Read Genesis 1:24-27 to get the Scripture passage back in your mind.

Discuss

In what ways does Genesis 1 highlight the creation of man when compared to how God speaks of everything He created before man? What does this indicate about significance of mankind in relation to the rest of creation?

What does it mean that mankind is made in the image and likeness of God? How does that reality within itself separate mankind from the rest of creation?

In what ways has our culture diminished the significance and value of mankind? What are ways that Christians can promote the significance of mankind in our culture today?

What does it mean that man has dominion over the earth? What responsibilities does that present for us in 2022?

How does Genesis 1:27 speak to the equal value of men and women in the eyes of God? Why is it important that we recognize the perfect equality that men and women have before God?

How does Genesis 1:27 speak to God's creation of genders? How do you think this verse would be received in our culture today? In what ways can believers speak the truth of God's design into a culture that rejects it?
