

Technical drawing

STUDENT BOOK p. 355

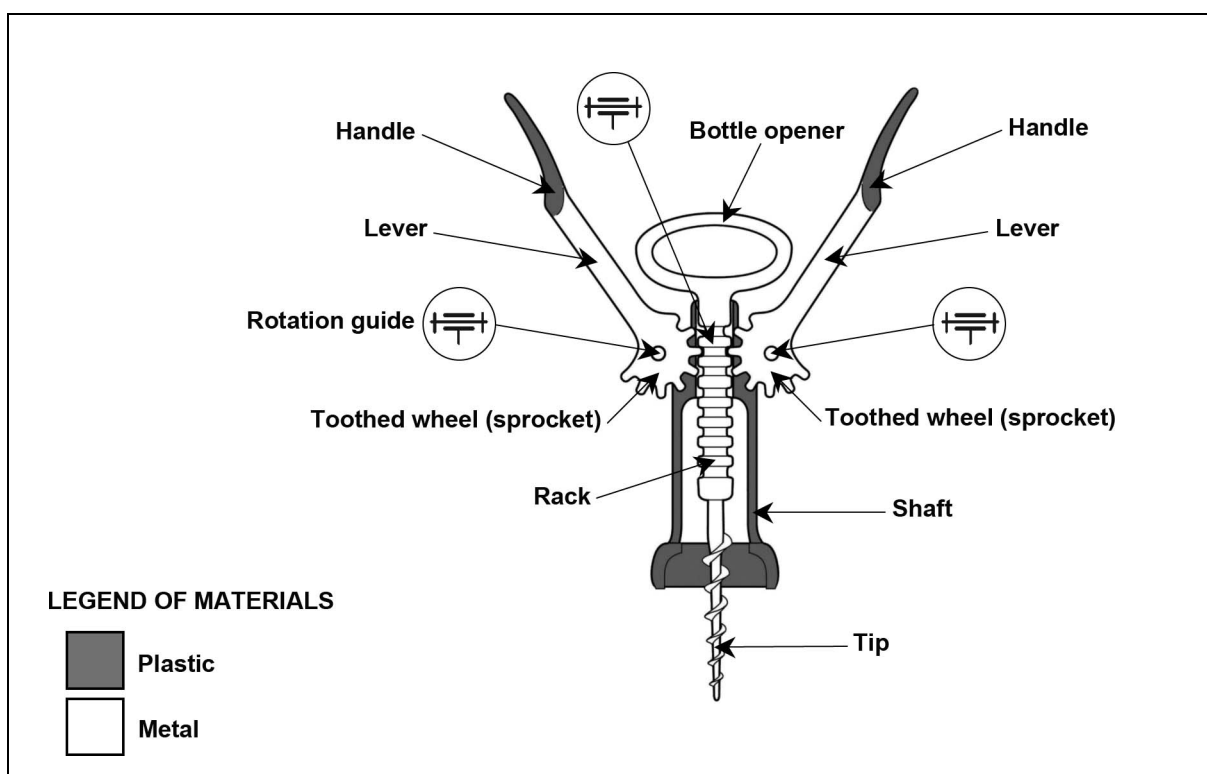

Design plan

STUDENT BOOK p. 355

1. Indicate if each statement describes a technical drawing or a design plan.

- This is a simplified representation of how an object operates.
- This identifies the parts and materials to be used for manufacturing an object.
- This shows how the parts are interconnected and their appropriate guides.
- This gives the forces and motions involved in operating of the object.

2. Use the illustration to answer the questions below.

a) Is this a technical drawing or a design plan?

b) What is the tip of the corkscrew made of?
