About Nanaimo, B.C.

Nanaimo is located on the eastern side of Vancouver Island; 23km (14 miles) west of Vancouver, and 113km (70 miles) north of Victoria, British Columbia's capital city.

Nanaimo is the second largest urban centre on Vancouver Island, and the fifth largest urban centre in British Columbia, with a city population of 98,957 and strong growth projections.

Nestled between the mountains and the ocean, Nanaimo is a 20-minute flight or a 1.5-hour ferry ride from downtown Vancouver, with 16 scheduled sailings daily. Direct flights are offered to Vancouver, Calgary, Edmonton, and Toronto from the Nanaimo Airport (YCD). Nanaimo is also home to a cruise ship terminal.

The economic hub of Central and North Vancouver Island, Nanaimo boasts a vibrant business community. Businesses choose to locate in Nanaimo in part because of the cost efficiencies and range of telecommunications services. The area offers a diversified economic base of 6,233 businesses operating within the City of Nanaimo, together with a skilled and motivated workforce, exceptional technological infrastructure, and easy access to world markets.
