

The Fire Victims of Admirals Quarters Need Your Help!

Over 12 individuals and families were displaced by the large fire that happened on March 18th in the Admirals Quarters Complex, some of which had no insurance and lost most everything.

Anything you can give would be greatly appreciated!
See the attached list of specific needs or visit:

A “Community Donation Day” is taking place on Saturday, March 30th from 12-2pm at the Admirals Quarters Clubhouse: 18808 Nautical Dr, Cornelius, NC 28031

The following victims have expressed specific needs and things that would be immensely helpful during this time:

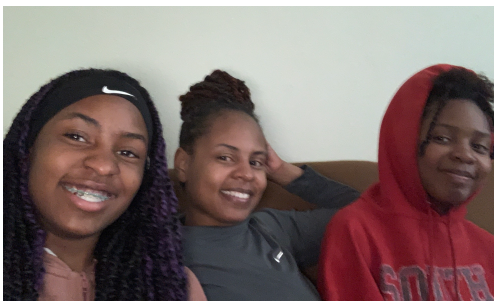

Alison & Ryan - Help with buying basic daily living essentials and necessities, such as groceries, toiletries, and medicine at drug stores. Also a hotels.com gift card would be extremely helpful, as they're still living out of a hotel until they can find a new place to rent.

Alyette & Calyx (2 1/2 yr old daughter)

- 2 small nightstands
- Small patio table & chairs and patio shelves
- Ladies Rain Jacket S/M and Ladies Rain Boots 7.5/8
- Toddler Rain Boots and socks (size 6/7), Children's Rain Jacket and pajamas (size 3-4T)
- Walmart, Target, or grocery store gift card for toiletries, cleaning supplies, and groceries

Marranda

They've been blessed with help from the CMS Foundation and school systems, but still need:

- Clothes for her daughters, ages 12 and 18 (Size Small 6/7 and shoe sizes 8 and 9)
- Kitchen items such as dishes, pots & pans, etc.
- 2 twin mattress or 1 full mattress

Martha

This 79 year old lady doesn't have any family to help her, but a kind lady named Grace (who lives on social security herself) has taken her into her home to care for her for free. Martha is the sweetest lady and kept saying how much she "loves Jesus". Any type of gift cards (such as McDonalds, Kohls, Walmart, etc), would help them greatly. All of her furniture was ruined, but she doesn't have anywhere to store donated furniture for 6-12mos while her building is rebuilt.

Jason

A former Army sergeant, he's gotten help from the VA, but is in need of various furniture, kitchen items, home decor, possibly a new or used laptop, or a gift card that would help him with those items.

Billy

The company he works for provided a furnished place to stay for one month, but for wherever he moves, he needs furniture, kitchen items, bath towels, sheets, silverware, dishes, pots and pans, as well as clothes (size Medium, pants 30-32), or gift cards to places that sell household goods.

Peter & Bella (Single Dad with a 16yr old daughter)

- King bed and queen bed (bed, frame, mattress, & bedding)
- Any and all furniture, all kitchen items, vacuum, etc
- He is 6'7", so clothing sizes for him is XL tall, 36x36 pant, 14 shoe, and she is size 6 small/medium and size 9 shoe
- Anything a 16yr old would like: accessories, room decor, & knick knacks. Of course gift cards would help this family!

Amy

Her parents are helping her with emergency essentials and housing, but she said a Target gift card would really help her with clothing and household goods.
