

1. Come Out, Pikkuli!

The three eggs of Mommy and Daddy Byrd start to hatch. Brother and Sister hatch briskly, but the third one needs Mommy's and Daddy's help. Thus Pikkuli is born. Pikkuli is a really small baby bird that moves around by hopping. Pikkuli is scared of all things new. He is afraid to go out, but then, by accident, he falls out of the nest and straight into Daddy's swing, made of an umbrella. Pikkuli notices that swinging outdoors is fantastic! Daddy and Mommy swing their three young and the young ones rejoice!

2. Why Don't You Fly, Pikkuli?

Pikkuli runs away from his family to find someone like himself. In the woods, Mrs. Hazel Grouse leads her seven little nestlings in a perfect queue and Pikkuli decides to join them, but they all fall down like dominoes. At the pond, Pikkuli finds a bouncing frog and they start to jump together on lily pads. Splash - frog leaps into the water and Pikkuli follows him. Splashing in the water is real fun and swimming is like flying, but underwater. Pikkuli returns home and tells his family that he can fly. The Family is overjoyed and Daddy would like to fly together with Pikkuli. But no, Pikkuli doesn't want to fly, he'd rather hop...

3. Pikkuli Finds a New Friend

Pikkuli asks Brother and Sister to play blind man's buff with him but they just want to fly around. Pikkuli looks for a playmate but no-one has time. Pikkuli finds a curiously uneven-looking bird, Honkkeli, fishing in the pond. Suddenly Honkkeli almost drowns and Pikkuli has to jump in the pond to help Honkkeli. Mrs. Grouse and her Chicks applaud: Pikkuli is a hero that saved Honkkeli! Honkkeli and Pikkuli become good friends.

4. Fly Pikkuli, Fly!

Pikkuli moves around by hopping even though he is a bird. Everyone tries to encourage him to fly because that is what birds are "supposed" to do. Pikkuli doesn't know how to fly but he knows how to fish. Pikkuli and Honkkeli catch a great pile of fish. Pikkuli's family is proud of him. He gets to fly on Mommy's back but falls off mid-flight. Everyone is scared and starts to cheer Pikkuli on: "You can do it! Fly!" Pikkuli starts to flap his wings vigorously and suddenly Pikkuli is flying! When Pikkuli realizes he's flying, he gets scared. Pikkuli lands on the ground, flying is not for him. Pikkuli hops on, while his family fly above him.

5. Fear Not, Pikkuli!

Pikkuli is afraid of the dark. Not just that, his big Brother frightens him by making monstrous shadow figures. Mummy and Daddy try to help, but Pikkuli is only brought to the roots of his fears when he falls to the pitch-dark tunnel of the Mole. From then on, even his Brother's shadow figures are a happy diversion!

6. Pikkuli Says NO!

Angry scenes, and with a will of his own, Pikkuli is learning how to express his feelings. Daddy tries one thing after another with Pikkuli, but to everything Daddy suggests, Pikkuli's answer is "Nooo!" After a while, Daddy gets upset with Pikkuli and starts sulking at him. There's no other way for Pikkuli now but to calm Daddy down and get him in a good mood again. The whole family ends up eating fresh fish at home, laughing.

7. Be Quiet, Pikkuli!

Pikkuli has the swing on first thing in the morning. He would like to play and tap on anything and everything, but everyone else is unbearably dull, not liking his music... Then Pikkuli finds Woodpecker, who is frantically tapping on an old car wreck. Pikkuli and Woodpecker start their concert together, but Pikkuli's head is now pounding and shaking: they played too loud!

8. Pikkuli's Weird Flu

Pikkuli is picky about his breakfast. He asks Mommy for berries. Mommy would give him seeds, but Pikkuli will have none of it. Pikkuli sees Owl tending to Spider, who is under the weather. Owl is giving Spider berries. Pikkuli pretends to be sick so that he too can get berries. Worried Mommy puts Pikkuli to bed and gives him berries. Pikkuli secretly takes even more berries but gets caught. The next night, Pikkuli wakes up and now he is sick for real. Mommy and Daddy tuck in Pikkuli and give him hot currant juice. Soon Pikkuli is back to health and eats his breakfast too.

9. It's Mine, Pikkuli!

Pikkuli is jealous of his siblings' pretty cone toy birds. He steals his Brother's toy bird, and a fight starts between the otherwise good-natured siblings. They are arguing and sulking – until Honkkeli hops along and gets everyone to play together. Without noticing it, the siblings have stopped qualling.

10. Pikkuli Gets a Pet

Pikkuli and Honkkeli find a caterpillar. Pikkuli wants the caterpillar as a pet and starts to train it. He takes Caterpillar home, feeds it and takes it for a walk. Pikkuli leaves to go and play by the pond, leaving Caterpillar behind, unattended. Caterpillar destroys everything. Mommy and Daddy scold Pikkuli, Pikkuli scolds Caterpillar. The next day, Caterpillar is gone and all that is left of him is a brown, hard, curled up thingy. The siblings arrange a funeral but in the middle of the funeral the brown, hard, curled up thingy cracks open. Out flies Butterfly that flies to kiss Pikkuli on the forehead!

11. Pikkuli Saves the Day

Pikkuli wants to help his family and friends cleaning up. Despite his good intentions, everything ends up a horrible mess. But by coincidence, he happens to help others anyway. In the end, Pikkuli is making circus tricks and brings tremendous joy to everyone in the woods. He especially cheers up a small, lost Hazel Grouse. Even a small creature can bring great joy to others.

12. Pikkuli and Nanny Mrs. Hazel Grouse

Pikkuli is taken to daycare to Mrs. Grouse even though he doesn't want to. Pikkuli is unable to keep up with the Chicks and doesn't know the customs of the Grouse family. And he's homesick too. When it's nap-time, Mrs. Grouse puts her soul into the story and suddenly Pikkuli is enchanted by the story. Mrs. Grouse strokes Pikkuli and Pikkuli falls asleep next to the Chicks. In the afternoon Pikkuli and the Chicks happily eat seeds. Pikkuli fools around, and even Mrs. Grouse is laughing! Mommy and Daddy come to pick up Pikkuli. Eventually, the day was a lot of fun!

13. Pikkuli's Birthday

Soon it will be Pikkuli's birthday. He is dreaming of all the more bigger and better presents. The family is getting annoyed, and the last drops is when Pikkuli tells all the coming guests what presents they should bring to him. The family arranges a surprise: in the morning of his birthday, Pikkuli wakes up alone! Pikkuli starts to look for his family. The family and all other forest animals show up from behind the bushes, singing Happy Birthday. The birthday becomes unforgettable, and the bouncy trampoline net weaved by Spider crowns the merriment.

14. Where are the Chicks, Pikkuli?

Pikkuli and Daddy are engaged in a wild game, when they hear the Hazel Grouse Chicklings singing in a choir. Pikkuli and Daddy notice that the Chicklings would like to move about and improvise, but the strict choir director Mrs. Hazel Grouse won't let them. To the horror of Mrs. Hazel Grouse, the Chicklings start running off one by one. At the end, Pikkuli and Daddy lead Mrs. Hazel Grouse back to the Chicklings who are found singing and dancing, happy and free.

15. Pikkuli, the Ugly Duckling

Pikkuli admires the beauty and difference of the Swan family. In comparison, his own family seems silly and ordinary. Pikkuli muscles in to the activities of the Swan family and tries to be like them, but the Swans do not care for Pikkuli and move on. In the end, Pikkuli realises that his own family is really quite nice and their type of humour makes him laugh.

16. Pikkuli Builds a Hut

Everyone has their own nest and hut, so Pikkuli wants to build his very own wood hut, too. His friends come to help build it. The hut turns out really nice, but Pikkuli wants to have it all to himself and shoos his friends away. But then Pikkuli feels really silly and alone in his hut. Finally everyone gets permission to come into the hut, and they can have a housewarming party!

17. Keep the Woods Clean, Pikkuli!

Owl and the other wood dwellers are having a wood party. In the midst of the party preparations, Honkkeli hurts his leg on a broken bottle. The animals notice that the forest is really trashed up by humans. Pikkuli and everyone else decide to clean the forest, recycling the trash they find. Together they then manage to arrange the wood party. But suddenly Pikkuli notices that the forest has been trashed up, yet again, by the guests. Feeling ashamed, the animals clear up the forest again. The woods are once again nice and clean.

18. Pikkuli's Night Adventure

Pikkuli and Frog have permission to sleep the night in the tent, on the condition that they don't run off into the dark woods, because the dangerous Marten prowls the forest at night. Pikkuli and Frog giggle and jiggle in the tent and finally jump out from the tent in their sleeping bags into the dark woods. Owl sees them, and so does the Marten. Pikkuli and Frog panic, and return to the tent. In the morning, Owl tells Daddy about the night adventure and Pikkuli is ashamed. But, luckily, Pikkuli and Frog get to go on a real night trip with Daddy and Owl to the rocks, sitting by a fire.

19. Pikkuli and the Strange Tracks

Everyone is storing food for the winter and Pikkuli would so much like to eat some of the treats in the family storage. However, Mommy tells Pikkuli to go elsewhere, and Pikkuli decides to gather his own storage. Pikkuli and Honkkeli collect a huge pile of treats into a hollow tree trunk, but the disappointment is huge the next morning, when they find the treats are gone! The two set off to follow the strange looking trails that frighten Pikkuli. The thief turns out to be a little baby Flying Squirrel who couldn't resist temptation. Pikkuli and Honkkeli teach the baby squirrel how to gather his own supplies and everyone is happy.

20. Pikkuli's True Friend

Honkkeli has Pikkuli on a piggyback ride. Frog and Flying Squirrel dare them to jump off a cliff. Honkkeli declines, but Pikkuli jumps. Frog goads them to jump from even higher. Honkkeli declines, but Pikkuli jumps. Frog goads them to jump from even higher, but then Honkkeli interferes and fetches Pikkuli away. Frog and Flying Squirrel mock Honkkeli tells Frog to jump, but Frog doesn't have the courage to do that. Honkkeli carries Pikkuli away on a piggyback ride.

21. Love is in the Air, Pikkuli!

Pikkuli starts comparing his own parents to the Long-tailed Tit couple that bill and coo continuously in love. Pikkuli is worried, as his own parents have rows all the time. With the help of Brother and Sister, Pikkuli turns into Little Cupid. They dig a trap hole in to which their parents fall. The children won't help their parents up until the parents promise to kiss each other. Mommy and Daddy start to laugh at the whole muddle. They tell their children that they do love each other very much, and that they're snappy with each other because they haven't had time to be alone together in a long time. In the end, Owl comes over to play cards with the children and babysit the whole night, while Mommy and Daddy camp outside on the moonlit rocks.

22. Pikkuli Wants a Holiday

The Long-tailed Tit couple fly past the Byrds' nest and stop by with Hawaii leis on their necks, to tell all about their lovely sun holiday. Pikkuli starts to dream about traveling south with his family. The Byrds head off with their bags to the Crane terminal. But there they find out that flights south are expensive, and that they don't have enough money. The Byrds try to forget about their holiday dreams and get back to their chores with dreary looks on their faces. Luckily, with help from Pikkuli, Mommy gets the idea to build their very own southern home kitchen! The Long-tailed Tit couple are astonished to see the happy Byrd family sing and dance in the middle of a paddling pool and eating fruit treats together in their own 'Hawaiian kitchen'.

23. You are Cute too, Pikkuli

Pikkuli is used to being the smallest one in the family, having his way, and getting all the attention. Then, the Long-tailed Tit couple bring their adorable little Nestling into care with the Byrds. Pikkuli is boiling with anger, as the rest of the family seems to notice only Nestling and let him/her have his/her way. When no one else is around, and Daddy who had been reading to Pikkuli and Nestling is asleep, Pikkuli is about to push the annoying little Nestling out of the nest! But then, Nestling notices Marten that is attacking the nesting tree. Pikkuli and Nestling manage to chase the Marten away together. And finally, Nestling is even in Pikkuli's eyes rather cute and nice.

24. Pikkuli is Foolish

Pikkuli, Frog and Flying Squirrel are shooting rowan berries with cow parsley blowguns at a target board. Mrs. Hazel Grouse scolds the children about the shooting game. The threesome sneak after Mrs. Hazel Grouse to the pond, where she is washing clothes. Frog and Flying Squirrel shoot red marks into the laundry and they urge Pikkuli to shoot as well. First Pikkuli won't do it, but eventually he shoots. Frog and Flying Squirrel escape the place before Mrs. Hazel Grouse returns, but Pikkuli is caught red-handed. As a punishment, Pikkuli has to wash the laundry by hand in the pond. The pile of laundry is huge and Pikkuli feels like crying. Mrs. Hazel Grouse comes to console him. Pikkuli tells Mrs. Hazel Grouse how the others were goading him to shoot... and soon all three of them are washing the laundry!

25. Pikkuli's Funny Feathers

Owl prepares to paint a portrait of Hoopoe. Hoopoe comes to model with his son, but the strange looking Hoopoe chick draws the attention of all the wood dwellers. Even Pikkuli laughs at the new arrival! Pikkuli gets accidentally pushed into Owl's paint cauldron and soon Pikkuli is all brightly coloured! First everybody laughs at Pikkuli's weird colouring, but soon the others become inspired and want a wild paint coating themselves, even Mrs. Hazel Grouse who is usually very stringent and composed. In the end, everyone is painting themselves and each other, the tree top are filled with joyful laughter.

26. Pikkuli's First Crush

Owl has three lovely nieces visiting. Pikkuli falls in love with all three, one at a time, thinking they're the one and same. Unknowingly, Pikkuli arranges a date to watch the sunset on the rocks with all three of them. On the date appear three wonderful little girl owls. Pikkuli is astonished, but bursts into laugh. Everyone laughs and start playing as friends.
