

SUPER MARIO:

From Movies and Music to Multimillion-Dollar Mansions

This globe-trotting former DJ and friend to the stars brings his "I Do More" philosophy to his real estate business

A native of the Philippines, Mario S. David was a self-described introvert until his father sent him on a 13-stop trip around the world by himself at age 15.

"It was a turning point in my life. It taught me independence and truly shaped my personality."

At 18, he left his home in Metro Manila to immigrate to Canada bringing his love of music and movies with him.

For years, Mario found success as a dance remix producer and DJ in several downtown clubs in Calgary and Vancouver.

"I loved being a DJ because it put me in a position to make a lot of people happy with what I do".

His love for movies influenced the unique concept for three Lower Mainland spas where groups can get pampered while watching a movie on a 14-foot projection screen. Mario's "The Movie Spa" concept gained attention within the spa industry and attracted local and international celebrities alike.

"Even though owning spas is totally different from being a club DJ, literally like night and day, the end goal was still the same, to make people happy," he adds.

Now that Mario is in real estate, he always applies his "I Do More" philosophy when helping people buy or sell properties.

"I am a firm believer that success in any business is centered on developing trusting relationships by providing a superior quality of service, to do more than what is expected," he says. "When you hire me, I'm the only one you deal with. That means I'm with you every step of the way, from the minute we meet until the closing and beyond."

Mario is also certified as a SRES®, a Seniors Real Estate Specialist, spending extra time understanding each person's situation as they transition into the next chapter of their lives. "I call it 'right-sizing', not 'down-sizing'."
