

Taber is Mooreville's Teacher of the Year

Paul Hadley Middle School careers class teacher Brett Taber has been selected as Mooreville's H.O.P.E. (Helping Our Pupils Excel) award winner for the 2012-13 school year. He was honored at the district's luncheon at the end of the school year and his award was announced by last year's H.O.P.E. recipient, PHMS history teacher Kevin Reeves.

Taber was nominated by his fellow teachers at Paul Hadley Middle School and selected from among the district's seven building nominees by a group of administrators and representatives of the Community Foundation of Morgan County. Taber will represent Mooreville in the Indiana Teacher of the Year competition this fall. Other nominees include:

MHS - Andy Marine

Neil Armstrong Elementary – Mandy Chitwood

Newby Elementary – Stephanie Dockery

North Madison Elementary – Holly Brimberry

Northwood Elementary – Mary Jane Baxter

Waverly Elementary – Jori Zollman

2012 H.O.P.E. Recipient Reeves, 2013 H.O.P.E. Recipient Taber, and Nominees Brimberry, Baxter, Dockery, Chitwood, Marine, and Zollman

Also honored at the end of the school year were this year's retirees, including:

MHS - Chuck Muston, Anne Brewer

PHMS – Gary Venable

Neil Armstrong Elementary – Jan Yaraschefski

North Madison Elementary – Sharon Knierim

Northwood Elementary – Karen Taft

Waverly Elementary – Sharon Cooper, Landra Hallock

Service Center – Ray Sawyer

Technology – Cheri Piercefield

This year's retirees had more than 150 years' of combined service at Mooreville Schools.
