SUPPORTING WOMEN WITH UNRESOLVED TRAUMA WOUNDS

Finding hope in the midst of life's storms.

To bring good news to the poor, to comfort the brokenhearted,
to proclaim that captives will be released,
prisoners will be freed.

To tell all who mourn that the time of the Lord's favor has come...He will give a crown of beauty for ashes, a joyous blessing instead of mourning, festive praise instead of despair...they will be like great oaks that the Lord has planted for his own glory.

ISAIAH 61:1-3

Supporting Women

In Round House we provide caring, supportive relationships and lead you into intimate connection with Jesus as you journey toward wholeness.

Life brings us inescapable traumas, and these impact our growth and maturity. Sad but so true—everyone grows older, but not everyone grows up. Many times, we try to “fix” behaviors and symptoms that are caused initially by trauma or a significant wound in our heart. When we focus on healing the root issue of the wound, then our thinking processes, behaviors, choices, and resulting oppression/depression will also start to heal and change.

The Original Wound

My people will live in peaceful places, in secure homes, in undisturbed places of rest.

ISAIAH 32:18

We will encourage and accompany you in a discovery process of where your pain is coming from.

MAY WE ACCOMPANY YOU ON YOUR PATH TO HEALING?

Bringing the Healing and Wholeness Only Found in Jesus

“Group... is a safe place to talk about your problems, your feelings, and how you are dealing with the problems... and getting to be in a deeper relationship with your Creator. It also helps to know how you are furthering your relationship with Jesus through all of these issues.” ~C

“I can see how the enemy has been using my childhood traumas to keep me from Jesus... I was uncomfortable with having a relationship with Him and I never wanted to get too close. Jesus showed me that it's not like how my dad was with me... Jesus is really my best friend.” ~M

“Round House is women connecting with Jesus and connecting with each other. It helps me feel like I'm not alone.” ~A
