GLORIA IN EXCELSIS Messa a 4 voci da cappella (1651) Claudio Monteverdi (1567-1643)

Gloria in excelsis Deo, et in terra pax hominibus bonæ voluntatis. Laudamus te, benedicimus te, adoramus te, glorificamus te, gratias agimus tibi propter magnam gloriam tuam: Domine Deus, Rex cælestis, Deus Pater omnipotens. Domine fili unigenite Jesu Christe, Domine Deus, Agnus Dei, Filius Patris, qui tollis peccata mundi, miserere nobis. Qui tollis peccata mundi, suscipe deprecationem nostram. Qui sedes ad dexteram Patris, miserere nobis. Quoniam tu solus sanctus, tu solus Dominus, tu solus altissimus, Jesu Christe, cum Sancto Spiritu, in gloria Dei Patris. Amen.

Glory to God in the highest, and peace to his people on earth. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, and we give thanks to you for your great glory: Lord God, heavenly King, God the Father almighty. Lord Jesus Christ, the only-begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, who takes away the sins of the world, have mercy upon us. You, who take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer. You are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy upon us. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

THE COLLECT OF THE DAY

Celebrant The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Let us pray.

O God, the King of glory, you have exalted your only Son Jesus Christ with great triumph to your kingdom in heaven: Do not leave us comfortless, but send us your Holy Spirit to strengthen us, and exalt us to that place where our Savior Christ has gone before; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, in glory everlasting. Amen.

All are seated.

THE FIRST LESSON Acts 1:15-17, 21-26

In those days Peter stood up among the believers (together the crowd numbered about one hundred twenty persons) and said, "Friends, the scripture had to be fulfilled, which the Holy Spirit through David foretold concerning Judas, who became a guide for those who arrested Jesus~ for he was numbered among us and was allotted his share in this ministry. So one of the men who have accompanied us during all the time that the Lord Jesus went in and out among us, beginning from the baptism of John until the day when he was taken up from us~ one of these must become a witness with us to his resurrection." So they proposed two, Joseph called Barsabbas, who was also known as Justus, and Matthias. Then they prayed and said, "Lord, you know everyone's heart. Show us which one of these two you have chosen to take the place in this ministry and apostleship from which Judas turned aside to go to his own place." And they cast lots for them, and the lot fell on Matthias; and he was added to the eleven apostles.

PSALM 1

Anglican chant (Edward Elgar)

Happy are they who have not walked in the counsel of the wicked, *
nor lingered in the way of sinners,
nor sat in the seats of the scornful!
Their delight is in the law of the Lord, *
and they meditate on his law day and night.

They are like trees planted by streams of water,
bearing fruit in due season, with leaves that do not wither; *
everything they do shall prosper.
It is not so with the wicked; *
they are like chaff which the wind blows away.

Therefore the wicked shall not stand upright when judgment comes, *
nor the sinner in the council of the righteous.
For the Lord knows the way of the righteous, *
but the way of the wicked is doomed.

THE SECOND LESSON 1 John 5:9-13

If we receive human testimony, the testimony of God is greater; for this is the testimony of God that he has testified to his Son. Those who believe in the Son of God have the testimony in their hearts. Those who do not believe in God have made him a liar by not believing in the testimony that God has given concerning his Son. And this is the testimony: God gave us eternal life, and this life is in his Son. Whoever has the Son has life; whoever does not have the Son of God does not have life. I write these things to you who believe in the name of the Son of God, so that you may know that you have eternal life.

THE HOLY GOSPEL John 17:6-19

Deacon The Holy Gospel of Our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.
People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus prayed for his disciples, "I have made your name known to those whom you gave me from the world. They were yours, and you gave them to me, and they have kept your word. Now they know that everything you have given me is from you; for the words that you gave to me I have given to them, and they have received them and know in truth that I came from you; and they have believed that you sent me. I am asking on their behalf; I am not asking on behalf of the world, but on behalf of those whom you gave me, because they are yours. All mine are yours, and yours are mine; and I have been glorified in them. And now I am no longer in the world, but they are in the world, and I am coming to you. Holy Father, protect them in your name that you have given me, so that they may be one, as we are one. While I was with them, I protected them in your name that you have given me. I guarded them, and not one of them was lost except the one destined to be lost, so that the scripture might be fulfilled. But now I am coming to you, and I speak these things in the world so that they may have my joy made complete in themselves. I have given them your word, and the world has hated them because they do not belong to the world, just as I do not belong to the world. I am not asking you to take them out of the world, but I ask you to protect them from the evil one. They do not belong to the world, just as I do not belong to the world. Sanctify them in the truth; your word is truth. As you have sent me into the world, so I have sent them into the world. And for their sakes I sanctify myself, so that they also may be sanctified in truth."

Lift up your hearts. We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People
It is right to give him thanks and praise.

The Celebrant continues:

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth. But chiefly are we bound to praise you for the glorious resurrection of your Son Jesus Christ our Lord; for he is the true Paschal Lamb, who was sacrificed for us, and has taken away the sin of the world. By his death he has destroyed death, and by his rising to life again he has won for us everlasting life. Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name.

*Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might,
heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.*

The Celebrant continues.

We give thanks to you, O God, for the goodness and love which you have made known to us in creation; in the calling of Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus, your Son. For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Savior and Redeemer of the world. In him, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In him, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life. On the night before he died for us, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me." After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me." Therefore, according to his command, O Father,

Celebrant and People

We remember his death,
We proclaim his resurrection,
We await his coming in glory;

The Celebrant concludes

And we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, O Lord of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine. We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Sacrament of the Body of Christ and his Blood of the new Covenant. Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice, that we may be acceptable through him, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit. In the fullness of time, put all things in subjection under your Christ, and bring us to that heavenly country where, with all your saints, we may enter the everlasting heritage of your sons and daughters; through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. AMEN.

POSTLUDE Ballo della Battaglia
 Bernardo Storace (17th cent.)

Please refrain from applause at the end of the postlude, to respect the devotional practices of others.

The flowers at today's worship service are made possible in part through the Kurt Weyrauch Memorial Flower Fund.

About the music at today's service

Claudio Monteverdi, maestro di cappella of the Basilica of San Marco in Venice from 1612 until his death in 1643, was one of the most important composers of sacred music in the seventeenth century. He must have written more than the three settings of the Mass ordinary which have survived, given the demands of his position. It is quite likely that his music specifically for San Marco has disappeared; quite possibly it was of such an elaborate nature that there would have been little call for publication.

Monteverdi's first mass, composed in 1610, was a six-voice parody of a motet by Gombert, and the second a part of the 1641 Selve morale collection, perhaps composed as much as a decade before publication. In 1651, after Monteverdi's death, the publisher Alessandro Vincenti collected "the sacred relics of the works of the most excellent Monteverdi", beginning his volume with a Messa a 4 voci da cappella. It was common for composers of the seventeenth century to compose mass ordinaries in the stile antico, or "old style," the style of Palestrina. But Monteverdi was thoroughly a Baroque composer. While he retains the modal system of tonality found in earlier polyphony, elements of this new style, such as sequence, madrigalian part writing and dramatic text-based contrasts, abound in the mass. Hence, this mass is in the style of Palestrina, but viewed through glasses of the early Baroque.

Born in Casalmaggiore near Parma in about 1575, Ignazio Donati served as maestro di cappella in various places in northern Italy: Urbino, Pesaro, Fano and Ferrare, returning to Casalmaggiore, his residence from 1618 to 1623. From there he progressed to similar positions in Novara, Lodi, and finally to the cathedral in Milano, where he served from 1631 until his death in 1638.

Donati's output is almost exclusively church music. He was consistently inventive in all the branches of it that he worked in, but he was especially important as an outstanding pioneer of the small-scale concertato motet for a few voices and continuo. He was particularly at home in intimate trio motets such as Non vos relinquam orphanos, scored for three equal soprano voices. The motet is in six sections, each of three emotionally contrasting lines of texts being followed by an exuberant "Alleluia."

Virtually nothing is known of the life of Bernardo Storace, other than what is included on the title page of his only surviving publication, a collection of keyboard works that appeared in Venice in 1664. Ballo della Battaglia is in the style of Spanish battle music; music based on "battle" themes was used liturgically for feasts such as Easter, St. Michael and All Angels, and of the Holy Cross, in which images of combat and strife abound.

Monday evenings at 7pm on Zoom. Email Fr. Bo Reynolds or Zarina Sanjana for the link.

The series focus is on books, articles, documentaries and films that stimulate discussions on racism. The May virtual concert by the Choir of St. Luke will be available online beginning on May 20. The program, Music in the Convent, will feature music by the 17th-century Benedictine nun Chiara Margarita Cozzolani. In Our Fields Mobile Feeding Program

Tuesdays and Thursdays from 10am to 1pm. All staff and volunteers will wear masks.

On Tuesday and Thursday mornings, we gather to make and distribute meals and hygiene supplies along routes in our neighborhoods where we are encountering folks who need them most. You can sign up for a slot (whub.at/stlukeitf), donate items from our Amazon wish list (bit.ly/iof-amazon), or write Jill (jtwhig@stlukeinthefields.org) with any questions or ideas.

Sock and Toiletry Drive

Please consider a donation of thick white crew socks, toothbrushes, mini toothpastes, small bar soaps, mini hand sanitizers, hand warmers, or disposable masks. You can drop them at the Parish House any time from 9:00 to 5:00 Monday through Friday, or email Simone Richmond to arrange another time. You can also order them online and have them delivered to us here. Thank you to all of our volunteers and donors who have made this ministry possible! We are grateful for your support and partnership in this work.

Attend In-Person Sunday 10:30 Worship

We're raising our pew capacity to 100 worshippers! All are welcome to join us. We request that all who attend services please register (either online at bit.ly/sun-service or in-person before service) for contact tracing purposes. Services will continue to be livestreamed for those who wish to watch from home. Entry into the church will be through the main gate (north lawn by the church) and through Laughlin Hall. Please wear your mask throughout your time in the church and observe social distancing throughout the service, including when coming forward to receive Communion. Let's be safe for each other. Thank you.

Adult Education: Anti-Racism Ministry

Our nation continues to grapple with systemic racism just as it has since the civil war and reconstruction. Adult Education: Anti-Racism Ministry is a discussion series designed to identify and discuss contemporary and historical issues of race, color, and ethnicity and their impact on our society in order to enable change in perspective, both individually and collectively, to encourage anti-racism in the broader community. It is a safe place for members of our parish and community to gain a deeper understanding of how racism affects our lives.

The series focus is on books, articles, documentaries and films that stimulate discussions on racism. In the past the series has used books such as How To Be An Antiracist by Ibram Kendi and So You Want To Talk About Race by Ijeoma Oluo to further our collective journeys. Over the course of the summer months, the series will use the book, Waking Up White, by Debbie Irving for discussions where we will share our understanding of what the author is teaching us about race.

If you would like to purchase the book from a minority owned bookstore, here are two local businesses: The Lit Bar (thelitbar.com) and Sisters Uptown Bookstore (sistersuptownbookstore.com).

These discussions are held via Zoom and beginning on May 3rd, the series will meet each Monday. Please contact Fr. Bo Reynolds (breyolds@stlukeinthefields.org) or Zarina Sanjana (zsanjana@stlukeinthefields.org) for the Zoom link.

For book recommendations and resources, visit our bibliography on LibraryThing (librarycat.org/lib/stlukeschurch).

Outreach at St. Luke's | In Our Fields Mobile Feeding Program

Tuesdays and Thursdays from 10am to 1pm.

All staff and volunteers will wear a mask and practice social distancing to minimize risk.

For the last 200 years, the St. Luke's community has cared for the needs of our neighborhood and city with hospitality and imagination.

Food insecurity has remained a permanent concern for our city. Since the COVID pandemic, the numbers of people in line at food pantries and community kitchens has skyrocketed. "It's never been this tragic for such a sustained period of time," said Rosanna Robbins, director of food access and capacity at City Harvest. "We expect there to be a real need for free food for a very long time." In New York City, an estimated 2 million residents are now facing food insecurity – a number which has nearly doubled during the pandemic.

Faced with a consistent stream of folks these last six months asking for help securing their next meal, we made a decision: Instead of waiting for folks to find us, we'll go to them.

On Tuesday and Thursday mornings, we will gather to make and distribute meals and hygiene supplies along routes in our neighborhoods where we believe we'll encounter the folks who will need them. You can sign up for a slot: vhub.at/stlukeitf or write Simone at srichmond@stlukeinthefields.org with any questions or suggestions – especially of any places you may know about nearby that could inform potential new routes for us. In addition to meals, masks, hygiene kits, and resource lists, we will provide a supplemental pantry bag with grab-and-go items appropriate for those without access to a kitchen.

Thank you for supporting the St. Luke's Outreach programs. We look forward to working with you as we care for our community in this uncertain time ~ tending our fields together.

Parish Intercessions

Persons listed below are prayed for weekdays by name at the 6:15pm Eucharist and on other occasions throughout the week. Due to the large need, the list is kept to family, loved ones, and close friends of parishioners only; names remain on the list for one month (six months for chronic illness). An additional list, circulated electronically to the intercessory prayer group only, is maintained for private concerns and for a wider circle of concern that may include parish members' acquaintances, loved ones of close friends, etc. All of the names on the printed list and the electronic list are prayed for regularly by members of the Intercessory Prayer Group. Parish members are encouraged to incorporate this list into their own devotions. To add a name to either prayer list, to provide an update, to express a need for ongoing prayer beyond one month, or to have a name removed from the list, please e-mail prayerlist@stlukeinthefields.org or call Fr. Bo Reynolds at 212.633.2099.
