CALL TO WORSHIP

Leader: Into a dark world a droplet comes, a blessing of hope and peace, carrying within it a green heart, a symbol of God's renewing love

All: Come inhabit our darkness, God, for dark and light are alike to you.

Leader: May the hope found in nature's spring remind us of your love

All: And lighten our journey through Lent and beyond.

1 Come sing to God, O liv - ing saints; sing prais - es to God's name.
2 In my suc-cess I felt se - cure; how good you've been to me.
3 What good is gained by my dis - grace, what prof - it in de - feat?
4 You change my grief to joy-filled dance; my sor - rows you de - stroy.

God's an - ger is not per - ma - nent; God's love will nev - er wane.
I said that this is my own work, as - crib - ing all to me.
My grave can - not con - fess your name, nor praise for you re - peat.
In faith - ful - ness you hear my cry and fill my life with joy.

Though tears may tar - ry for the night with sighs of deep - est pain,
But when you turned a - side your face, my life was filled with fears.
Now hear, O Lord, my plain - tive cry; be mer - ci - ful to me.
And so to you my heart shall sing; my voice your good - ness raise.

yet joy comes with the morn - ing sun, a peace that is not vain.
I begged for help; to you I cried with loud and bit - ter tears.
Ac - cept my long - ing heart's re - quest and from death set me free.
You are my God, for - ev - er - more. My life shall sing your praise.

CALL TO CONFESSION

Leader: God, the seamstress of human souls, has bound all of us together in a single garment of destiny so that what affects one affects us all. Yet we often do not see the world this way. With this in mind let us confess our sins together.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION (Unison)

O Spirit, we realize and regret our faults. You made all people in your image, but we allow bigotry to create inequity. We allow thoughts of supremacy to create competition within our communities and throughout creation. Grant us kindness and humility as we labor together and reconcile tolerance. Forgive us for who we have been when we fall short, and let us strive for harmony and unity through the strength of Christ. Amen.

A TIME FOR SILENT PRAYER

KYRIE

Leader: Lord, have mercy.

People: Christ, have mercy.

All: Lord, have mercy

ASSURANCE OF PARDON

Leader: For you, O God, have forgiven our sins, just as promised. And you have claimed us as your promised people, made of many races, languages, customs, and cultures. People from all walks of life, accepted and loved just as we are.

THE WORD

PRAYER FOR ILLUMINATION (Unison)

Holy God, if we are honest, faith often feels like water in our hands. No matter how hard we try to hold onto it, some of it always slips through— Like droplets of truth running down our wrists, back towards our heart. This human inability to hold on leaves us thirsty for more. So, as we prepare to read scripture, we pray that once again that you would meet us here. Meet us in our hope and our heartache. Meet us in our fear and our joy. And even if the water keeps running to the floor and we do not have a tangible sense that you are near; we trust that you are always and forever meeting us here, waters of baptism running through us. Amen.

FIRST LESSON: Leviticus 19:9-16, 33-36

When you harvest your land's produce, you must not harvest all the way to the edge of your field; and don't gather up every remaining bit of your harvest. Also do not pick your vineyard clean or gather up all the grapes that have fallen there. Leave these items for the poor and the immigrant; I am the LORD your God. You must not steal nor deceive nor lie to each other. You must not swear falsely by my name, desecrating your God's name in doing so; I am the LORD. You must not oppress your neighbors or rob them. Do not withhold a hired laborer's pay overnight. You must not insult a deaf person or put some obstacle in front of a blind person that would cause them to trip. Instead, fear your God; I am the LORD. You must not act unjustly in a legal case. Do not show favoritism to the poor or deference to the great; you must judge your fellow Israelites fairly. Do not go around slandering your people. Do not stand by while your neighbor's blood is shed; I am the LORD. When immigrants live in your land with you, you must not cheat them. Any immigrant who lives with you must be treated as if they were one of your citizens. You must love them as yourself, because you were immigrants in the land of Egypt; I am the LORD your God. You must not act unjustly in a legal case involving measures of length, weight, or volume. You must have accurate scales and accurate weights. I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt.

This is the Word of the Lord!
Thanks be to God!

RESPONSIVE SCRIPTURE: Revelation 7:9-17 (Responsive)

Leader: After this I looked, there was a great crowd that no one could number. They were from every nation, tribe, people and language. They were standing before the throne and before the Lamb. They wore white robes and held palm branches in their hands. They cried out with a loud voice:

All: “Victory belongs to our God who sits on the throne, and to the Lamb.”

Leader: All the angels stood in a circle around the throne, and around the elders and the four living creatures. They fell facedown before the throne and worshipped God, saying,

All: “Amen! Blessing and glory and wisdom and thanksgiving and honor and power and might be to our God forever and always. Amen.”

Leader: Then one of the elders said to me,

All: “Who are these people wearing white robes, and where did they come from?”

Leader: I said to him, “Sir, you know.”

All: Then he said to me, “These people have come out of great hardship. They have washed their robes and made them white in the Lamb’s blood. This is the reason they are before God’s throne. They worship him day and night in his temple, and the one seated on the throne will shelter them. They won’t hunger or thirst anymore. No sun or scorching heat will beat down on them, because the Lamb who is in the midst of the throne will shepherd them. He will lead them to the springs of life-giving water, and God will wipe away every tear from their eyes.”

Before God’s Throne

SECOND LESSON: Luke 19:1-8

Jesus entered Jericho and was passing through town. A man there named Zacchaeus, a ruler among tax collectors, was rich. He was trying to see who Jesus was, but, being a short man, he couldn’t because of the crowd. So he ran ahead and climbed up a sycamore tree so he could see Jesus, who was about to pass that way. When Jesus came to that spot, he looked up and said, “Zacchaeus, come down at once. I must stay in your home today.” So Zacchaeus came down at once, happy to welcome Jesus. Everyone who saw this grumbled, saying, “He has gone to be the guest of a sinner.” Zacchaeus stopped and said to the Lord, “Look, Lord, I give half of my possessions to the poor. And if I have cheated anyone, I repay them four times as much.”

This is the Word of the Lord!

Thanks be to God!

PRAYERS OF PETITION AND THE LORD'S PRAYER (Unison)

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.

AFFIRMATION OF FAITH: FROM INDIA INDUSTRIAL MISSION (Unison)

I believe in one world, full of riches meant for everyone to enjoy;

I believe in one race, the family of mankind, learning how to live together by the hard way of self-sacrifice.

I believe in one life, exciting and positive; which enjoys all the beauty, integrity and science; uses the discipline of work to enrich society; harmonizes with the life of Jesus, and develops into a total joy.

I believe in one morality, love, the holiness of sharing the sorrow and joys of others; of bringing together people as true friends; of working to get rid of the root causes of poverty and injustice, ignorance and fear; love, the test of all my thoughts and motives; love, guiding me; controlling me; assuring me of God's forgiveness; and giving me confidence under the Spirit's control.

I believe in Jesus, and the Bible's evidence about him; whose life, death and resurrection prove God's lasting love for the world; who combines in himself, life, love, truth, humanity, reality and God; who saves, guides, and unites all people who follow his way.

I believe in the purpose of God, to unite in Christ everything, spiritual and secular, to bring about constructive revolution in society, individuals and nations, and to establish a world under God's own direction.

- The 2nd Annual Earth Day Churchwide Scavenger Hunt! “The Family That Searches Together” Spring has sprung, and we are ready to get outside! WPC Families is hosting the 2nd annual churchwide scavenger hunt on Saturday, April 23, from 10am to noon. After the craziness of spring break and Easter, mark your calendars now for a fun-filled and relaxing morning! Clues are being put together to show off the beauty of our town, and to help us notice and care for our earth. EVERYONE is invited to participate (because as always, if you're reading this, you ARE a WPC Family!), and families are encouraged to take part together! If you participated last year, know that we will have DIFFERENT clues (and prizes) this year! Pick up your clues in the church courtyard, and plan to park or walk from there. After you finish, come back to the church, and pick up a prize!

- Help Needed! As we move into this spring we are in need of people willing to bring a meal to our youth or college students. Youth dinners are Sunday at 5:30pm and UKirk College dinners are Wednesday at 6pm. Both groups would need food for 10-12 people including a vegetarian option. Rachel and "A" are both glad to help you if you need dinner ideas. Just sign up at mywpc.me/Help to let us know of your interest!
- Kitchen Committee Update Plans: The Facilities Committee has been working in tandem with us to upgrade our WPC Kitchen. Phase I is already underway and a new stove and a freezer will be arriving soon. We are now ready to launch into Phase II and we need your help. There are many different groups that use our kitchen and before we proceed we are asking for your input on the upgrade and design. Your ideas will be critical to our renovation efforts to make sure the kitchen works better for all of us. If you would like to join us in this endeavor please contact Karen Annoni and we will arrange a meeting to share ideas in the near future.
- One Great Hour of Sharing: The Presbyterian Disaster Assistance Program was actually started in response to refugees coming out of Europe. Now, as hundreds of thousands of displaced persons flee the Ukraine, the Presbyterian Disaster Assistance teams are already providing assistance. PDA has a network of partners assessing the needs and providing humanitarian support. The majority of refugees are women and young children needing food, shelter, blankets, clothing, baby food and diapers. The needs are great. God's people are called to help everywhere that suffering and tragedy strike. Gifts to One Great Hour of Sharing support Presbyterian Disaster Assistance and the Presbyterian Hunger Program.
Please give now to One Great Hour of Sharing. You can write a check to WPC with "One Great Hour of Sharing" on the memo line; or you can go to the mywpc.org website and click on the giving line for "One Great Hour of Sharing."
- The Presbyterian Disaster Assistance Fund is now accepting donations to help Ukraine refugees. If you would like to make a donation, go to:

Our most recent collection weighed in at 509 pounds! With your help, our goal is to collect even more this year. We will be collecting food in our classroom every Sunday through the end of March. Suggestions for donations include nonperishable foods such as canned fruit and vegetables, canned meat and fish, nuts, soups, pasta, breakfast foods and peanut butter.

The Presbyterian Women's Coordinating Team has several positions that will be open for next year (2022-2023 season). No experience needed! - Opportunity to share your COVID pandemic stories: As we approach the two year anniversary of when the COVID pandemic really began to effect our daily lives, we would like to collect the stories of our members for a record of this world changing time in our lives. If you have any sort of story from the past two years that you would be willing to share please go to mywpc.me/pandemic where you can offer stories in both word and picture.
