A Peek at Our Week

Reading/Language Arts: "Mime in a Box"

The Flocabulary Unit for this week is titled "Mime in a Box". This test will be this Friday, 5/11/18. The new Greek and Latin roots are mob/mot meaning move, tract meaning pull/draw, and tend/tens/tent meaning stretch or give. The Greek and Latin Test will be this Thursday, 5/10/18.

Math: Chapter 9

We will continue working through the lessons in Chapter 9. We will begin an in-class project on Monday, 5/7. Your child will need 300 FLEXIBLE straws and one or two rolls of scotch tape for this project. Please have these materials at school on Monday so you can start the project ON TIME!!!

Spelling:

See the list below. These words will not be tested, but we will do several activities with them in class.

Social Studies: American Revolution

We will continue to read George Washington's Spy and Watch "Liberty's Kids".

Science: Flocabulary

Each kid will be assigned a science Flocabulary topic to study and present to the class by the end of next week.

Blooming Events

5:30 - 8:00

5/17 Flintstone 500

5/18 Field Day

5/24 LAST DAY OF SCHOOL!

Projects

This week we will work on a fun in-class project! Your child will need 300 FLEXIBLE straws and 2 rolls of scotch tape. We will also begin our ABCs of 5th Grade book, which will be materials that need to be purchased for the ABC book.

Reminders

The Spring Carnival is this Friday! If you haven't already sent in something for our basket and want to, you still have time! Our basket's theme is "Well Wishes". Wrapping paper, cards, gift bags, bows, ribbon, stationary, etc. would all be great items to send!
