! Monday, June 6 at 7:00 p.m. in Room 111

An adult mission trip is a powerful experience on our faith journey. All are invited to a planning meeting in June. This is the best time to have input into both site and date selection – who, where, and when we will serve in 2023. There are always many details to work out and we want to give a team time to make arrangements. For more information, contact Sharon Orr, sorr@barringtonumc.com.

Ushers needed for Annual Conference

The Northern Illinois Annual Conference will be in person this year, Wednesday, June 8 through Friday, June 10, at the Renaissance Convention Center in Schaumburg. Ushers will be needed for the worship services (memorial on June 8, 1:30 p.m.; retirement, June 9, 8:45 a.m.; ordination, June 10, 1:30 p.m.) and during the conference “business” time to answer questions and distribute materials. Ushers do not need to work an entire day or all three days. If you are interested in ushering any time during the conference, please contact Linda Osikowicz, Lmosikowicz@comcast.net, (630) 569-2763.

2022 Women’s Fall Retreat: Boxcars and Baggage, Riding the Rails of Emotion

September 23–25 at Delavan Lake Resort in Delavan, Wisconsin

Women are invited for a weekend of exciting spiritual and personal growth as we discuss “Riding the Rails of Emotion” at the beautiful Delavan Resort in Wisconsin. We have 10 registrants so far and need a minimum of 20 attendees by Sunday, June 12th, to confirm this wonderful retreat — we have a place for you! A $50 deposit secures your spot. Full refunds will be available if we do not meet our minimum or if the retreat is canceled due to Covid restrictions. So sign up today! Register and submit your deposit online, barringtonumc.com/get-connected, or by mail to the Barrington UMC office and indicate “Women’s Retreat” in the memo line!

For many years, Barrington United Methodist Church has hosted a weekend Women’s Retreat. In addition to studying scripture and enhancing our relationships with God and each other, the Retreat allows attendees to participate in a service project to benefit our community. This year, we plan to create 75 soup kits to be donated as a supplement to the October Carpentersville Community Meal. Even if you’re unable to attend the Retreat, you can still participate in the service project by donating supplies to make the soup kits. We are collecting the items below through Sunday, September 4. Please leave your donations in the containers located in the BUMC rotunda. Thank you in advance for your support and help in feeding the hungry in our community!
