

On Saturday December 9th, Mooresville High School BPA Chapter (Business Professionals of America) attended the Region Competition at J.Everett Lite Career Center to participate in the Region competition against 10 other schools in the region. 18 students from Mooresville High School qualified for the state competition held in March in downtown Indianapolis. Listed below are awards that students received on Saturday:

Katelyn Piche -- 5th place Database Applications
Chloe Cowgur -- 4th place Fundamental Spreadsheet
Sam Henderson -- 2nd place Fundamental Spreadsheet
Jonah Cordray -- 4th place Computer Security
Donoval Devault -- 6th place PC Servicing and Troubleshooting
Noah Bannister -- 1st place Integrated Office Applications and 9th place Fundamental Accounting
Noah Wheele -- 5th place PC Servicing and Troubleshooting
Seth Davis-- 3rd place Intermediate Word Processing
Chris Lamberson -- 1st place Legal Office Applications
Kaden Roberson -- 3rd place Computer Security
Tori Belton -- 7th place Fundamental Spreadsheet and 3rd place Desktop Publishing
Nikki Belton -- 2nd place Advanced Word Processing and 2nd place Medical Office Procedures
Kami Latimore -- 1st place Medical Office Procedures and 2nd place Desktop Publishing
Taylor Jones -- 4th place Intermediate Word Processing and 10th place Business Meeting Mgmt Open Contest
Cody Pennington -- 5th place Computer Security
Austin Richter -- 2nd place Legal Office Applications
Denton Yoder -- 4th place Personal Financial Management and 5th place Business Law and Ethics
Kameron Moorman - 1st place Intermediate Word Processing and 6th place Legal Office Applications
Ben Neal -- 6th place Prepared Speech
Dane Smith -- 6th place Business Meeting Management Open contest
Jonah Cordray, Donovan Devault and Sam Henderson-- 2nd place Administration Support Team
Carson Jones, Scotty Freeman, Ben Neal and Dane Smith -- 4th place Broadcast News Production Team

Very proud of each student that participated on Saturday. They worked very hard and are great ambassadors for our school and entire district!