

Shannon Anderson

Clinical Assistant Professor, Electrical Engineering and Computer Science

Degree with Fields, Institution, and Date

- MS, Perfusion, Milwaukee School of Engineering, 2003
- BS, Biochemistry, University of WI--Madison, 2001

Years of Service on this Faculty: 14

Date of Original Appointment: January 2004

Advancement in Rank/Position

- Clinical Assistant Professor, September 2014
- Clinical Program Co-Director, September 2011-2013
- Program Director, Clinical Perfusion, August 2008
- Assistant Professor of Clinical Perfusion, January 2004

Clinical Experience

- Clinical Perfusionist, Aurora Medical Group, Milwaukee, October 2011 - present
- Clinical Perfusionist, Advanced Medical Solutions, Franklin, April 2011 – December 2012 & July 2017 - present
- Clinical Perfusionist, Children's Hospital of Wisconsin, Wauwatosa, November 2010 - October 2011
- Clinical Perfusionist, Aurora Medical Group, Milwaukee, January 2010 - October 2010

- Clinical Perfusionist, Cardiovascular Surgery Associates, Milwaukee, March 2003 - December 2009

Professional Licensure and Certification

- Certified Clinical Perfusionist, American Board of Cardiovascular Perfusion, 2004
- Licensed Perfusionist, State of Wisconsin Medical Examining Board, 2004

Scientific and Professional Societies of Which a Member

- Member, Wisconsin Perfusion Society, 2001 - present

Professional Development and Activities

- Wisconsin Perfusion Society, 25th Annual Spring Conference, Wisconsin, April 2018.
 - Presenter: “Anticoagulation Management for ECMO: Is it time to abandon the ACT?”
 - Recipient: LeRoy H. Ferries Award
- Wisconsin Perfusion Society, 24th Annual Spring Conference, Wisconsin, April 2017.
- Wisconsin Perfusion Society, 23rd Annual Spring Conference, Wisconsin, April 2016.