PRINCETON, NJ

Princeton is one of the most unique and well-positioned markets in the country: a vibrant, walkable, live/work/play urban environment in a traditional suburban setting. The thriving downtown, anchored by Palmer Square, sits at the doorstep to one of the most prestigious universities in the country, an institution whose brand gives the area a reputation of exclusivity and prestige. Situated in the heart of Palmer Square, the historic Nassau Inn offers 188 guest rooms and full-service hospitality. With a strong residential and office population, downtown Princeton is just a 3-minute drive off Rt. 1, providing easy regional access to both New York City and Philadelphia.

DOWNTOWN PRINCETON

Downtown Princeton offers a diverse mix of high-end apparel, home goods, lifestyle amenities, and some of New Jersey's best restaurants. This vibrant, walkable district thrives seven days a week, offering ample parking, and nearby cultural destinations like the Princeton Public Library, independent bookstores, a boutique movie theater, and Princeton University-affiliated spaces. Together, they attract steady foot traffic and enrich the downtown experience. Recognizing its prestige, leading retail brands have chosen Palmer Square as the cornerstone of their Central New Jersey presence.
