WORDS OF WELCOME

Pastor Chris Winkler, Senior Pastor BUMC

HYMN #344

Lord, You Have Come to the Lakeshore
Vocal Ensemble - Seth Durbin, Jenna Hesseln, Patti Mangis

(1) Lord, you have come to the lakeshore
looking neither for wealthy nor wise ones;
you only asked me to follow humbly.

(2) You know so well my possessions;
my boat carries no gold and no weapons;
you will find there my nets and labor.

(3) You need my hands, full of caring
through my labors to give others rest,
and constant love that keeps on loving.

(4) You, who have fished other oceans,
ever longed for by souls who are waiting,
my loving friend, as thus you call me.

(Refrain)

O Lord, with your eyes you have searched me,
and while smiling have spoken my name;
now my boat's left on the shoreline behind me;
by your side I will seek other seas.

THE LORD'S PRAYER #895

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy Kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

SCRIPTURE LESSON

John 6: 25-35

Fred Kocian

²⁵ When they found him on the other side of the sea, they said to him, "Rabbi, when did you come here?" ²⁶ Jesus answered them, "Very truly, I tell you, you are looking for me, not because you saw signs, but because you ate your fill of the loaves. ²⁷ Do not work for the food that perishes, but for the food that endures for eternal life, which the Son of Man will give you. For it is on him that God the Father has set his seal."

²⁸ Then they said to him, "What must we do to perform the works of God?" ²⁹ Jesus answered them, "This is the work of God, that you believe in him whom he has sent." ³⁰ So they said to him, "What sign are you going to give us then, so that we may see it and believe you? What work are you performing?" ³¹ Our ancestors ate the manna in the wilderness; as it is written, 'He gave them bread from heaven to eat.'" ³² Then Jesus said to them, "Very truly, I tell you, it was not Moses who gave you the bread from heaven, but it is my Father who gives you the true bread from heaven. ³³ For the bread of God is that which comes down from heaven and gives life to the world." ³⁴ They said to him, "Sir, give us this bread always." ³⁵ Jesus said to them, "I am the bread of life. Whoever comes to me will never be hungry, and whoever believes in me will never be thirsty."

The Word of God, for the people of God.

Thanks be to God!

HYMN #617

I Come with Joy

Vocal Ensemble - Seth Durbin, Jenna Hesseln, Patti Mangis

- (1) I come with joy to meet my Lord,
forgiven, loved, and free;
in awe and wonder to recall
his life laid down for me, his life laid down for me.
- (2) I come with Christians far and near
to find, as all are fed,
the new community of love
in Christ's communion bread, in Christ's communion bread.
- (3) As Christ breaks bread and bids us share,
each proud division ends;
the love that made us, makes us one,
and strangers now are friends, and strangers now are friends.
- (4) And thus with joy we meet our Lord;
his presence, always near,
is in such friendship better known:
we see and praise him here, we see and praise him here.
- 5) Together met, together bound,
we'll go our different ways;
and as his people in the world,
we'll live and speak his praise, we'll live and speak his praise.

hairbrushes or combs
NON-alcoholic mouthwash

Barrington UMC All-Church Welcome Statement Celebration

Sunday, October 23 at 11:30 a.m.

You are invited to learn about the history of our Welcome Statement, engage in conversation and celebrate the ways we are working to fulfill its vision. This statement, affirmed by the BUMC Church Leadership Council in 2019, guides us in all we do to “embrace and nurture all people at any point in their faith journey.” We hope to see you there.
