

THE CHURCH OF SAINT
LUKE IN THE FIELDS

24th Sunday After Pentecost

November 15, 2020

9:15 am

Holy Eucharist

We recommend going through the service on two devices: one for viewing the video service, and a second for reading through the bulletin. Sunday School will follow this service broadcast on Zoom.

For more information on Children, Youth, and Family ministries at St. Luke's, please reach out to Deacon Ancona at aancona@stlukeinthefields.org

Prelude

"I want to walk as a child of the light"

A bell sounds. All who are able stand.

The Acclamation

Celebrant: Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

People: And blessed be his kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.

Gloria in excelsis

Glory to God in the highest, and peace to his people on earth.

Lord God, heavenly King, almighty God and Father, we worship you, we give you thanks, we praise you for your glory. Lord Jesus Christ, only Son of the Father, Lord God, Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world; have mercy on us; you are seated at the right hand of the Father; receive our prayer.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

The Collect of the Day

The Celebrant says to the people

The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Celebrant: Let us pray.

Blessed Lord, who caused all holy Scriptures to be written for our learning: Grant us so to hear them, read, mark, learn, and inwardly digest them, that we may embrace and ever hold fast the blessed hope of everlasting life, which you have given us in our Savior Jesus Christ; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

Amen.

All are seated.

The Lessons

The First Lesson:

1 Thessalonians 5:1-11

Now concerning the times and the seasons, brothers and sisters, you do not need to have anything written to you. For you yourselves know very well that the day of the Lord will come like a thief in the night. When they say, "There is peace and security," then sudden destruction will come upon them, as labor pains come upon a pregnant woman, and there will be no escape! But you, beloved, are not in darkness, for that day to surprise you like a thief; for you are all children of light and children of the day; we are not of the night or of darkness. So then let us not fall asleep as others do, but let us keep awake and be sober; for those who sleep sleep at night, and those who are drunk get drunk at night. But since we belong to the day, let us be sober, and put on the breastplate of faith and love, and for a helmet the hope of salvation. For God has destined us not for wrath but for obtaining salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ, who died for us, so that whether we are awake or asleep we may live with him. Therefore encourage one another and build up each other, as indeed you are doing.

The word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to GodThe Psalm:Domine, refugium

90:1-12

Lord, you have been our refuge *

from one generation to another.

Before the mountains were brought forth,

or the land and the earth were born, *

from age to age you are God.

You turn us back to the dust and say, *

"Go back, O child of earth."

For a thousand years in your sight are like yesterday when it is past * and like a watch in the night.

You sweep us away like a dream; *

we fade away suddenly like the grass.

In the morning it is green and flourishes; *

in the evening it is dried up and withered.

For we consume away in your displeasure; *

we are afraid because of your wrathful indignation.

Our iniquities you have set before you, *

and our secret sins in the light of your countenance.

When you are angry, all our days are gone; *

we bring our years to an end like a sigh.

The span of our life is seventy years,

perhaps in strength even eighty; *

yet the sum of them is but labor and sorrow,

for they pass away quickly and we are gone.

Who regards the power of your wrath? *
 who rightly fears your indignation?
 So teach us to number our days *
 that we may apply our hearts to wisdom.

The Gospel:

Matthew 25:14-30

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

People: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus said, "It is as if a man, going on a journey, summoned his slaves and entrusted his property to them; to one he gave five talents, to another two, to another one, to each according to his ability. Then he went away. The one who had received the five talents went off at once and traded with them, and made five more talents. In the same way, the one who had the two talents made two more talents. But the one who had received the one talent went off and dug a hole in the ground and hid his master's money. After a long time the master of those slaves came and settled accounts with them. Then the one who had received the five talents came forward, bringing five more talents, saying, 'Master, you handed over to me five talents; see, I have made five more talents.' His master said to him, 'Well done, good and trustworthy slave; you have been trustworthy in a few things, I will put you in charge of many things; enter into the joy of your master.' And the one with the two talents also came forward, saying, 'Master, you handed over to me two talents; see, I have made two more talents.' His master said to him, 'Well done, good and trustworthy slave; you have been trustworthy in a few things, I will put you in charge of many things; enter into the joy of your master.' Then the one who had received the one talent also came forward, saying, 'Master, I knew that you were a harsh man, reaping where you did not sow, and gathering where you did not scatter seed; so I was afraid, and I went and hid your talent in the ground. Here you have what is yours.' But his master replied, 'You wicked and lazy slave! You knew, did you, that I reap where I did not sow, and gather where I did not scatter? Then you ought to have invested my money with the bankers, and on my return I would have received what was my own with interest. So take the talent from him, and give it to the one with the ten talents. For to all those who have, more will be given, and they will have an abundance; but from those who have nothing, even what they have will be taken away. As for this worthless slave, throw him into the outer darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.'"

The Gospel of the Lord.

People: Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Homily

The Reverend Andrew Ancona

The Nicene Creed

Said by all, standing.

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father. Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the Prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Prayers of the People

In joy and hope let us pray to the source of all life, saying, "Hear our prayer."

That our risen Savior may fill us with the joy of his holy and life-giving resurrection. Lord, in your mercy.

Hear our prayer.

That isolated and persecuted churches may find fresh strength in the Easter gospel. Lord, in your mercy.

Hear our prayer.

That he may grant us humility to be subject to one another in Christian love. Lord, in your mercy.

Hear our prayer.

That he may guide the people of this land, and of all nations, in the ways of justice and peace. Lord, in your mercy.

Hear our prayer.

That he may provide for those who lack food, work, or shelter. Lord, in your mercy.

Hear our prayer.

That by his power wars and famine may cease through all the earth. Lord, in your mercy.

Hear our prayer.

That he may reveal the light of his presence to the sick, the weak, and the dying, that they may be comforted and strengthened. Lord, in your mercy.

Hear our prayer.

That he may send the fire of the Holy Spirit upon his people, that we may bear faithful witness to his resurrection.

Lord, in your mercy.

Hear our prayer.

That we may come to share in the heavenly kingdom with the Blessed Virgin Mary, Blessed Luke, our Patron, and all the saints. Lord, in your mercy.

Hear our prayer.

The Celebrant concludes with a Collect.

The Confession and Absolution of Sin

Deacon: Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

The People kneel or bow. All say

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

The Peace

Celebrant: The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People: And also with you.

Music at the Offertory

Air

George Frideric Handel

The Great Thanksgiving

The people stand.

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Celebrant: Lift up your hearts.

People: We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant: Let us give thanks to the Lord, our God.

People: It is right to give God thanks and praise.

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth. For by water and the Holy Spirit you have made us a new people in Jesus Christ our Lord, to show forth your glory in all the world. Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Holy, Holy, Holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory.

Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna in the highest.

Then the Celebrant continues

Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself, and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all. He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself, in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world. On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me." After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come again.

The Celebrant continues

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts. Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom. All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ: By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. AMEN.

As our Savior Christ has taught us, we now pray,

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your Name, your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us. Save us from the time of trial, and deliver us from evil. For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours, now and for ever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread

The Celebrant breaks the bread.

Celebrant: Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us.

People: Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

Celebrant: The Gifts of God for the people of God.

The sacred ministers receive the Sacrament with the spiritual participation of the whole Body of Christ.

Spiritual Communion Prayer for Those Who Cannot Attend Mass

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love you above all things and I desire to receive you in my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally, come spiritually into my heart. I embrace you as if you were already there and unite myself wholly to you. Never permit me to be separated from you. Amen.

The Post Communion Prayer

Celebrant: Let us pray

Eternal God, heavenly Father, you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood. Send us now into the world in peace, and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you with gladness and singleness of heart; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Blessing and Dismissal

Celebrant: The blessing of God Almighty: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit be with you now and remain with you always. Amen.

Deacon: Let us go forth in the name of Christ.

People: Thanks be to God.

PARISH ANNOUNCEMENTS

Pre-Recorded 9:15 Sunday Worship

We now offer an additional Mass at 9:15 on Sunday mornings before Sunday school. All are welcome to worship together through this service of Holy Communion which will include participation from youth readers, as well as a family focused homily each week. Participation in this liturgy will be available online only. Please join us! Contact Deacon Ancona at aancona@stlukeinthefields.org for more information.

Sunday School

Sunday school is on Zoom! We will meet at 9:45am on Sundays and finish up before the 10:30 Livestream Mass. Please register your child(ren) at bit.ly/stlukesunsch

Adult Education Returns on Monday

Classes resume this week with The Veneration of Martyrs and Their Relics: Ss. Stephen, Peter, and Paul by Fr Stephen Morris. Previous classes and lecture notes available on our website at stlukeinthefields.org/learn-grow/adult-education/

In Our Fields Mobile Feeding Program

*Tuesdays and Thursdays from 10am to 1pm.
All staff and volunteers will wear a mask and practice social distancing.*

On Tuesday and Thursday mornings, we gather to make and distribute meals and hygiene supplies along routes in our neighborhoods where we are encountering folks who need them most. You can sign up for a slot: bit.ly/inourfields or write Simone at srichmond@stlukeinthefields.org with any questions or ideas. If mobility or comfort level is an issue, we invite you to be of service for part of the time – whether just for packing or just for distribution.

Register for In-Person Sunday 10:30 Worship

Registration Required: bit.ly/sun-service

Sunday services will continue to be livestreamed for those who wish to watch from home. Entry into the church will be through the main gate (north lawn by the church) and through Laughlin Hall. Due to COVID 19, the congregation is asked to quietly sing the hymns. Please wear your mask throughout your time in the church and observe social distancing throughout the service, including when coming forward to receive Communion. Let's be safe for each other. Thank you.

Be a Steward of St. Luke's | Make a Pledge

Pledge Online at bit.ly/beasteward

The Stewardship Committee extends its gratitude to everyone who has already submitted their pledges for 2021! Your support is what makes St. Luke's a beacon of inclusivity and sanctuary, and allows us to preserve and expand our ministries in these uncertain times. We invite everyone to become part of the legacy of giving here at St. Luke's. Consider becoming a member, or renewing your membership by making a pledge for 2021. Thank you all for your continued support, and we look forward to serving you in 2021 and beyond.

Text-to-Give for Pledging & General Giving

You can text a gift to any of these funds: Stewardship, General, Gardens, Outreach, Music, Flowers. To set up Text-to-Give on your smartphone, follow these steps:

1. Text the amount and the Fund Name (Stewardship, General, Gardens, Outreach, Music, or Flowers) to 929.226.6676.
2. Complete your one-time registration via the link that will be sent to you.
3. Next time you want to give, simply text the amount and the Fund Name to the same number. No further registration is required.

That's it! To get a reminder of which funds are available for giving, text "keyword". If you have questions, please contact our Parish Office at 212.924.0562. Thank you for your continued support of St. Luke's.

Adult Education Fall 2020 | The Acts of the Apostles

Adult Ed returns for the fall semester. Join us as we work our way through the book of Acts, the second of our patron saint's attributed texts. A variety of guests will highlight major events, concepts, and themes in this record of the early church and help us trace its growth from a small group of believers in Jerusalem to the heart of the Roman Empire.

Guest Speakers: VK McCarty, Fr. Stephen Morris, Dr. Jeremy Hultin, Dr. Dennis Raverty

Interested? Please reach out to Fr. Bo Reynolds at breyholds@stlukeinthefields.org or 212.414.7432.

Christian Formation 2020-2021

The Formation Program at St. Luke's is designed to prepare adult parishioners for Baptism, Confirmation, Reception, or the Reaffirmation of Baptismal Vows at the Easter Vigil. It is a way for people to find their way "home" to St. Luke's, whether from another tradition, no tradition, or a life-time with the Episcopal Church. The program consists of three parts, listed below. The Discovery Series is open to anyone interested in the subject matter, and the latter two parts are for those who have completed the Discovery Series and wish to proceed as candidates to be presented to the Bishop at the Easter Vigil on April 3rd, 2021. All candidates are paired with a sponsor who will introduce them more deeply to the life and ministries of St. Luke's Church. Candidates are expected to attend all four sessions of the Discovery Series and to participate in all subsequent meetings of the program. Full participation in the liturgies of Holy Week is strongly encouraged.

St. Luke's Book Group | Ibram X. Kendi's How to Be an Antiracist

JOIN ST. LUKE'S BOOK GROUP READING
 "HOW TO BE AN ANTIRACIST" BY
 NATIONAL BOOK AWARD WINNER IBRAM
 X. KENDI.

St. Luke in the Fields Church joins 200 parishes in the Episcopal Diocese of New York to read, understand and learn from one of the most important books of our time.

FROM BISHOP ANDREW DIETSCH:

"I could not be more pleased and honored to commend this remarkable book to the people and parishes of this diocese. Kendi pulls back the social covering to reveal the ways by which often unacknowledged racist assumptions infect every institution and system, and my heart and mind, and yours too. He offers an invitation to all of us and each of us to be transformed, to be enlarged, to be enriched, and to become better and more complete human beings, and more just communities. All together, in all our common humanity."

"HOW TO BE AN ANTIRACIST" Book Group meets Tuesdays from 7 - 8 PM on Zoom.

The Moderator is Richard Kigel, member of St. Luke's Vestry and author of Heav'nly Tidings from the African Muse: The Grace and Genius of Phillis Wheatley.

You will need to purchase the book to follow the discussion. For questions and to acquire the Zoom link, email: Zarina Sanjana (zsanjana@stlukeinthefields.org) or Richard Kigel (interiorsilence@gmail.com).

New Outreach Program | In Our Fields Mobile Feeding Program

Tuesdays and Thursdays from 10am to 1pm.

All staff and volunteers will wear a mask and practice social distancing to minimize risk.

For the last 200 years, the St. Luke's community has cared for the needs of our neighborhood and city with hospitality and imagination.

Food insecurity has remained a permanent concern for our city. Since the COVID pandemic, the numbers of people in line at food pantries and community kitchens has skyrocketed. "It's never been this tragic for such a sustained period of time," said Rosanna Robbins, director of food access and capacity at City Harvest. "We expect there to be a real need for free food for a very long time." In New York City, an estimated 2 million residents are now facing food insecurity – a number which has nearly doubled during the pandemic.

Faced with a consistent stream of folks these last six months asking for help securing their next meal, we made a decision: Instead of waiting for folks to find us, we'll go to them.

On Tuesday and Thursday mornings, we will gather to make and distribute meals and hygiene supplies along routes in our neighborhoods where we believe we'll encounter the folks who will need them. You can sign up for a slot: bit.ly/inourfields or write Simone at srichmond@stlukeinthefields.org with any questions or suggestions – especially of any places you may know about nearby that could inform potential new routes for us. In addition to meals, masks, hygiene kits, and resource lists, we will provide a supplemental pantry bag with grab-and-go items appropriate for those without access to a kitchen.

Thank you for supporting the St. Luke's Outreach programs. We look forward to working with you as we care for our community in this uncertain time -- tending our fields together.

Candidates' statements will be printed in January 2021 and posted on St. Luke's website.

There will be a special opportunity to meet and greet candidates at our virtual coffee hours on Sundays January 24 and 31, 2021. The Annual Parish Meeting will be on Sunday, February 7, 2021. The vestry are currently working on remote voting procedures and protocols which will be communicated to the parish as soon as possible.

Parish Intercessions

Persons listed below are prayed for weekdays by name at the 6:15pm Eucharist and on other occasions throughout the week. Due to the large need, the list is kept to family, loved ones, and close friends of parishioners only; names remain on the list for one month (six months for chronic illness). An additional list, circulated electronically to the intercessory prayer group only, is maintained for private concerns and for a wider circle of concern that may include parish members' acquaintances, loved ones of close friends, etc. All of the names on the printed list and the electronic list are prayed for regularly by members of the Intercessory Prayer Group. Parish members are encouraged to incorporate this list into their own devotions. To add a name to either prayer list, to provide an update, to express a need for ongoing prayer beyond one month, or to have a name removed from the list, please e-mail prayerlist@stlukeinthefields.org or call Fr. Bo Reynolds at 212.633.2099.
