THE WORD

PRAYER FOR ILLUMINATION (Unison)

Through your Word, O God, let your Holy Spirit open our insight, remove our ignorance, kindle our zeal, and bind us to you, in Jesus' name. Amen.

FIRST LESSON: Deuteronomy 6:1-9

Now this is the commandment—the statutes and the ordinances—that the LORD your God charged me to teach you to observe in the land that you are about to cross into and occupy, so that you and your children and your children’s children may fear the LORD your God all the days of your life, and keep all his decrees and his commandments that I am commanding you, so that your days may be long. Hear therefore, O Israel, and observe them diligently, so that it may go well with you, and so that you may multiply greatly in a land flowing with milk and honey, as the LORD, the God of your ancestors, has promised you.

Hear, O Israel: The LORD is our God, the LORD alone. You shall love the LORD your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your might. Keep these words that I am commanding you today in your heart. Recite them to your children and talk about them when you are at home and when you are away, when you lie down and when you rise. Bind them as a sign on your hand, fix them as an emblem on your forehead, and write them on the doorposts of your house and on your gates.

This is the Word of the Lord!
Thanks be to God!

PSALM 119:1-8 (Responsive)

Leader: Happy are those whose way is blameless, who walk in the law of the Lord.

People: Happy are those who keep his decrees,
who seek him with their whole heart,
who also do no wrong,
but walk in his ways.

Leader: You have commanded your precepts
to be kept diligently.

People: O that my ways may be steadfast
in keeping your statutes!

Leader: Then I shall not be put to shame,
having my eyes fixed on all your commandments.

People: I will praise you with an upright heart,
when I learn your righteous ordinances.

Leader: I will observe your statutes;
do not utterly forsake me.

SECOND LESSON: 2 Corinthians 8:1-12

⁸ We want you to know, brothers and sisters, about the grace of God that has been granted to the churches of Macedonia; ² for during a severe ordeal of affliction, their abundant joy and their extreme poverty have overflowed in a wealth of generosity on their part. ³ For, as I can testify, they voluntarily gave according to their means, and even beyond their means, ⁴ begging us earnestly for the privilege of sharing in this ministry to the saints—
⁵ and this, not merely as we expected; they gave themselves first to the Lord and, by the will of God, to us, ⁶ so that we might urge Titus that, as he had already made a beginning, so he should also complete this generous undertaking among you. ⁷ Now as you excel in everything—in faith, in speech, in knowledge, in utmost eagerness, and in our love for you—so we want you to excel also in this generous undertaking.

⁸ I do not say this as a command, but I am testing the genuineness of your love against the earnestness of others. ⁹ For you know the generous act of our Lord Jesus Christ, that though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, so that by his poverty you might become rich. ¹⁰ And in this matter I am giving my advice: it is appropriate for you who began last year not only to do something but even to desire to do something—
¹¹ now finish doing it, so that your eagerness may be matched by completing it according to your means. ¹² For if the eagerness is there, the gift is acceptable according to what one has—not according to what one does not have.

This is the Word of the Lord!

Thanks be to God!

OFFERTORY

How Shall I Sing That Majesty

Kenneth Naylor

How shall I sing that majesty
Which angels do admire?
Let dust in dust and silence lie;
Sing, sing ye heavenly choir.
Thousands of thousands stand around
Thy throne, O God most high;
Ten thousand times ten thousand sound
Thy praise; But who am I?

(Offertory continues on the next pages)

Thy brightness unto them appears;
Whilst I thy footsteps trace,
A sound of God comes to my ears,
But they behold thy face.
They sing because thou art their sun;
Lord, send a beam on me;
For where heaven is but once begun,
There alleluias be.

Enlighten with faith's light my heart,
Inflame it with love's fire;
Then shall I sing and bear a part
With that celestial choir.
I shall, I fear, be dark and cold
With all my fire and light;
Yet, when thou dost accept their gold,
Lord, treasure up my mite.

How great a being, Lord, is thine,
Which doth all beings keep!
Thy knowledge is the only line
To sound so vast a deep.
Thou art a sea without a shore,
A sun without a sphere;
Thy time is now and evermore,
Thy place is everywhere.

- This year's stewardship's theme is Pathways to Generosity. The Stewardship Team is asking that everyone be engaged in this journey as we seek to grow in our relationship with God. The focus is on prayer, biblical devotions read each day for twenty-eight days and asking, "God, where do You want me to be in my giving?" We will learn about being born in the image of a generous God, being grounded in gratitude, revealed through prayer and sealed by faith, in the devotional book "A Generous Life."
Through Sunday, November 7, you will receive on Sunday a week's worth of daily devotions in your email. There are also a limited number of hard copies available in the church welcome center. You are welcome to pickup a copy today. You may want to read the devotions as a family, as a couple or by yourself.

Join us on Zoom for a special guest who will give us the latest information. We will also have some Show and Tell. Stay tuned for details in the electronic banner and church bulletin.

- You are invited to register for the next Roundtable Pulpit group with Pastor John Morgan. You will assist in widening the preacher's perspective, promoting collaboration and a public forum of theology in the pulpit. Based on the weekly conversation, a sermon will be written and preached by Rev. Morgan the following Sunday. It is believed that from the Roundtable discussion, a richer, more meaningful and relevant witness to the power and presence of God in our lives and in our world will be possible. Audio of the sermons will be available on the WPC website (www.mywpc.org) or in print (contact the church office) after they have been preached and comments or reactions to them are always welcome.
