

MHS Athletic Department Announces March Champions of Character

The Mooreville High School Athletic Department is pleased to announce the Champions of Character award winners from all Mooreville Schools for the month of March.

The Champions of Character program specifically inspires character qualities being implemented through life experiences gained from the educational and/or athletic experiences at Mooreville. The program recognizes one male & female student from each elementary school, the middle school and high school each month. The students are nominated by their teachers and chosen by their Principal for demonstrating the following three main core values through the Mooreville Champions of Character program: Character, Unity and Servant Leadership.

March Award Winners:

Mooreville High School – 11th grader Carissa Ooley & 9th grader Tanner Haston
Paul Hadley Middle School – 8th grader Sidney Morris & 8th grader Jonathon Eineman
Neil Armstrong Elementary – 5th grader Abby Finn & 5th grader Marcus Oskins
Newby Elementary – kindergartner Swaye Remster & 5th grader Connor Bellner
Northwood Elementary – kindergartner Zailey Andrade & 3rd grader Nicholas Breedlove
North Madison Elementary – kindergartner Desiray Vaden & kindergartner Gaige Fair
Waverly Elementary – 6th grader Chloe Walsh & 5th grader Alex Sappenfield

The program will recognize those students who are making a positive difference in Mooreville schools as they demonstrate these core values throughout the year. The students selected for the month of March were recognized before the start of the Boys/Girls Track meet on Tuesday, March 24th.
