About Mr. Bakari M. Lake-Sample

Mr. Bakari M. Lake-Sample was born on August 24, 1985 in Albany, New York. He was educated locally at St. Pius X School and Bishop Maginn High School. After graduating from high school, Bakari attended SUNY Buffalo State (formerly known as Buffalo State College) where he earned his Bachelor of Arts degree in Media Production on May 16, 2009. Since 2010, Bakari was on his way to earning his Master of Science degree in Communications with a concentration in Media Production at the College of Saint Rose. During his undergraduate and graduate school career, Bakari developed and maintained a website devoted to underground artists (www.areyouinthatmoodyet.com). Bakari passed away January 29, 2012.

Bakari had love for many things, but his greatest love was music. From a young age, he spent time listening and studying various forms of music. He played the piano, wrote rap lyrics, produced other artists, and critiqued rappers of his time. He was always current in the latest news in the hip hop community. During undergraduate studies in Buffalo, he acquired recording equipment and this led to the production and creation of numerous innovative beats. He turned his dorm into a recording space for artists to produce their music and record in a comfortable environment. He initiated his website while at Buffalo State. It started as a blog and evolved into the website www.areyouinthatmoodyet.com. He spent time in managing his own material, but also devoted his time to posting and hosting various hip hop artists; giving them a chance and opportunity in the music world. His website was devoted to providing quality content that is enjoyable to everyone.
