

MHS Athletic Department Awards February Champions of Character

The Mooresville High School Athletic Department is pleased to announce the Champions of Character award winners from all Mooresville Schools for the month of February. The winners were honored at the MHS Sectional boys basketball game.

The Champions of Character program specific inspires character qualities being implemented through life experiences gained from the educational and/or athletic experiences at Mooresville. The program recognizes one male & female student from each elementary school, the middle school and high school for the month of February. The students each month are nominated by their teachers and chosen by their Principal for demonstrating the following three main core values through the Mooresville Champions of Character program: Character, Unity and Servant Leadership.

February Award Winners:

Mooresville High School – sophomore Lauren McBryar & freshman Michael Ronan

Paul Hadley Middle School – 7th grader Hope Ray & 8th grader Colin Vaughan

Neil Armstrong Elementary – 3rd grader Keegan Jones & 6th grader Drew Strietelmeier

Newby Elementary – 6th grader MacKenzie McCarthy & 6th grader Noah Davis

Northwood Elementary – 3rd grader Alyssa Tummers & 3rd grader Johnny Clampitt

North Madison Elementary – 1st grader Haley Taylor & 1st grader Joe Lashbrook

Waverly Elementary – 4th grader Lily Wymer & 6th grader Hunter Fletcher

The program recognizes those students who are making a positive difference in Mooresville schools as they demonstrate these core values throughout the year. The students selected for the month of February were recognized in a ceremony during halftime of the sectional basketball home game Friday, March 1.
