What issues do you feel have been embraced by the church today that are contrary to Scripture? Why do you feel these issues have gotten a foothold?

In Mark 10, when the Pharisees are testing Jesus, He immediately takes them to Scripture as the starting point for his answer about whether divorce was lawful or not. Why is this a good pattern for us to follow? In what ways must Scripture be a guardrail for us when it comes to cultural issues today?

Mark commented on the importance of recognizing the authority of Scripture. Why is the doctrine of the authority of Scripture so important for us to embrace? What are the implications of not embracing this doctrine?

In a culture where the Bible is so accessible for us today, why is it that Christians are often so Biblically illiterate? What are ways that we can grow in Biblical literacy both as individuals and families?

Why do you think God would start off the Scripture revealing His authority over all creation? Why is God's authority foundational for all He would say after Genesis 1:1?
